

Trady and Collector Ross; 6s. of 17. from Henry Captain F. W. Petrie,

We are gratified to observe is making to the appeal restoration of this ancient fer to the list of £10 sub- our columns last post, as rest taken in the subject, equally influential names is obvious that it only be taken; and we have no becomes more generally find themselves in suffi- the chapter to make early with the work of restora- fine a pile, and thus show e are not fairly chargeable in respect to their ancient w of our early ecclesiastis not in ruins. We under- eastera window, and the l with it, are nearly com- se taken down for repairs, ed in a new position, that proper display of the fine from a similar alteration England. Other impor- sary to restore the edifice hich neglect and bad taste and the extent to which vements can be carried out of funds that may be placed ttee, which, we entertain l to all that is required. contributed 30l. towards w Church at Killarney appointed Precentor of the during the alterations rd has been refused to the ting of the Irish Society, d Shepherd" acknowledge adame Goldechmidt; 6l. l. from Messrs. Foley, Bianconi, Esq. towards Magdalen Asylum, Those e undertaken the sale of eested to return the dupli- as possible.

It has kindly transmitted for Barrington's Hospital bett & Son; also through Magdalen Asylum, under Good Shepherd Convent.

At St Peter's Church, Dublin, Edward Greene, Esq, son of Arthur Greene, of Gardiner's-place, Mountjoy-square, Esq, to Adelaide, daughter of Alexander Reid, Esq, Pembroke-terrace. At St Mary's Church, Dublin, Andrew, son of the late Thos. Mitchell, Esq, of Ballinacard, King's County, to Teresa Frances, daughter of the late George Russell, Esq, of Charleville, county Cork. At Kingstown, Samuel Jackman, Esq, to Anne, relict of the late Thomas Davenport, Esq, R.N. At St Peter's Church, Dublin, Thomas Crawford, Esq, MD, Surgeon 18th Royal Irish Regiment, to Clara Frances, daughter of the late Richard Morrison, Esq, of Leeson-street, Dublin. At Holywood Church, Arthur P Holmes, Esq, MD, Bengal Army, to Isabel, daughter of Doctor J D Marshall, and grand-daughter of Sheridan Knowles, Esq. At Monaghan, the Rev John James Black, minister of the Presbyterian Church, Ormond-quay, Dublin, to Margaret, daughter of John S Stuart, Esq, County Inspector of Constabulary, Monaghan. At Exeter, Captain Abraham Richard Fuller, of the Bengal Artillery, to Catherine Agnes, daughter of the late Robert Armstrong, Esq, MD, Inspector of Hospitals, Royal Navy.

DEATHS.

At Lurg, in the Pyrenee, Rickard O'Hea, son of the late John O'Hea, Esq, of Clonakilty, and nephew of Rickard Deasy, Esq, Solicitor-General, and M.P. for the county Cork. Miss Mary Hynes, of O'Callaghan's Mills, county Clare. The Rev Mr Reidy, of Scariff. At the Mall, Waterford, Mary Anne, daughter of Edward N Barron, Esq, solicitor. At the residence of his uncle (Mr Edward Synan, Wickham-street) Mr David Barry, of Fedamore, county Limerick. At Torquay, Wm Henry Trant, Esq, formerly of the Bengal Service. At Thurles, Wm O'Flanagan, Esq. At Upper Gloucester-street, Dublin, Thomas Welsh, Esq, Barrister, Keeper of Deeds in Landed Estates Court. Captain Noel Eden, Royal Artillery. At Artramont Cottage, county Wexford, Captain Sir Francis LeHunte, RN. At Bray, county Wicklow, the Rev Edward Synge, late incumbent of Matlock, Bath. At Rutland-square, Dublin, Anne Thomasine, relict of Alex. Montgomery, Esq. At Kingstown, Maximilian, son of Brevet-Major Dawson, 75th Regiment. At Gweedore Glebe, county Donegal, Samuel O'Neill, son of the Rev Samuel O'Neill. At Harcourt-street, Dublin, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Robert S Irvine, Esq. At Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Mr David Maxwell. In Dublin, Mr Denis O'Brien, printer. At Ely-place, Dublin, at the advanced age of 95 years, Monimia, relict of Michael Davies, Esq, of Hamstead, county of Galway. At Rathfarnham, Mary Anne, relict of the late Rev Daniel Kelly, of Killeshall, county Tyrone. At Cambridge, Mary Ann, widow of the late Lieut-General Sealy, H.E.I.C.S. At Saugeen, Canada West, Walter Thorp, MD. At Plymouth, John Moore, Esq, formerly correspondent of the "Morning Chronicle" in Spain. At Kensington, Major Victor Raymond, late Paymaster 27th Inniskillings. At Windsor, Astley Green, late Captain 44th Regt. At Gibraltar, Captain John Augustus Fuller, 6th Royals, son of John Fuller, Esq, of Neston-park, Wilts. At Poonah, Mungo S Campbell, Esq, of Bombay, son of Colin Campbell, Esq, of Colgrain, Dumbartonshire. At Upper Tooting, London, Samuel Elyard, Esq, Deputy Lieutenant for Surrey. At Canterbury, Mrs Kingsford, widow of H C Kingsford, Esq, and daughter of the Archdeacon of Canterbury. At Ashfield Cottage, near Salisbury, Samuel Foot, Esq.

LIMERICK.

£20 REWARD

WILL be paid by CAPTAIN V Brookville, Newmarket, recovery of the following documents quantity of clothing and other contained in a leather valise, and back part of his tax-cart, and abs from Cornmarket Row to Ellen-st Limerick, on the evening of the 30 reward of five pounds having been

First—His Commission from the during the presidency of His Serene Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna.

A letter from his Serene Highness Waldron Maume of his having g Ministers of the Interior and Coloniz made to him for his services, and poses, to be surveyed, and titles Don Signor Capitano Matteo W signed Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna

Two letters from his Grace the Archbishop of Mexico: one of the Grace the Rt. Rev. Pedro Loza, B Sonora and Sinaloa, directing him dron Maume to bring two Irish P in the State of Sonora, with the col dressed to his Excellency General the state of Sonora, recommending and protection Captain Waldron M son accompanying him to Sonora.

A general of Letter of Introduction the Most Rev. Joseph Zadoc Al Sanfrancisco, to the Mexican gent

One Spanish and English Di page of which was written—"Pre and estimable friend Captain M Joseph Zadoc Alamany, Archbishop

One Passport, written in Latin heads of the Jesuit Society, wherever ing the bearer, Captain Waldron cial care and attention, as a perso ported the Church with his wea maintained her temporal interest often at the imminent peril of l Devos, Provincial of the Society of of Santa Clara College, Alta, Cali

A Letter of Introduction, writ Don Signor Dellvalley, late Mexic cisco, to his Grace the Rt. Rev. B to his Excellency the Governor of

A Letter of Introduction from Rev. Archbishop of Sanfrancisco Rev. Archbishop of Cuba, Havana ters and documents of importan Maume, and of no value whatever

Oct 8