

ed safely in New York, after a very
e. The deputation of which he was a comed in a public reception to the by a large body of ministers, of every mination—Episcopalian, Presbyterian, dist, and Baptist. It is worthy of notion from Philadelphia, headed by the Episcopalian minister, came to New f 96 miles) to give them the right-o, literally a courtesy which was ac-much erudition by the recipients.

glass 14 inches high, and 13 inches been placed in the turret of the nge, Borrowdale. This we believe, de of glass used for ecclesiastical berland.

of the Council of the Corporation, for to-day, was not held in conseent number of Aldermen and Town eing in attendance. In reply to the some members in attendance, the following communication:—

reet, Limerick, October 19, 1859. of the Good Shepherd presents re-ents to the Mayor, will feel much he will kindly express her and the nest thanks to the gentlemen of the o have so generously sympathized le undertaking of the Bazaar in aid Asylum, by kindly allowing their or the Bazaar; if their offer was not nerely because the Corporation room and because many alterations would ry,—but the Nuns are not less grateable sympathy evinced towards the penitents, and hope that the Almighty r it.

zazaar in aid of the Magdalen Asylum. of Madame Baligaud and the Sisters of l, was held on yesterday and to-day in St. Munchin's Young Men's Society, in which was crowded by the friends, atronesses of this most inestimable

Dr. Flannery has been pleased to pro-ohn Stack to the pastoral charge of the death of the Rev. Michael Reidy. ne Good Shepherd gratefully acknow-of 10*l.* from the Earl of Clare; 3*l.*
Lady Dunraven; and 1*l.* from Dean
l. from Thos. O'Grady (The Grange);
l. Power (Abbeyfeale).

ning the different temperance rooms of re illuminated, and temperance bands with flags and music, in celebration of the great Apostle of Temperance, Dr. Gilhooly administered the rite of Friday, at the chapel of Coolera, to y all of whom had made their first on that day.

MacNally has given the munificent sum nd for paying off the debt due on the ch of Clontibret.

At Benhall, Suffolk, Sir Henry Flower Every, Bart, of Eg-ginton-hall, Derbyshire, to Mary Isabella, daughter of the Rev Edmund Holland, of Benhall Lodge.

At Astley, near Manchester, Ebenezer Heulett, Esq, of Dundalk, to Susanna, daughter of the late George Harris, Esq, of Astley.

DEATHS.

On Monday morning, in Glentworth-street, after a tedious illness, borne with patience, and supported by the hope of salvation, through the merits of her Redeemer; Anne Crosbie Russell, relict of the late William Russell, Esq, of this city, and youngest daughter of the late Richard Dunscombe, Esq, of Cork.

At sea, on his return from Gambia, West Africa, to England, Lieutenant Edward Smith, 1st West India Regiment, son of Wm Smith, Esq, JP, Ballymona, county Tipperary.

At Pau, France, Mrs Honoria O'Hea, widow of John O'Hea, Esq, and sister of the Solicitor-General.

At the Barracks, Sheffield, suddenly, of disease of the heart, on the 11th instant, aged 37, Mr Francis Taylor, brother of the Librarian of the New Barracks, and late Mess Master 84th Regiment

On Thursday last, after a long and painful illness, the Rev Patrick Tully, P.P, of Gort.

Nicholas Purdon Stoute, Esq, of Youghal, and of Newtown, county Waterford.

At Blackrock, Cork, Jane Kearns Deane, child of F C Smith, solicitor.

Drowned, on her passage from Adelaide to Portland, South Australia, in the steamer Admella wrecked near Cape Northumberland, Frances Anna, daughter of Dr John Nugent, late of Lismore, county Waterford.

In Waterford, John Bogan, Esq.

At Eccles-street, Dublin, Harriet, relict of the late Captain Kelly, R.A, of Cloncannon, county Galway.

At Melon-hill, county Kildare, Margaret, wife of Albert Hall, Esq, of the General Post-office, Dublin.

At the Curragh Camp, Lydia, wife of Major Munns, Barrack-master.

At Upper Leeson-street, Dublin, Major Thomas Slator Rooke, Indian Army.

In Dublin, Mrs Cullen, wife of John Cullen, Esq, of Bola, county Wicklow.

At Mountpleasant-square, Dublin, James, son of J Godkin, Esq.

At the Rectory, Magheralin, Francis Thomas, son of the Rev Henry Murphy.

At Upper Rutland-street, Dublin, Mrs Anne D'Arcy.

At Mullingar, Robert Barlow, Esq, MD.

At Upper Leeson-street, Dublin, Sarah, wife of G P Christian, Esq.

Suddenly, John Trench Gill, Esq, MD, of St Patrick's Hospital, Dublin.

In Dublin, Mrs Margaret Fay, of Temple-bar.

At Newtownards, the Rev David Maxwell, Presbyterian minister.

At Fegan's Hotel, High-street, Dublin, Mr Thomas Grant, of Drogheda.

Margaret Frances, daughter of Edward B Stanley, Meath Hospital.

At Mauntpleasant-square, Dublin, John Jervis Dockrell, solicitor.

At Greenwich, Margaret, relict of Major-General Breddin, Royal Artillery.

Suddenly, at Milton, Kent, Commander T G Nichols, RN.

At Glasgow, Wm Larmour, Esq, late of Belfast.

At Everton, Pierce James, son of P J Hayes, Esq, of H.M.'s Customs at Liverpool.

In Paris, Mr Fletcher Norton, attache to the English Embassy at that city.

At Madeira, the Hon John Fortescue, son of Earl Fortescue.
Killed in action in India, Captain Hawes, son of Sir Benjamin Hawes, KCB.

At Mussoorie, India, Lieut-General Wm Vincent, late East India Company's Service.

At Bathurst, Western Africa, Wm Percival Gilborne, Lieut.
1st West India Regt, son of the late Captain Edward Gilborne, of the Royal Hospital, Kilmainham.

Killed at Melbourne, by a fall from his horse, Colonel John M B Neill, late 40th Regt.

At Surat, India, Augustus Griffiths, son of Major Griffiths, R.F.P, Royal Artillery.

Dear
my bes moval will be sufferi
I am

Bally
DEA
mony t eradica
half ha
dered I will have I happy
address
public

Mr
Daily
DEA
corns-
withou
wear allow lief yo withou
ing fr
city, I
Mr

SIR
move troub

AF
num are BEO
A

M
day, reco
abo
trul

Y
Pro
his Cro