

ern the churches
with emphasis,
not one that will
nd in the beauty
who have as yet
t a more perfect
his lordship here
ense required to
all to subscribe
ns. He said that 1,000Z.; all the
berally and cheer-
one gave grud-
y had subscribed
uld be accepted,
if he contributed
y prized as would oundance at their
ed—"peace and
izens of all sects
e had made it his istian charity and
d he could see no
ould not do the
r nearly an hour,
ian and apostolic
al benediction.—
subscriptions. It
oe consecrated for

most gratefully
n the Right Rev.

bbeyfeale, thankllamore, (through
of 5Z. towards the
rdship's property
as been given rent
onnell, Cave Cot-

acknowledge the
per Mrs. Owens,

ers school, mas-
pectable citizens,
pon the occasion
he conclusion of hemistry at the
he superiority of
at the Christian
e young lads to

ttle of Polynesia,
d to the Roman
etter denying the d in the Roman

H.M.'s Bombay Artillery, to Lucretia Anne, daughter of A L S Main, Esq, of New York
At Newchurch, Isle of Wight, George Douglas Harris, Esq, Lieutenant 19th Regiment, to Mary Elizabeth Bennett, daughter of Capt Wyatt, RN.
At Amherst Island, Canada West, Edward Rodney Cecil Pe-chell, Esq, Royal Canadian Rifle Regiment, to Alicia Alleyn, daughter of the Rev John Rothwell, Rector of Amherst Island.
At Swannington, Norfolk, John Davies, Esq, Surgeon-Major Army Medical Department, to Charlotte Wandsworth Bartell, daughter of the late Robert Wandsworth Bartell, Esq.
At St Paul's, Knightbridge, the Hon F G Irby, son of Lord Boston, to Augusta Caroline, daughter of Colonel John St Vincent Saumarez, and niece to Lord de Saumarez.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at the residence of her son, in her 73d year, beloved and respected by all who knew her, Hannah Woodhouse Fraser, relict of the late James Fraser, Esq, MD. of this city.
On Sunday, the 30th ult, at Clonmoy House, county Clare, in the 83d year of her age, Ellen, relict of the late Denis Canny, Esq, a lady universally esteemed and loved for her many virtues.
On Saturday night, after a short illness, at his residence, Henry-street, Mary Anne, the beloved wife of George Morgan Goggin, Esq, a lady much esteemed and respected by her relatives and friends. She was a fond partner, one of the most devoted of mothers, and she leaves a large family to deplore her loss.
At Cappamore, on the 29th ult, Mary Eva, wife of Mr John Reynett, deeply regretted.
At Belgrave-place, Cork, Richard John Copinger, solicitor.
At Ashton-place, Cork, Elizabeth Aldworth, wife of the late Henry Hardy, Esq.
At Thomas-street (West) Cork, Mr P Lacy.
At Castlecomer, by a fall from his horse, Mr George Dodd.
Thomas Bligh St George, Esq.
In Dublin, Margaret, daughter of Thomas Cuming, Esq, MD, of Armagh.
At Bristol, Thomas George, son of Wm Gilbert, Esq, Upper Baggot-street, Dublin.
At North Strand, Dublin, Mr Robert Scales, late of H.M.'s Customs.
At Clanbrassil-terrace, Dublin, Mrs Catherine Young.
At Portrush, Miss Grace Allen, aged 80 years.
At the Monastery of St Joseph, Clondalkin, aged 100 years, Nicholas Furlong, Esq.
Matthew Thomas Smyth, Esq, late Dangan Cottages in the county of Galway, Esq.
At Walton, near London, Simon Digby Boycott, Esq, son of the late Rev John Digby, of Osberstown, county Kildare.
Mary, relict of Edward Kelly, Esq, Dromore Lodge, county Meath
At Kingstown, Clifford Trotter, Esq, of Charleville, county of Wicklow.
At Clonagal, county Wexford, the Rev G P Purefoy.
At Graignamanagh, the wife of Mr John Hayden, Kilkenny.
At Ballinasloe, Margaret Jane, daughter of Benjamin Reeves, Esq.
At Sandycove, county Dublin, Miss Elizabeth O'Reilly.
At Wilton, county Wexford, Mr John Newton
At Calcutta, George Henry Dickson, Esq, Ensign H.M.'s 89th Regiment.
At Axminster, Devon, Walter Buckland, Esq, brother of the late Very Rev Dr Buckland, Dean of Westminster
At the Royal Mews, Buckingham Palace, Major J R Groves, Crown Equerry.
At the Royal Naval Hospital Haslar, Fitzwilliam Mansell, MD, BA, Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals and Fleets.
At Old Charlton, Kent, the wife of Captain G Kepple Taylor, Royal Artillery.
At Bayswater, John L McAndrew, Esq, late Captain in H.M.'s 4th and 94th Regts.
At Hyde-park, London, Isabella, widow of Hans Sotheby, Esq, H.E.L.C.S.

condition, and let at exceeding low rents
Also, on the same day, will be sold, with a large quantity of Household Furniture, Sale at 12 o'Clock, sharp. Purchasers 5 cent. commission.
PATRICK COLEMAN
6, Rutland-street,
Oct 26th

FIFTH ANNUAL
Auction of Native Timber
AT CRATLOE WOODS,
The Property of Lord GEORGE
On FRIDAY, 25th NOVEMBER

P COLEMAN has been favoured with instructions to Sell by Unreserved Auction at Cratloe Woods, on Friday, the 25th November, a quantity of Native Timber, comprising LARCH TREES, BIRCH, BEECH, &c., &c.
SALE AT TWELVE O'CLOCK.
P. COLEMAN, Auctioneer,
6, Rutland-street,
October 22

AUCTION
OF IN-CALF COWS, STRIPPERS, AND SHEEP.

P. COLEMAN
HAS received instructions from MRS. [Name] to give immediate possession of [Property] to Sell by Unreserved Auction, on TUESDAY, the 8th Inst., at her Farm, Athlunkard, the following Stock, viz:—
2 In-Calf Cows, to Calve early in February
6 Strippers,
2 2-Year Old Heifers, and
8 Sheep.
Purchasers to Pay 5 Per Cent. as Auctioneer's Fee.
Sale at 12 o'Clock.
PATRICK COLEMAN,
Auctioneer, &c., 6, Rutland-street,
Limerick, 2nd November, 1859.

Limerick Union

AUCTION
THE Board of Guardians will cause to be Sold by Public Auction at the Limerick House, on THURSDAY, the 10th Inst, a large quantity of Men and Women's condemned Clothing, Old Iron, Metal, Bones, &c, &c.
The entire will be Sold in Lots to suit the convenience of the bidders.
Attendance. Sale at 12 o'clock.
PATRICK COLEMAN,
Auctioneer, &c 6, Rutland-street,
Nov 2