

ought not to be an object on which ought to be more concentrated, or to ments ought to be more strenuously Rev. gentleman then entered on a poral power of the successors of St.
period when St. Peter detected and me of Ananias and Saphira as reof the Apostles. He said that he he meeting briefly on the origin of al power, and of the necessity which poral power in the throne of the e dignity by which it held the sceptre of the providential history which iations in the world with the power of protects, defends, and exalts by its im-ne power which rules in the vatican, rof the Popes of Rome. The Very traced the progress of christianity e, the overthrow of paganism, and the
its ruins of the religion of Christ or Constantine, who presented Rome to ee. He then traced the progress of der succeeding Emperor's—of its perse-eo, the Isaurian, and the sacking and me under Alaric, the Goth, and Attila, owed how the Pope's were, during these protectors of the people and the guar-He then spoke of the Lombard's, and thus, and detailed how these were con-
, and, lastly, by Charlemagne, King of er presenting the Pope with more than ch he now enjoys, as a fitting appanage e, and leaving his title deeds upon the tles. He then alluded to the obedience
th which was paid to the chair of Peter until heresy and schism tore asunder the nt of Christ, by rending, like ravening rch of God. The rev. gentleman conclu-uent and learned discourse by observing, al power can compete with that of ung up with the people, and which Prinere found to defend, as Clovis did, even gne won the golden diadem, which the
is Royal and chivalrous head,—and, as arlemagne had the power and the right
d no one unless a man blinded by preju-
the fact, that the throne of the Pon-
a right as justifiable, by demonitimate, and by all the canon's of a men observe, or as ever was acany one can deem possible to exist.
in comparison with Rome; why Aus-
w power—Prussia is but of yesterday—more than 100 years old—England as ce 1689, and to compare any nation ld be to suppose ignorance upon his at of his auditory—in fact there was mpare with Rome, nor is there any for eration is felt; millions of hearts beat zones of the earth wherever the faith-
was not a spot on the habitable globe heart did not beat for Rome, and for er, and there is not a nation in which ld not be found to pour forth their an a single right appertaining to the l be destroyed, nay, sooner than they illed.
nks was passed to the Very Rev. lec-
meeting broke up.

Regt. to Mary, daughter of Thomas Welsby, Esq., Chester.
At St Paul's, D'Urban, South Africa, John Robert Lys, Esq., to Olivia Selina, daughter of the late Lieut Oliver M Fry, 5th Fusiliers.

DEATHS.

On Sunday, at his seat, Faha in this county, deeply and sincerely regretted. George Tutbill, Esq, a gentleman, of unassuming manners, who won for himself the esteem and affection of a numerous circle of friends. He was beloved and respected by his tenantry, to whom he was a kind, considerate, and indulgent landlord. He has bequeathed his extensive estates to his nephew, Mr George Taylor of Hollypark. This morning the remains of the lamented gentleman were interred in the family vault at Kilmeedy church-yard. The funeral cortege was very large, including Lord Clarina, Right Hon W Monsell, M.P., Messrs Dickson, Taylors, Massys, Green, Bernard, Fotherby, Boyse, Bruce, Westropp, Fitzgerald, Harding, Cooper, Parsons, O'Grady, Adamson, Maunsells, Rev Mr O'Rourke, P P, Dr Brodie, and over 500 of the farmers of the neighbourhood, on horseback, with scarfs and hat bands.

At Manchester, after giving birth to twins, Susan, wife of Wm Phibbs, Esq. and daughter of Francis P Russell, Esq, of this city, a lady whose premature death is deeply deplored.

At Parsonstown, Mary, wife of James Weir, Esq. A.B, ex-Scholar, T.C.D, and of the Crescent, in this city.

Suddenly, at Rathkeale, John M'Donnell, Esq, Town Commissioner.

On Tuesday, in Rathkeale, Mr Thomas Mulcahy, a respectable trader and inhabitant.

This morning, in child-birth, the wife of Mr Edw. Donegan, Thomas-street, watch-maker.

At Lahinch, county Clare, Austin Greene, Esq, Solicitor Nov. 8, at Rathkeale Abbey, the infant daughter of Mr Leech, aged six days.

At Mallow, Wm Joseph Daly, Esq.

At Fethard, county Tipperary, Kate, daughter of the late Mr Wm O'Brien, TC.

At Charlotte-quay, Cork, Jane, wife of Michael M'Carthy, Esq. barrister.

At Kilbolane, county Cork, the Rev James Fitzgibbon

At Carrigtwohill, county Cork, Mr John Debeaux, the celebrated steeple-chase rider.

At Listowel, Mr Patrick C Hennessy, late teacher and agriculturist in the Kenmare workhouse.

At Turtulia House, near Thurles, Hannah Maria, daughter of the late Rev Mr Harrington, Wesleyan Minister

Charles William, son of Captain F R Chesney, Commanding Royal Engineers at the Curragh.

At the Royal Canal Terrace, Dublin, Miss Fitzpatrick, daughter of the late Peter Fitzpatrick, Esq, solicitor.

At Taylor's Hill, Galway, Mr John Counolly, Astronomer. Captain John Banks, RN.

In Mayo, the widow of the late Henry Murphy, Esq.

In Templemore, Mr Richard Ballard.

At Eccles-street, Dublin, Jane, wife of Thomas Black, Esq.

At Collinston, Clondalkin, Selina, wife of Arthur Beresford Cane, Esq.

At Rathcoole House, county Louth, J T Tiedall, Esq.

At Summer-hill, Dublin, Mr Wm Sampson.

At Hampstead, Richard J C Green, Esq, late of Ballina, in the county of Mayo.

At Galway, Marcia Mary, daughter of P K Taaffe, Esq.

At Cavan, Jane, relict of Henry Llewellynn, Esq, Lieutenant and Riding Master of the Carabineers

At Capel-street, Dublin, Mr Wm Compton Esqy.

At Talbot-street, Dublin, Louisa Maria, child of Capt Byrne.

At Stephen's-green, Dublin, Elizabeth Anne, daughter of John O Ogle, Esq, barrister-at-law.

At Blackhall-street, Dublin, Henry Shaw, MD.

Lost in the wreck of the Royal Charter, George, son of G S Wybrants, Esq, of Dublin, solicitor.

At Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, John Moffett, Esq, Mer-ville, county Sligo.

At Paris, the Rev Frederick Urquhart, MA.

At Jaunah, Madras, Captain John C Mayne, Interpreter and Quartermaster, 2d Madras Light Cavalry, son of the late John Mayne, Esq, Runnimead, county Dublin.

At Dunstable House, Richmond, Vice-Admiral Sir Henry L Baker, Bart, CB.

At Torwoodlee, Selkirkshire, Vice-Admiral James Pringle.

At Torquay, the Rev Wm Taylor.

At Compton-road, Islington, the Rev John Tyrrell Bayles, BA, Secretary to the Society for Promoting due Observance of the Lord's Day.

At Oxford-terrace, London, Captain Francis Octavius Barrow, 5th Madras N.I.

Joseph Wigg, Esq, late of the 60th Rifles.

Limerick an Bruree at w
quite close t
Altogethe
of capital w

Nov 9.

A DESI
with affords good Strand, with Bridge;
Also, TW
GARDEN
Also, a B
King's-Island
a Frontage
Feet.
Leases for Tenants with

DAV

Nov 9

JOHN
WILLIAM
Pla
JAMES

o'Clock noon
Defendant's
the City of tels of the
viz. :—Def
sisting of T
Also a large nature.

Dated the

Nov. 9

SEALE
Super
lum, will
for the ex
intended and speci
Fogerty.
Board R
10 till 4
Securit
of the wa
The B lowest or Limeri