

the eminent superintendent of the ...
 ara and received from his curate a My dear sir,—As Mr. Darcy is of many kinds just now, he has to your letter of the 14th. I have take a part in the work here for and the last year has been by far ing in my experience. Within the so, more than twenty adults have out from Rome in Connemara.
 peculiar interest are connected with Three have been National School of these resigned their situations ves Protestants. One was a police-re intelligent tradespeople An an who had been perverted came to Clifden, with his wife, about two months ago. Both have since abandoned Romanism, and every evidence of having been con-
 About 900 children, the orphan
 eluded, attend the mission schools, 00 Roman Catholic children, who under Scriptural Instruction, have the last year. There are now seven nemara (six of these new), and six uses—in all 13 congregations—mini-Sabbath. The average attendance i mmer. The number of schoolhouses ward, Wesleyan minister said—I am mpt to urge the claims of this associa-as I believe that will be safer in the g of the able and eloquent deputation Church Missionary Society, to whose mmittee have entrusted the claims he society; however, it is but right feeble representative of another sec-militant Church, should express my with the interests and objects of feel that we are in a remarkably solemn time, so far as the hisgelical Christianity is concerned

 ed to those lion-hearted men who have on in his den," and who have helped ations of that fearful bastille of error
 a influence—that they will go forth
 om Heaven's altar fire shall descend, d scatter the consolidated effects of urn it into the abyss to which it must waking up the apocalyptic burst of der and joy—"Babylon the great is " (applause).
 H. Seymour, of Tuam, next addressed an impressive strain. His discourse with great attention, and in our next at length.
 ection was made upon the occasion.

in this city, to sympathise with the Pope,
 St. John's New Cathedral.
 as held at Carmody's hotel, Ennis, on concert measures for getting up a County cess sympathy with the Pope. The ke place early in January.
 Catholic Bishop of Cloyne presided at a meeting for the Pope, held on Sunday

In the parish church, Rye, Sussex, the Rev Thomas Lewis, to Henrietta M E Aubinleok, daughter of the Rev James E Auchinleok.
 At Kincaule, Fifeshire, the Rev William M'ullooh, AB, of Carnbee, to Margaret Louisa, daughter of Alexander Meldrum, Esq. of Kincaule.

DEATHS.

- On Saturday evening, at the Cottage, Rathgar, the residence of her beloved brother, Arthur Evans, Esq., Catherine, daughter of the late Richard Evans, Esq. of this city. She was a highly gifted person, blest with an intellectual mind, uncommon good sense, religious without show or ostentation, beloved and respected by all who knew her.
- At St Anne's-hill, Blarney, Charles John Allison Wynn Blennerhassett, of Ballycedy, aged 29 years.
- In William-street, after a protracted illness, the brother of Mr John Walsh, agriculturist and seedman, much regretted.
- Of apoplexy, at Abbeyleix, where he was engaged in auditing the accounts of that Union, George B Braddell, Esq.
- Eleanor Anne, wife of Stephen Moore, Esq., DL, of Barne, county Tipperary.
- At Killarney, John O'Riordan, Esq.
- Eustace Mountstuart, infant son of Viscount and Viscountess Hawarden.
- At Killeenleigh, county Cork, Richard O'Callaghan, Esq.
- At Kilbrittan, county of Cork, Mary, daughter of Patrick O'Hea, Esq.
- At York-terrace, Cork, Elizabeth, wife of Wm Banks.
- At the County Limerick Gaol, the wife of Mr John Gabbett, one of the warders of that prison.
- At Clonmore, near Tulla, Charles, son of James Molony, Esq., MD.
- At Kilrush, Mr Thomas Peacocke.
- In Clonmel, Margaret Rebecca, daughter of Thomas Duncan, officer of Inland Revenue.
- At Edinburgh, Dora, Dowager Countess of Courtown, daughter of the late Chief Justice Pennefather.
- At Mountpleasant-square, Dublin, T Dolan, Esq.
- At Ballinaskill, Queen's County, John Dunne, Esq., father of Dr Dunne, President of Carlow College.
- At Lesson-street, Dublin, Henrietta Digges LaTouche, daughter of the late Peter Digges LaTouche, Esq., of Bellefield, county Dublin.
- Suddenly, at Oxford, the Rev Wm Lancaster, aged 72.
- Mrs Langton, of Castlebar.
- At Shamrock Lodge, near Carlow, Eliza, wife of William Whitmore, Esq.
- At Upper Synge-street, Dublin, Francis Bulkley, Esq., Senior Captain in the Wicklow Yeomanry Corps.
- In Dublin, Margaret, relict of the late Richard Feamley, formerly of Wakefield.
- At the Archbishop's Palace, Dublin, Blanche Georgina, the infant daughter of O B Wale, Esq., of Shelford, Cambridgeshire.
- At Balbriggan, Gerald Hussey, Esq.
- At Kingstown, W H Burke, Esq., RN, late commander of her Majesty's cutter, the Kite.
- At Lower Lesson-street, Dublin, Thomas, son of the Rev Dr Luby, F.T.C.D.
- At Great Britain-street, Dublin, Eleanor, relict of the late Mr John Hughes.
- At Wellington-road, Dublin, David Walker, Esq.
- At Tubrid, in her 90th year, Lilly, daughter of the late R Hilliard, Esq. of Listrim, county Kerry.
- At Neemuch, Bombay, from sunstroke, Lieut A C Haymes, 8th Hussars, son of Arthur Haymes, Esq., Leamington.
- At Melbourne, John Macdowell, Esq., MD, son of the late J Macdowell, Esq., Mariton, county Wicklow.
- At Bromley, Kent, Colonel F W Clements, late 73d Regt, and Royal Canadian Rifles.
- At Gibraltar, Arthur Wellesley Floyd, naval cadet, son of Major-General Sir Henry Floyd, Bart.
- In Edinburgh, Dr James Andrew Cantab.
- At Edinburgh, Mr Thomas De Quincy, author of "Confessions of an Opium Eater."
- At Tiverton, Devon, Commander Tringham, RN.
- At Brighton, Alexander H Crooks, son of the Hon James Crooks, of Canada West.
- Gerard Aekland, son of Sir John Kennaway, Bart.
- At Windsor, Nova Scotia, Sarah, relict of the Hon Judge Wilkins, late of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia.
- At Kingston-on-Thames, Wm Roots, Esq., MD.
- At Woolston, near Knightsbridge, Devon, the Rev Charles Ombod.
- At Leghorn, Robert Ross, son of General Ross.
- At Boulogne, Louisa Franckes, wife of Major Henry Clinton Martin, Royal Artillery.

service.
 Dec.
 TO B
 the rington
 For Nov.
 TO B
 the Newport
 the Lib
 For
 Nov
 Lim
 THE Next,
 BUTT
 Butter
 Salary
 APRIL
 App
 the Se
 JANUA
 Cha
 THE Stock
 Street
 furth
 1860
 Cha
 L
 T
 on
 for 18
 de