

...ven at the London 3, Governor of the gentlemen sat down
 d by Mr Harrison place in the army met of carrying out still Royal Commissioners ny.
 n—one the command other, command of a Regt., is appointed militia
 Bart, County Lime-is seat Castle-Con-ed to an Ensigncy ce Croker resigned.
 rived at Pau, where ecovering in health.
 ity of the Redeemer ants of this city at 12
 ing of the Cathedral
 It is to be regretted as some of the bells on in the Protestant not terminate until es £1 from Major T P Maunsell, and £5 from ant Orphan Society.
 nt Michael's Parish Gelston and Robert
 Russell and Wilham wards the Christmas
 he parish church.
 ld at the Protestant a permanent visiting and assistance of poor e learn that the sub-han equal to the most rinators of this benewhich will be in the a few days.
 acknowledges with nonymous; and £2 Vicar of Naas, for Mary's Parish, on fully acknowledges for om the Earl of Clare,
 . 11s from the Misses
 otestant Orphan Hall, of 2l. from Thomas d for completing the option for five years to ave already been proade, it is hoped that w the good examples uilding committees to ry conclusion. They the amount of 80l. or five years were placed mply sufficient for the rously ill of typhus ointed to the union of the Rev Wm Cox.

...daughter of the late Lieut-Colonel Richard C Faithfull, of the Bengal Army.

DEATHS.

On the 22nd inst, in his 15th year, deeply regretted, Edward Herbert, second son of Eyre Powell, Esq. Royal County Limerick Regiment, and grandson of the Rev Edward Herbert, of Kilpeacon Rectory—a most interesting and promising boy.
 On the 21st inst, at Dalyston, the seat of Charles O'Farrel, Esq, county Galway, aged three months, Henry George, son of J Stannus Hughes, Esq. MD. Dublin, and grandson of Walter Blake, Esq, Meelick House, county Galway.
 In Melbourne, Emily Jane, eldest daughter of Henry Guest, Esq.—a very interesting child.
 On Wednesday morning, in Glentworth-street, Anne, daughter of the late Henry Fitzgerald, Esq.
 The Rev Charles M'Donnell, Rafara, Shanagolden.
 At Tulla House, aged 84, Miss Carroll, sister of the late Lt-General Sir Patrick Carroll.
 At Kilquane, near Ennis, Catherine, wife of Mr Patrick Dennelan.
 At Hume-street, Dublin, Sophia Agnes Wilhelmina, daughter of the late Thomas Dawson Lawrence, Esq, of Lawrence-town House, county Down, and relict of Colonel Hawkshaw, of Divernagh, county Armagh.
 Richard, son of Henry Smith, Esq, Mary Ville, Cork.
 Dr James Cunningham, of Cork.
 At Adelaide-street, Cork, Mr Henry Simcookes.
 At Churchtown, county Cork, the Rev Lucius George, rector of that parish.
 In Australia, Lieut D'Aroy, 40th Regiment.
 In Kilkenny, James S Lane, Esq, JP.
 Mr John Ryan, master of Mountmellick workhouse.
 Elizabeth Margrette, wife of Dr West, Archdeacon of Dublin, and daughter of the late Most Rev Charles Dickinson, Lord Bishop of Meath.
 Harriet, daughter of the late Francis Thornburgh, Esq, of Moorschurch, county Meath.
 At Thomastown, the Venerable Crinus Irwin, Archdeacon of Ossory.
 At Athenry, from the effects of severe burning, their clothes having accidentally caught fire, Anne and Catherine, daughters of the late William G Robinson, Esq, of Anneville, county of Meath.
 In Leeson-street, Dublin, Mrs Susanna Hoey, relict of Wm Parsons Hoey, Esq.
 At Merrion-square, Dublin, Wm F Montgomery, MD.
 At Killeornan House, Thomas, son of Sir T Redington, KOB.
 In Wexford, Frances, relict of Major Hanna, 56th Regt.
 At sea, Lieut Edward Smith, 1st West India Regt, son of W Smith, Esq, JP, Ballymona Cottage, King's County.
 Jane, daughter of the late John Bird, Esq, solicitor, of Birdville, King's County.
 At Bedford, Helena Matilda, daughter of Capt Croker Miller, of Londonderry.
 In Dublin, Henry J Lloyd, Esq, solicitor, late of Castleiney, county Tipperary.
 At Mountpleasant-square, Dublin, Jane, daughter of the late Christopher Read, Esq, of Belview, county Down.
 At Melbourne, Matilda, relict of Patrick Harkan, Esq, of Ross, county Roscommon.
 At Blackrock, near Dublin, Miss Margaret Holden.
 At Golden-lane, Dublin, Mr John O'Neill.
 At Howth, the widow of the late Thomas Ferns, Esq.
 At Leinster-road, Dublin, Susan, wife of Mr Charles Fred. Jones.
 In Enniskillen, Mr Hill Parkinson.
 In Dublin, Francis James, son of the Rev George Salmon; Margaret, daughter of the late Matthew Farrell, of Grafton-street, Dublin.
 Mr Patrick Cheevers of New Ross.
 At Lower Dominick-street, Dublin, Anne Thelaine, the infant daughter of Captain Fitz-James Barry, of Glandore, R.M, Castlebar.
 Capt John Griffiths, of the steam-packet Prince, of Dublin.
 At Kingstown, Mary, daughter of Wm John Kelly.
 In Belfast, Mr Graves Thomas Aickin.
 At Eyrefield House, county Kildare, Mrs Winifred Hilles, relict of James Hilles, Esq, of Dublin.
 At York-terrace, Cork, Elizabeth, wife of Wm Banks, Esq.
 At Booterstown, county Dublin, Mary Elizabeth, relict of John Gillman, Esq.
 In London, Sarah, daughter of the late Isaac Disraeli, Esq, author of "Curiosities of Literature".
 At Bath, Catherine, relict of Richard Molesworth Reynell, of Reynella, county Westmeath, Esq, and daughter of the late Hon Ponsonby Moore, of Moorefield House, in the county of Kildare.
 In London, the Dowager Lady Graham, widow of Sir Robert Graham, Bart, of Esk, Cumberland.
 At Albemarle-street, London, Julia, wife of Major-General Hutt, OB.
 At Cirencester, suddenly, Jane Baynes, widow of Major O'Hara Baynes, RA.
 At Penzance, Cornwall, Frederick Graham Evelyn, Esq, barrister-at-law.

...style of binding.

Purdon's Farmer's Almanack for 1860—One ling, free by post 14 stamps. Orders receive Thom's Almanack—to be ready by the en
 December.

Limerick, December 21, 1859

THEATRE ROYAL, LIMERICK.

Garrison Amateur Theatrical

MONDAY EVENING, 2nd JANUARY, 1860
 Under the Patronage of the Commandant,
COLONEL BORTON, C.B.,
 In Aid of the Winter Fuel Fund.
 Previous to the commencement of the Performance
 the Russian Hymn—Whole band
IN CHARLES II.
 Song—"Who'll have me" Mrs. Burkin
 Song—"Annie dear good bye"—Mr Germon 9th
AFTER—TWO BONNYCASTLES.
 Song—"Sally in our Alley"—Capt. Brine, P R O G R A M M E to be performed by THE 60TH ROYAL RIFLES BAND.
 Conductor, Signor Rainieri.—1. Overture, Verdi. 2. Selection, Norma, Bellini. 3. W
 Dinorah, Meyerbeer. 4 Variations for Oboe, Rose of Sammer, Stephenson. 5. Quadrille, Ire D'Albert, 6. Selection, La Traviata, Verdi.
NATIONAL ANTHEM:
 Three Verses.
 By Order,
FRED. BRINE, Manager
 New Barracks, Dec., 24th, 1859.

BRITISH Commercial Life Insurance

ESTABLISHED A.D., 1820.
SUBSCRIBED CAPITAL £600,000.
CLAIMS paid by this Company, upwards of MILLION POUNDS Sterling. Upwa
TEN THOUSAND POLICIES Issued. AS SIX MILLIONS Sterling.
 New Business done in the last 3 years.

Year	Amount Insured.	Annual Prem
1856	£207,820	£7,080
1857	202,305	6,990
1858	204,550	7,020

 Loans granted upon Personal Security of £100 to £500.
AGENT FOR LIMERICK:—
Arthur Langley,
 27, CECIL STREET.
 Dec. 10

Auction of Native Timber
LARCH, ASH, OAK, & POPLAR,

AT
ROSS, COUNTY CLAR
BETWEEN O'Brien's Bridge and Killaloe
WEDNESDAY, December 28th Inst., by or John Browne, Esq., JP, without reserve—about Lots of Prime well-grown Timber, including Ash, Oak, Poplar, Sally, and Fir, of large dimen suited for Agricultural, Mechanical, and every purpose required by the Farming or Trading munity. It will be Sold and arranged in suitab for the convenience of all parties who may s and can be seen any time before the sale.
 Sale to commence at 11 o'Clock.
 Terms at Sale.
JOHN BERNAL, Auction
 Limerick,
 December 17