On this day a very important and influential meeting of Colonel Dickson's friends and supporters was held in his Committee-rooms, in George's Street.

CITY ELECTION.—DECLARATION OF THE POLL.

The High Sheriff, Captain A. Y. Watson, presided at the declaration of the poll, which took place at the City Hall, on Thursday evening last.

FATAL TERMINATION OF THE CITY ELECTION.

In last CHRONICLE we were only enabled, when at press, to announce the result of the lamentable occurrence which took place in the Frighttown on Wednesday evening, upon the occasion of the rioting, which unfortunately occurred in that locality.

CITY ELECTION.

As our readers may desire to learn some details respecting the voting at the late election, we believe that the following particulars may be relied upon as accurate.

LONDON, MAY 6.

ATEST FROM THE SEAT OF WAR. The late attempt of the Emperor Napoleon to force the passage of the Po, at the Frate, commenced on the 3d. The cannonade lasted a long time, and was recommenced yesterday afternoon.

apothecary, who, as usual, was unremitting in his duty. Dr. Galston was promptly at the hospital, where his experienced professional services were much appreciated.

After the declaration of the poll by the high sheriff, Mr. Henry O'Shea once forward and said in regard to his friend, Mr. Russell, who still stands before him.

Before any business was commenced there was a long discussion as to the constitution of the jury, and the question of the rank of free citizens.
