

as the present, might with reason be rather intended for the feelings than of the reader. "Merry Christmas" is a year; and no one will regret that, by influence, we should be disposed to ably everything that comes with it. However, is not intended for the present especially for the class of effusions to which the "Christmas Chimes" not to belong, which we would distinguish it. Without may be said the melody is such as will the person who takes up the music to It is strongly characterised by cheerful will be likely to impress the mind and the memory, The arrangement is appropriate, such as would be expected from The words are by E. T. Dunne, Esq. vignette on the title page, by E. J. ne-street, Dublin, represents a band of the bell tower in the act of ringing the modus operandi, in fact, adopted in propitious peals which come floating on the wind to our ears on Christmas eve, and everybody who hears the chimes are is expected to arrive from India next week. 66th Regiments are ordered to China. Co., are appointed agents to the 16th of Mr. Atkinson, deceased. The Hibernian school, Dublin, preceded by rched to the Theatre Royal, yesterday, to performance of the Christmas pantomime. of property captured at Kiawee appears enormous. It is stated that the prize immense that Lord Clyde's share, as chief in India, will alone amount to r George Whitlock's share is half that e shares are between £3000 and £4,000, at a proportionate figure. thirty-five cadets were gazetted to lieutenants Royal Artillery, and eighteen to lieutenants Royal Engineers.

Nash, thankfully acknowledges remission Thomas Lloyd, Esq. DL. to supply poor; and £3 from Mr Warburton, Orphan Society. ult. the annual distribution of presents in Baltingarry parish, by the Rev. Gubbins, to the children of Ballingarry Sunday Schools. The tables in the house were covered with a choice supply Mr. Ledger's establishment, Limerick, pupils were permitted to select according to tastes or abilities, whilst the juvenile were provided with interesting and useful their age. N. Willis thankfully acknowledges, Orphan Society, from English Friends: Ward, 5/6; the Misses Hall, 3/4; Mrs. And for Ragged Schools, 1/4, from the gardens of Clonmel distributed meat, bread, to the Protestant poor of the town on India Company's Service.

At Madras, Henry M Chase, Esq, Bengal Civil Service, to Mary Louisa, daughter of the late Major Alexander Gordon, of the Madras Army.

At Rugby, the Rev Raymond B Smythies, M.A, of Emmanuel College, Cambridge, to Isabella Jane, daughter of the Rev C A Anstey, of Rugby.

At Winchester, Charles O'L. L Prendergast, Esq, 52nd Light Infantry, to Mary Katherine, daughter of the late John Rogers Wheeler, of Wokingham, Berkshire.

At Moulsham, John Henry Cross, Trinity College, Dublin, late Head Master of Finchley Hall School, to Mary Anne, daughter of the late Mr John Martin.

DEATHS.

At Castletown, on the 2d of January inst., Anthony Parker, Esq, formerly of Fortwilliam, in the county of Tipperary, aged 70 years.

On the 12th ult., at St. Louis, Mo., in the United States, William Brydges Sayers, third son of James Sayers, Esq, MD, late of this city.

Yesterday, in Dublin, Henry Doyle, Esq, formerly of this city, aged 35 years.

At Kilmallock, Mr Thomas Lynch, of the Inland Revenue. The Rev Edward Barry, PP, Kilmurry (Ibrickan), county of Clare.

At North Mall, Cork, Ellen Bagley, relict of W Bagley, Esq, late of Kinsale.

In Cork, Lucind Barbara, relict of the late John Sandes, Esq, of Maybane county Kerry.

At Calcutta, Captain Frederick George Smys, Paymaster, 3rd Buffs.

At Kingstown, Marcella, daughter of S J Lynch, Esq.

At Mountpeller-hill, Dublin, Charles Richardson, Esq.

At Anglesea-street, Dublin, Mr James Manly

At Belgrave-square, London, Francis Roberts, Esq, son of the late Arthur Roberts, Esq, JP, of Stradbally, Clerk of the Peace, Queen's County.

At Leamington, Leonora Jane, relict of the Rev G Brabazon, late Rector of Paynestown, diocese of Meath.

At Kensington, Caroline Harriet, wife of Richard B Barton, Esq, barrister-at-law.

The Rev Patrick Beggan, Curate of Tullamore.

Laurence Kelly, Esq, of Upper Dorset-street, Dublin.

At Upper Dorset-street, Dublin, Mrs Mary King.

At North Earl-street, Dublin, Maria, widow of Mr J Balfe.

At Donecarney, Mrs Elizabeth M'Gee.

At Belmont, near Wexford, Mrs Hannah Corral.

At Harold's-cross, Mr Thomas Clarke.

Near Louisburgh, the Rev James O'Malley, of the county Mayo.

At Eccles-street, Dublin, Annie Isabella Macdonald, child of Surgeon-Major Smith.

At Erith, Lavinia Theodora, wife of Captain Stebelin, late of 13th Light Infantry.

At Maperath, near Kells, Thomas T Rowley, Esq.

At Blackrock, Dublin, Miss Mary Afflick.

In France, Caroline, wife of Sir James Caleb Anderson, Bart, late of Buttevant Castle, county Cork, and sister of the late Sir R Shaw, Bart, of Dublin.

At Cairnlough, Eliza Park Thompson, daughter of the late James Thompson, Esq.

At Cloveven, Antrim, Mrs Smylie, formerly of Belfast.

In Paris, John Cullen Donnellan, Esq, MD.

At Caneston Lodge, near Rugby, Lord John Douglas Montagu Scott.

In London, the widow of the late General Morris, E.I.C.S.

At Lawton, Cheshire, the widow of Lieut-Colonel Milne, 19th Regt.

At Greenhithe, Kent, Capt S O Umfreville, RN.

At Canterbury, Eliza, wife of Capt S Williams, Paymaster, 4th Depot Battalion.

At Gloucestershire, Mary Laura, daughter of the Hon James and Lady Elizabeth Dutton.

At Bath, Emily Marianne, daughter of Lieut-Col Carruthers, Retired List, Madras Army. Also, at same place, Isabella Helen Coleman, daughter of the same.

In London, Samuel Ryan, Esq, Surgeon, late of Dublin.

Off Aden, on his return from India, Major R R Glyn, Capt 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade, son of George O Glyn, Esq, MP.

At Weymouth, Walter F Clinton, Naval Cadet, son of Colonel and the Hon Mrs Frederick Clinton.

On his passage home from Calcutta with troops, Robert H O Tims, Esq, Commander of her Majesty's Transport Eveline, son of Mr Richard M Tims, formerly of Dublin.