

But, to be brief, I sing the opinion of a
, by suggesting that form meeting should orded general satis-
the Italian Question doubt, will receive its let it never be thrust for the other; they y different,

able servant,
IE CONGREGATION.
ersons from the country
for the anniversary tea out custom of holding ckhill, acknowledges ple thanks, the gift female schools at shed Crimean hero,

, Charleville. Col. or Sanders have also give a liberal donaschools. Such acts all who appreciate

ckhill, has also got a Rockhill.
Wm. Bourke, P.P.
£150, towards the -well Rockhill and

m a poor herdsman
eeda, near Pallas-wner through Rev.

eaton, acknowledges of 20%, from the Earl
malie M Fitzgerald, subscription of 50%.
in school. He also orbett, C.E. a donaides furnishing plan together with his grain Thurles on Sun-

The speeches made
revised, corrected,
e orators who figured

atholics of Cliden,
apel of that town,
ery Rev. P. Mac-

, King of France, received the rite of ns; and was then the church,"—and ce by the rulers of however, be necesmother, who bely intractable and accessors of Clovis,

M.N.I. to Margaret Alexiana, daughter of the late John Boyd,
Esq. of Selkirkshire, Scotland.

DEATHS.

At Glenfield, James levers, Esq. a gentleman highly respected, and whose amiable qualities and disposition gained for him the esteem of all classes.

At Moyadda, near Kilrush, John, only son of Thos. Lillis, Esq. Churchtown, county Clare. Beloved by all who made his acquaintance, as a kind friend and neighbour, upright in every relation through life, his remains were followed to the grave by a large circle of friends and relatives, weeping over the loss of so young a friend.

The death of Robert D'Arcy, Esq. J.P. Agent to the Marquis of Clanricarde, took place at his residence, Woodville, near Loughrea, on the 27th instant. Mr D'Arcy had attained the patriarchal age of 80 years, 30 of which he had the management of the estates of the Marquis of Clanricarde, in the county Galway. He was one of the most extensive stockmasters in the West of Ireland, and generally obtained the highest prices at Ballinasloe fair. He retained all his mental faculties to his dying hour. He has left five estates to his brother, and £50,000 to his nephews and nieces, and £1,000 for the repairs of the Roman Catholic places of worship in the district in which he resided.

At Rathfarnham, John Perrin, Esq. barrister-at-law, son of the Right Hon Judge Perrin.

The wife of Mr Wm Malcolmson, of Portlaw.

At Presburg, Bessie, daughter of the late Right Hon John Beresford, of Walworth, Derry.

On Saturday, after a tedious and protracted illness, which he bore with Christian resignation to the Divine will, Mr Thos.
Byrne, aged 33 years, (late of Cratloe and Caherelly), son of Mr John Byrne, of 35, Upper Cecil-street. The early demise of a fond and affectionate son, an attached parent, and compassionate friend, is much regretted by all who knew him.

At the Green Distillery, Cork, George Waters, Esq. of Fairy Hill, Monkstown.

At Sydney-terrace, Cork, Catherine, relict of the late Mr H
P Downes.

In Dublin, Susan Martha, daughter of the Rev Thomas E
Evans, vicar of Marshalstown.

At Glanmire, Cork, Wm Hutchins, Esq.

In Cashel, Mr P Ryan, manager of the Loan Fund office.

Eliza, relict of the late David Wren, Esq. of Droumaveane House, county Cork.

At Callan, the Rev Thomas O'Shea, C.C.

At Summerhill, near Scartagin, county Kerry, Wm Twiss.

At Downpatrick, Wm Starkey, Esq.

At Rathdowney, Queen's County, Wm H Harte, Esq.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, Alicia, daughter of the late Rev Michael Griffin, Rector of Aughrim.

At Portobello, Mr R Chadwick.

At Pembroke-road, Dublin, Morgan Price, Esq. Surgeon R.N.

At the house of the Rev Robert Fishbourne, Ferns, Mary, relict of Francis William Greene, Esq. of Kilranalagh, county Wicklow.

The Rev James Harvey, of Redrock, Armagh, aged 94 years.

At Rathmines, Dublin, Mr James O'Reilly.

At Parsonstown, Helena Jane, the wife of Thomas Woods, Esq. M.D.

At Enniscorthy, Stevens Goff, Esq. solicitor.

At Great Brunswick-street, Dublin, Maryanne, daughter of the late Nicholas Dodd, of Brownstown.

At Borlem, Charles H Tuckey, Esq. late Resident Magistrate
of the county Carlow.

At Blackrock, county of Dublin, Sophia, wife of James Howard, Esq.

At Rathmines, Henry Oulton, Esq. son of the late Plato Oulton, Esq. of Dublin.

Mrs Jane Ennis, widow of Mr Andrew Ennis, late of South Great George's-street, Dublin.

At Lower Abbey-street, Dublin, Mr Wm Hatton.

At Monkstown, county Dublin, Frances, daughter of Wm
Andrews, Esq.

At Great Britain-street, Dublin, Mr John Carroll.

At Brighton, Elizabeth, wife of the Rev C J Goodhart, St Luke's Parish, Chelsea.

At Piccadilly, Frederick Hall Thompson, F.R.C.S.

At Littleton, Colonel Wood.

At Chichester, Charles P Bouverie, Esq. son of the late Hon and Rev F P Bouverie.

A Horse Fair at

FRIDAY, the
There will be no
ceding the fair.

Town Clerk's O

CHEAP AN

Lime

VI

ON and after T
ruary, a wel
leave Moore's Hot day excepted) at Kilmallock Station
in time for the Th
Killarney, &c. A Kilmallock Station
rick, after the arri
Cork, Killarney, &

The Public will this route; a First
a Second Class Pa
senger 5s. 8d, bes
fore the Mail Tra
Hotel, Kilmallock

February 1
P.S.—This is in Car from Fermoy
Feb. 1

CORPOR

CLEANSI

NO. 2 COMM
ceive Tende 11 inclusive, in the the 7th February Contractors will fered, but not othe
By Order,

Town Hall, Feb

Borou

A QUARTER
Council to Street, on Mond 1860, at the hour number to form a an hour after the done.

To read corresp
To open Tender
To receive repo