

superintending been moved to Rifle Brigade,
ers, has become

Macdougall Bris-
tions:—Lieut-
General; Major
Lieut-General;
Lord Canning
D Deverell, of
; and Major W
be Lieutenant procured. The begging, and st in the land

g who can pass
ugh to equip
y! e to hear at the d by the Lion

will sit at the
to the 7th of lates for direct to succeed Sir of Adjutant erally reported erall will take mes says that ars his senior,

er-in-Chief.

married a fair
t the day most ck-up at night ed with an at-

nty Limerick
Portsmouth;
Castle barracks
lleted.

itia, at Ports-volunteers to in Newcastle-otland. This 0 men to the more if called before June

red in the Pro-ard, upon the e appropriated t in our next.
eached in the e evening, at
of the circuit

relief of dis-of the Rev.

to Frances Maria Syer, daughter of T D Syer, Esq, of Springfield House, Jersey.

At St James's Church, Piccadilly, Lord Charles Bruce, son of the Marquis of Ailesbury, to Miss Augusta Seymour, daughter of Lady Augusta Seymour.

At Streatham, the Rev Wm Eardley, Rector of Ironbridge, Shropshire, to Charlotte, daughter of Wm Evill, Esq, Streatham-hill, Surrey.

DEATHS.

At Carrig-o-gunnell, in this county, in the 46th year of his age, Mr Edmond Naughten, a respectable and independent farmer. His remains were yesterday interred at Mellon Church.

Yesterday, at Akeaton, very much regretted, the Rev Edmund Cussen, PP.

At Waterford, on Saturday last, Robert, eldest son of Mr Robert Locke, late of this city, aged nine years.

At Rathjordan House, Mr John Kirby, aged 69 years.

At Kilparteen, Portree, after a protracted illness, Edward Lee, Esq, solicitor, deeply and deservedly regretted.

At Villierstown Glebe, the wife of the Rev Hans Butler, Chaplain to Lord Stuart de Decies.

Suddenly, at Templemore, Mr Edward W Kelly, civil engineer, greatly regretted.

In Nenagh, Mr Peter Cuddy, National teacher:

In Nenagh, Mrs Desmond.

At Percy-place, Dublin, Anne, daughter of the late James Carthrew, Esq.

At Blackrock, Dublin, Martha, wife of Richard Swift, Esq, of Lynn, county Westmeath.

At Clary-street, Dublin, Augusta Louisa Elizabeth, daughter of James A Browne, Esq, of Browne Hall, county Mayo.

At Tuam, Maria Jane, relict of Dermot Donelan, Esq.

At Woodlands, Gorey, Mary Sophia, wife of Major-General
Loftus Owen, and daughter of the late General Sir Anthony Farrington, Bart.

At Killarney, Mr Thomas Finn, hotel proprietor.

Sir John Wylde, Chief Justice of the Cape of Good Hope,

At Kingstown, Anne, wife of Mr John Murray.

At Upper Dorset street, Dublin, Mrs Jackson.

In New York, Mr Thomas Heath, of Enniscorthy.

Mr Thomas Conolly, of Marlborough-street, Dublin.

At Templemore, Richard O'Connell, son of W Conolly, Esq.

At Summerhill, Dublin, Mrs Anne M'Auley.

At Eden-quay, Dublin, Mr Wm Hamilton.

At Donnybrook, Mrs E Morgan.

At Richmond-road, Dalston, John Wm Greene, Esq.

At Drogheda, Mr Richard Harvey, sen.

The Rev John Alexander Clarke, vicar of Stratfield Mer-tinner, Berks

At Bromeswell Rectory, Suffolk, Caroline, wife of the Rev
Robert Henry King.

At Brighton, the Right Hon Lord Oramore and Browne.

At Wateringbury, Lord North

At Hatheop Rectory, Gloucestershire, the Rev Sackville
Gardiner Bourke, son of the late Hon and Rev Joseph Bourke, Dean of Oslory.

At Buckingham, Major Macdonald, Royal Marines

At Cheltenham, Catherine, relict of the Rev Robert Bull, late Rector of Drumholme.

At Parkstone, Vice-Admiral Philip Browne.

Mary Ann, widow of Rochfort Bloomfield, Esq, formerly Paymaster of the 20th Regiment of Foot, and 4th Dragoon Guards

At Kentish Town, Lieutenant-Colonel John Laurie, Bombay Artillery.

Colonel Cowper Rose, RE, drowned in Algoa Bay.

Anna Maria Barbara Connor, daughter of the late Henry Thomas Connor, Esq, of Blackrock, Dublin

Francis Cadderwood, of D'Olier-street, Dublin:

At Tullamore, Mr Tracy, professor of music.

At Edinburgh, Colonel Sir Henry Fairfax, Bart, formerly of the Rifle Brigade and 85th Light Infantry.

At Brompton, near London, Henry Cronin Langhorne, Esq, son of Edward Langhorne, Esq, of Geelong, Australia, and grandson of the late D Cronin, Esq, MD, Killarney.

At Peckham, Margaret, widow of Capt W Gilder.

At Manchester-square, London, Major Alexander Haslewood, Bombay Army.

At Dawlish, Maud Thomasina, daughter of Rear-Admiral Thomas Henlerson.

William Henry, son of Commander Thomas Hoskins, RN, of Brockbourne House, Herts:

Florence Lewis, daughter of Major Jackson, of Carlisle.

one of the most difficult of as it does almost every subj thematics, the several Scienc Modern Literature or Mode necessity prove as to the ins institution at which the su been educated. It is the pleasure Mr Herbert lays be the public the very great su Galwey.

Beaumont

EDWARD OTWAY

Head M

THE following are a enjoyed by the Pu
ment:—

1st—The instruction of Masters which money can p constant surveillance, care Head Master himself.

2nd—Every domestic con
in the most happy home.

3rd—A Park and Plea Hundred Acre in extent, m fully situated.

4th—A close attention t tlemenlike habits, together ciation.

Vacation (D. V.) termin
1860.

Orrell

AT 22s. PER TON

CHARLES O'H

ARE now discharging t and Margaret," 170
superior Coal, well screened, pit of Messrs. Tayleur & Co.

This is the same quality as imported by us, this and last general satisfaction.

C. O'H. & SON, not havin
a Tenant for their Concerns, to have the business carried manner as heretofore, and be thanks for the general suppo over thirty years. They now assorted stock of:—

English, Scotch, and Fo
Spring, and Blister Steel, I
Tin Plates, Zinc, Petersbu
Hemp, Steeled and Ham
Weights, Anvils, Vices, Smi
Corn Sacks, Ropes and Lin
Ovens, and Boilers, Portland Hammers, &c., Chain of all de rosin, Orrell, Wallsend, New Smiths' Coals, &c.

IRON STORES AND

Upper Wi

8th Feb., 1860.