

Limerick, I think it right to inform under no absolute disqualification to consecrated bishop. The principal dif-his own well known unwillingness ful responsibility of that high office, which forcibly proves that with his learning and profound piety he is on of ecclesiastic fit to be chosen on asion as the present. As to the disng from his being a Jesuit so much araded by those who are personally ured in the result of the approach-quite unsubstantial and fictitious; as fessed Jesuit, and as to his unwilling-n him the weighty responsibility of fice, his Holiness the Pope, can by hority remove that impediment. If cumstances, there was a pressing ne-of the dearest interests of religion for hat authority, and where the subject ound to yield obedience, it would be some providential interposition does ustrate the long deeply laid machina-ate by putting a Casbel man over us, g order of things in this diocese, it to expect peace and good feeling would be useless to endeavour to uses of the unfriendly feeling that t for a long time back. All the as well if not better acquainted n than the clergy, because many severely suffered therefrom; these occasionally gone through the local s of Ireland. They are as well and a and as painfully felt among the Caf Limerick, and in every parish of the ng the clergy that subjects for the
