

it might produce surprise or un- the people in this y party as stupid, consideration into e gentlemen shall ility of adopting e selection of par- pe the indignation and maintenance efficiently as the large meeting of ans, convened by ay, the 1st inst, inquiry into the nd to reply to a ion (drawn up at wn, presided over ) and forwarded plaining of the h they appear to of 3s 4d. in the £ thousand pounds ed for—that the explanation as to hat the accounts onths, and that have taken place rk. The present has been engaged e accounts, sub- port showing in e union, accom- for all expenses nths' by which it any one division ne it will be as ined the misson of the ratepayers was adopted una- to be forwarded o the memorial roposed by Hugh onded by Edward was unanimously who it appears xpressive of the for the valuable in assisting his he accounts and elined to accept £6 was ordered ion of his Hotel

A RESIDENT.

At Southampton, Edward Spence, Esq., B.A., M.N.I. to Eleanor, Elizabeth daughter of the late George Hayward, Esq. of Headingley Hall, Yorkshire.
 At Trichinopoly, Lieut. Bernard Hughes Preston, 2nd European Madras, Light Infantry, to Helen Augusta, daughter of Charles Ford, Esq., F.R.C.S. of the same regt.
 At Ramegate, Major Wilton, M.M.'s Indian Forces, to Louisa, daughter of the late Wm Mitchell, Esq., of Brompton, and relict of Capt Ovens, 57th Regt.

DEATHS.

In Dublin, on the 1st instant, in his 41st year, Wm Kearney Esq. J.P. of Ballinavilla House, Castlebar.
 On Wednesday morning last, after a protracted illness, Mrs Roche, the beloved wife of Timothy Roche, Esq. Trilolia, near Kilmallock, in the 50th year of her age. She is much regretted by a large circle of attached friends, for her many amiable qualities, but more particularly by the poor of her neighbourhood.
 In Waterford, Adam Rogers, Esq.
 At Cathedral-square, Waterford, Mrs Bennett, relict of the late Mr Samuel Bennett, of that city.
 At Mary-street, Waterford, Mrs Lynch, wife of Mr Edward Lynch, corn factor.
 At Mount Bellow, the Rev John Burke, P.P. of the parishes of Moylough and Mount Bellow, diocese of Tuam.
 At Blackrock, Cork, Jane, daughter of the late Major Wm Carr, of the Royal York Rangers.
 At Drumcondra Castle, near Dublin, Grace, Dowager Marchioness Ormonds.
 At Bahana, county Wicklow, Henry Keegan, Esq.
 At Tandragee, Augusta Sophia, wife of the Rev R Johnston.
 At North Portland-street, Dublin, Henry Broughton Curry, son of Eugene Curry, Professor of Irish Antiquology in the Catholic University.
 At Killyleagh Castle, county Down, Capt Archibald Rowan Hamilton, formerly of the 5th Dragoon Guards.
 In Dublin, Dominick Corr, Esq.
 At the Hibernian School, Phoenix-park, Mr James Barnes.
 At Bray, Rhoda, wife of Robert Orms, Esq.
 Mr James Murphy of Parkgate-street, Dublin.
 Wm A Michelson, son of Mr F Michelson, Inland Revenue Department, Ennisorthy.
 At Lower Ormond-quay, Dublin, Mr John Seybourns.
 At Nelson-street, Belfast, Mr John Brown.
 William Stuart, Esq., 1st Lieutenant R.M., son of the Rev J Stuart, Carrickfergus.
 At Lancaster-street, Belfast, Mrs Agnes Peake.
 At Burt Cottage, Belfast, Andrew Hamilton, Esq., M.D., late of Derry.
 In Derry, Elizabeth, relict of the late Robert Maclellan, Esq., Lieutenant and Adjutant 23rd Regt.
 In Derry, Mary Conyngnam Crawford, daughter of the late Rev James Crawford, rector of Templemore, diocese of Raphoe.
 In London, Edward Barlow Sandford, son of the late Joseph Sandford, Esq. of Derry-ledge, county Londonderry.
 At Guernsey, Frederick Wm Tepper, Esq., 6th Regt.
 At Bath, Colonel John F Palmer, late of the Madras Army.
 On board the s.s. Olympus, of Liverpool, Lieutenant Walter Macpherson, 27th Regt.
 At Gillingham Hall, Beccles, the Lady George Bunsford.
 At Lyons, Louisa Mary, wife of Colonel Henry Dalrymple White, CB.
 At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Captain Chichester Crookshank, late 51st Regiment.
 At Shirley, near Southampton, Arthur William Coops, late of the 13th Royal Lancers.
 At Douglas, Isle of Man, Christopher Savage, Esq., son of the late Christopher Kingsborough Savage.
 Mr Frederick Dent, maker of the great clock at the House of Parliament.
 At Canterbury, Caroline, widow of Lieut-Colonel Charles Dashwood, O.B., formerly of the 3d Foot Guards.

WEDNESDAY, the 9th May next, at 6 o'clock in the afternoon,
THE LANDS OF CLOON.
 Containing 241a, 1r, 13p, Statute 148a 3r 35p Irish Plantation Measure two tenants, under a lease dated 1822, for three lives, one of which he is in the seventieth year of his age.
 This Property (which is situated in the parishes of Eunis and Kiltrush) consists of Pasture Land, is subject only to a 6s 1d per annum, and at the expiration of the lease the income can be considerably more than the rent now payable may be considered as a good rent.
 Further particulars may be obtained of the owner, Capt. John W. Kilmallock, county Limerick; or of the Solicitor, 67 Lower Baggot Street, Dublin, or of Mr H. N. SEYMOUR, in whose office a Map and Rental of the Property is deposited.
 Limerick, 28th April, 1860.

To Be Let
THE HOUSE, &c., No. 4, (
 lately occupied as Lace Factory, by Ralph, Esq., of Nottingham. It is well situated and possesses every requisite for business or domestic purposes.
 Application to
EDWARD HAROLD
 Scottish Church Street, Glasgow, or
 48, Abchurch Lane, London, E.C.
 May 5, 1860.

KILKEE.
TO BE LET to 1st of JULY, a Cottage having a full view of the Sea, a sitting room, dining room, three parlours, &c., Coach House and Stabling.
 Apply to
EDWARD HAROLD
 Hotel, Glasgow, or
 48, Abchurch Lane, London, E.C.
 May 5

KILKEE.
TO BE LET FOR
FOR the Month of May and June, a Cottage, containing 2 Sitting Rooms, Kitchen and Pantry, &c., Furnished; also, No. 4, Geraldine Street, containing one Sitting Room, 3 Bedrooms, Kitchen, &c., all Furnished for £5, for May and June.
 For further particulars apply to Mr Edward Harold, 67 George Street, Limerick; or at Stranmillis, Kilkee.