

mustering of the... t week. It was found stocks had been provide number had assembled ever to their feet asbarefooted, presenting reflected not very high quantity of government Saturday to the great officers—the latter of the shabby appearance stockings; but, to the ening the cases it was
 ing but pocket knives,
 men had consequently gloves, but a large cover their feet—Cork

ry Council of Ireland regiments of corps of
 be marched out of
 several counties cities
 hereinafter specified,
 exercise, the Dublin
 of Dublin; the Kil-y of Kilkenny; the own of Galway; the
 niskillen, in the county
 illery Corps to Charlegh; and the South
 lks; in the county of en appointed Lieut.

INFANTRY.—James
 ol, to be Adjutant,
 Dean of Derry, died
 is worth 8,000l, per
 he government. Mr.
 pre than forty years.
 y in 1820 as the suc-
 Bishop of Dromore. own Dean Hume, in nery for a couple of the vacancy for Mr.
 as a native of the
 were originally from
 and some centuries
 always been a family
 ch and the army
 hem in nearly every Ireland, the Dean's was rector of All-
 y Francis Gough,
 erick from 1826 to es on to Lieutenant
 n. Lieutenant-Col.
 he Limerick militia,

4th Regiment, N I, to Julia, daughter of the late Capt Mitchell,
 Madras Army.
 At Belfast, Australia, Henry Graham Eddington, Esq, son of John Eddington, Esq, late of the 1st Royals, to Eliza Anne, daughter of the Venerable T H Braim, Archdeacon of Portland.

DEATHS.

- At Timbarra, Australia, after a short illness, on the 9th of February, Henry, the youngest son of the late Peter Low, Esq, D.L. of this county, deeply regretted by a numerous circle of relatives and friends.
- At the residence of Mrs Purdon, Clonimore, Meath, at an advanced age, Eliza, daughter of the late Christopher Rose, of Rathkeale.
- At Breach, Bombay, Edmund Denny, Esq, C.E, son of Wm Denny, Esq, D.L. of Tralee, aged 26 years.
- At the barracks, Athlone, Surgeon-Major Adam Thomas Jackson, depot battalion.
- In Cork, Capt. John Armstrong, late of the 88th Connaught Rangers.
- James Bernard Alcock, son of Bernard J Alcock, Esq, Cork.
- At Olydaville, county Cork, Emily Mary Caroline, the infant daughter of J Kenny Herbert, Esq.
- On Tuesday, the Dean of Londonderry (Gough).
- At Corfu, on the 4th Nov., aged 22 years, Mary Elizabeth, the beloved wife of Color-Sergeant T Elliott, 2nd Battalion 9th Regt, sincerely regretted.
- Mr Denis Daly, Great George's-street, Cork.
- At Rathgar-road, Dublin, John Clason, Esq.
- Mr Horace Hayman Wilson, Sanscrit Professor at Oxford.
- At Kilmavarga, King's County, Thomas Mulock, Esq.
- At Dangan, the Rev Wm Cornwall, late Wesleyan Minister of Galway.
- In Galway, Mrs Jackson, relict of Henry Jackson, Esq, of Rathgranaher.
- At Athlone, Samuel Plummer Smith, son of Samuel Smith, Esq, of Newtown House, and formerly of Cherry-mount, county Meath.
- At Ballycuddihy, county Kilkenny, Edmund Byrne, Esq.
- At Tallamore, Mrs Anne M'Donnell.
- At Roscrea, Mr Thomas M'Gaire.
- At Clonliffe-parade, Dublin, Mary, wife of B Banks, Esq.
- At Mountpleasant-avenue, Dublin, Fanny Hope Cooper, relict of the late Samuel C H Cooper, Esq.
- At Charlotte-street, Dublin, Eliza, relict of Mr J Mackey.
- At Kilmoon Rectory, Annie Victoria, daughter of the Rev Wm J Irvine.
- In Belfast, Margaret, relict of John Breakey, Esq, formerly of Hillsborough.
- At Amiens-street, Dublin, Ellen, wife of Edward A Manders, Esq.
- At Belturbet, Jane Edwina, wife of Mr Thomas Palmer, merchant.
- At Perth, Miss Madaline Murray, daughter of Sir Robert Murray, Bart.
- At Dromore, county Tyrone, Rebecca Scott, relict of John Scott, Esq.
- At Enniscossey Glebe, Morley, son of the Rev G M Dennis.
- At Dover, Dame Louise Lillie, wife of Sir John Stott Lillie.
- At Southsea, Major William Sandy Ebrington, late of the 11th Regiment.
- At Heriot-row, London, Sir John Melville, Knight.
- At Hyde-park, London, Maria, widow of General J Murray, of Glendalls, and of the Queen's County.
- Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas James Barrow, formerly of the Coldstream Guards.
- At Knightsbridge Barracks, Thomas Tardrew, Esq, Surgeon 2d Lite Guards.
- At Columbia, South Carolina, John, son of the late Richard Peare, Esq, of Newpark, county Galway.
- At St Hellier's, Jersey, Lewis Philip Charles, son of Major Wilton, 60th Rifles.
- In Liverpool, Harriet P, daughter of the late William Irvine Robinson, Esq, of Belfast.
- At Cook's River, Sydney, New South Wales, the Rev Edward J Nixon, son of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Nixon, of the 1st Royals.

FROM KILCO
 a Three Yea
 lour chiefly white,
 slightly turned in;
 mation of the above
 D. O'RYAN, Clogh
 May 12

Situ
RESPECTAB
 A for 18 years
 specially sent out Raglan's horses an rate laudress, w
 can give the bes
 character.
 Apply by letter
 Clonmel; or to the
 May 12

Here
NONE need a character, f
 and in the Buying
 Apply to CAPT
 Clare.
 May 9

LAI
THE
IN aid of the B
 and of the R
 26th ult., will tak
FRIDAY, the

PROTE
A Admittance,
 May 9

Wesleya
ON SUNDAY
 Will
THE W
THE
 At 12 o'Clock

A Collection
 the Funds of connection with