DEATHS.

We regret to announce the death, from heart disease, of George T. Hill, Esq., which sad event occurred on Thursday, his residence in Newenham-street, to the inexpressible regret his family and friends. Mr. Hill's long connexion with mercantile business in this city endeared him to all classes with whom he was brought in intercourse, and in every undertaking it had for its object the advancement of the agricultural interests he took an active and beneficial part. As a fond husband, an affectionate parent, and sincere friend, his loss is irreparable, and will be long felt. The remains of the deceased gentleman will be interred at 8 o'clock on Monday morning, in the family vault at Castletownwaller.

aged 25 years. In the prime of life and manhood he has been taken to the "Mansions of Eternal Bliss," from his bereaved and inconsolable parents. In him they have lost a dutiful, obedient and affectionate son, and his wife a truly affectionate husband. His remains were followed on the 22nd instant to Kilmaloe by a large concourse of friends and relatives, who deeply deplored the premature death of one who was so universally and justly esteemed while living, and regretted when dead.
