

privates. The second at home are not to be orders, though they to twelve companies.

knowledges 14. from na, for Protestant Or-pupils of St. Michael's nursday in the Parish young pupils was satis- premiums were awarded eight were for good at- tiency in Holy Scrip- tomorrow at Wesleyan the Wesleyan's will be nraven's demesne, on which occasion the Revs. ill preach. Service to on Wednesday at the yne, and Ross diocesan gation of the gospel in Elrington, the valu- and the presentorship of cant. They are in the nd supposed to be up- value.

ranch of the Protestant rk on Tuesday. The care of society on 31st Number admitted this se 160 were present, oads and other modes of as occupied by the Lord those present were the of Kildare, Rev S N ett, Esq; A Newman, g, the children amount- t a substantial dinner, and Rt. Rev. Dr. Mon- rliale to that of Durham, ted Bishop of Rochester, Lords. The new Bishop be, will remain out of a vacancy shall occur copal Bench, other than ops of London, Durham the diocese, this month phonusus Church on the 18th.

of the Roman Catholic el's chapel on Tuesday collection through the ety of St. Vincent De of £1 from W. Smith of Limerick.

r the Pope is to be made Sunday, the 24th June

Thompson.
 At Brixton, Henry Chevalier, son of John C Cobbold, Esq, M.P. Ipswich, to Louisa, daughter of C M Pocock, Esq, Montagu House, Brixton.
 At Calcutta, Wm Henry Leslie, M.B, Assistant-Surgeon 48th Regiment, to Isabella Ellen, daughter of the late Capt Angus de Fountani, 40th Fative Infantry.
 At St. Pancras Church, London, Lieutenant F J de Silva Arango, of the Imperial Brazilian Navy, to Mary Anne, daughter of H H Langley, Esq, Clarendon-terrace, Pentonville, and late of Colyton, Devon.

DEATHS.

At Tivoli House, near Limerick, on 31st May, Maryanne, the beloved wife of Lieutenant-Colonel F. H. Massy Wheeler, sincerely regretted.
 On Thursday morning, at Stammer-park, Ennis, deeply regretted, Miss Mary Creagh, eldest daughter of the late Major Charles Creagh, of Carrigerry, county Clare.
 At Blackrock, county Dublin, Theobald, son of Wm Butler, Esq, of Drom, county Tipperary.
 Suddenly, John Maher, Esq, D.L, of Ballinkee, county Wexford.
 At Moorehall, county Mayo, Mrs Moore, mother of George Henry Moore, Esq.
 At Rathfarnham, Bernard O'Beirne, Esq, of Blessington-street, Dublin.
 At his residence, Gloster, King's County, Lieutenant-Colonel Hardram Lloyd, aged 80 years.
 At the Rectory, Templeshambo, the Rev Henry P Elrington, D.D, preacher of Ferris.
 At Patrick-street, Cork, Benjamin, son of T R Atkins.
 At Bantry, Margaret, wife of Herbert Orpen, Esq.
 Abraham Denoche, Esq, for many years proprietor of the Kilkenny Moderator.
 In Wiltshire, Lord Haytesbury, aged 81 years.
 At Killarney, Miss Honora Lyne.
 At Castletownroche, Elizabeth Maria Nagle, daughter of the late Garrett Nagle, Esq, of Glanamore, county Cork.
 In Clonmel, Mr John Lyons.
 At Thomond-square, Cork, Ellen Maria, wife of Michael Newnan, Esq, of Moyge.
 At Miltown Malbay, Bridget, relict of the late Mr T Curtin, of Ennis.
 At the Curragh Camp, Captain John Colling, 26th Cameronian Regiment, having been mortally wounded by a stray bullet while at rifle practice.
 At Drogheda, Mr Sullivan, head master of the Christian Brothers' Schools.
 At Dresden, Thomas, son of Mr Henry Peat, of Rathmines-road, Dublin.
 At Ballynabarney, near Wicklow, John Lorenzo Sampson, child of the late Mr Wm Sampson, of Summer-hill, Dublin.
 In Belfast, John Boyd, Esq.
 At Prince William Cottage, Dublin, Mr Thomas Crothers.
 At Upper Dominick-street, Dublin, Mr James Hickey.
 At Leinster-square, Dublin, Mary, wife of the Rev W Craig, Incumbent of the Free Church, Londonderry.
 Wm S Irvine, Esq, late of Harcourt-street, Dublin.
 At Upper Baggot-street, Dublin, Mr Wm Morgan.
 At Ballyragget, Miss Catherine Gorman, sister of the Very Rev Dean Gorman, P.P. St. Canice, Kilkenny.
 At Killorglin, county Kerry, James, son of Mr T Power.
 In Dundalk, Mr John Larkie, Permit Master in the Inland Revenue Department
 In Dundalk, Mary Anne, wife of Richard Verdon, Esq.
 At Calcutta, Francis, son of the Hon Algernon Chichester.
 At Impington Hall, Cambridgeshire, Lieutenant Alexander Cotton, Royal Navy.
 In America, Mr S G Goodrich, author of "Peter Parley's Juvenile Tales."
 At Fyzabad, Lieut Rutledge, 34th Regt.
 At Lowndes-square, London, James William, the infant son of Major William Fitzgerald.
 At Walliscote House, near Reading, Vice-Admiral Robert Merrick Fowler.
 At Stock, near Ingatstone, William Arthur Heywood, son of the late Captain Heywood, of Colchester.
 At sea, James Pringle Riach, Esq, son of the late Major W A Riach, 79th Regiment.
 The Rev S T Slade Gully, Rector of Berrynarbor, in the county of Devon.
 At Grosvenor-street, London, Captain Charles Barker, RN.
 At Bhaugulpore, Calcutta, Francis W J West, O.E, East India Railway.

FOR SALE—GUANO. SU PHATE, GROUND B
 without any mixture. Gy Chemical Manure, warranted than any Guano of the pre 5 cwt. will top-dress an acre
 Meadow, or Pasture; 10 cwt nips, or Mangel Wurzels. Al ments and Machines, viz., Tu
 Hay Rakes, Oat Bruisers, Str
 American Hay Rakes; a bo acres of grass per diem, 40s. t
 Farm Gates. Orders taken Combined Mowing and Reapin
 ALL KINDS OF FARM S
 Pig, Fowl, and Cattle Fo
 burgh Food for Horses, Mil by the stone; it creates an a tains health, and fattens w will convince the most sceptic measure given with it gratis
 1s. per stone.
 Will be ready for sale in Rotatory Double-action Atm within ten minutes, price 30s Gentlemen will pleas which day (D.V.) a grand Combined Mowing and Reap splendid Italian Rye Grass, g
 J.P., Friarstown, near Limer
 GLEESON & C
 68, WILLIAM
 June 2

KILK

TEA, WINE, AND S WILLIAM I
HAS much pleasure in an Customers and the vis that he is prepared with a n supply them with every s Spirit, and Grocery Depart equally as cheap as can be where—thereby saving the t being burdened with unneces
 so frequently proved to be venience.
 W. D., refrains from givi
 as they are more frequently public, and prefer the mote ducting his business, by ass favour him with their order best value for their money t
 W. D., will be prepared during the season, pure wh very best flour, baked on t own immediate superinten been greatly enlarged, and cent improvements he has Room, which will be at a amusement of the public.
 A list of Goods kept in t be sent to every family du counts opened for their co Kilkree, June 2