

...a thank offering for the weather.
...of Templemartin, Bandon, postpone his promised public would deliver to-morrow—he certain reasons. These reasons

CATHEDRAL.

...fellow-citizens are visiting the one who goes there leaves with. Opened up as the building has grand beyond description. We thank the committee for this boon; very sudden and agreeable surprise. ...the religious magnanimity of ...are that no city in Ireland posture than Limerick can boast of. ...have two of the finest Cathedrals ...pire. The Right Hon. William Butler, of St. Mary's, and some ...en visited it on Wednesday, and ...grandeur of its interior propor-Dean Cussen, of Bruff, paid it a ...inspected all its old monuments. ...every creed are thronging to see ...s concealed from observation—a ...future, as it undoubtedly is of ...ments now being done will pre-Dean of Limerick is taking a ...work of so much necessity, and ...leave nothing undone to transfer ...judgment, good taste, and high ...ent time. The Lord Bishop has ...perfect renovation. The public ...and in this good work, and have ...fect, substantive, and complete. ...antial work, and likely to last for ...requires many alterations, but ...d should now be completed. We ...o this undertaking; which being ...d be a credit to our days. It ...it should be given with no nig-our Roman Catholic citizens do ...ices. It matters little how long ...ork; but it should be done, and ...o believe it will, under the good ...o have the control over it; we ...gns will be appreciated and re-...tion shall have passed away.

Esq., J.P. Lakeview House, county Londonderry.
At the First Presbyterian Church, Donagheady, Mr. Joseph Love, of Derry, to Emma, daughter of Mr. John M'Morris, of Ardmore, Donagheady.
At Compton Martin, Somersetshire, the Rev. Charles W. Devenish, incumbent of Publew, to Charlotte, daughter of the late William Hammon, Esq., of Monkstown, county Dublin.
At St Peter's Chapel, Arabian Coast, John M'Swiney, Esq., Stipendiary Magistrate, to Mary Anna, daughter of the late William Thompson, Esq., of Lurgan, county Armagh.
At St. George's, Hanover-square, London, Major W. D. Macdonald, H.M.'s 93d Highlanders, to Emma, daughter of Colin Lindsay, Esq.
At St. James's Church, Piccadilly, Major Patrick Stewart, of the Royal Bengal Engineers, to Miss McDouall, daughter of Colonel McDouall, of Logan, Wigtownshire, N.B, formerly of 2d Life Guards.

DEATHS.

Last evening, at Shelbourne Cottage, very much regretted by his family and a numerous circle of friends, Charles M'Carthy, Esq., late merchant in this city, and formerly proprietor of the Limerick Examiner newspaper.
At Craven's Hotel, London, the day after landing from St. Helena, George Stacpoole Furnell, eldest son of Thomas J. Furnell, Esq., Upper Mallow-street, at the early age of 21 years. Though young, his friends have the great consolation of knowing he gave sure evidence of his love for his Redeemer, and led a spotless life.
At Heathfield, Manchester, on the 2nd instant, aged 10 months, and interred on the 6th inst., in his grandfather's vault (Mr. F. P. Russell's), at St. John's Church, Limerick, Edward William Russell, only child of Edward William Phibbs.
At Merton House, Baldoyle, Frederick Dickinsen, Esq.
At Roseville, county Kildare, James Bury, Esq.
At Kingstown, Elizabeth, wife of Felix Boylan, of Waterloo-road, Dublin.
At Portrush, Anne Isabella Jane, daughter of G. Robinson, Esq., J.P. and D.L., of Armagh.
In Belfast, the Rev. Richard H. Wiggins, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, America, son of the late Rev. John Wiggins, Wesleyan Minister.
At Meadow-street, Belfast, Archibald Henry, son of Mr. G. W. Ballié.
At Portstewart, Jane, relict of the Rev. Alex. Ross, Rector of Banagher, county Londonderry.
At Sandyhill, near Tandragee, the Rev. R. Mortimer, pastor of the Presbyterian congregation of Markethill.
At the Rectory, Duncormack, the Rev. Abraham Goff.
At Collinstown House, county Kildare, D. Simmonds, Esq.
In Newry, Mary, daughter of the late Nicholas Moore, Esq., of Springfield, county Down.
At Smyrna, Elfrida Mary, wife of Captain James Atkinson, formerly of the 72d Highlanders.
At Wrottesley, the Hon. Mrs. Edward Goodlake, daughter of Lord Wrottesley.
On board the steamship Ripon, Major-General Lockyer, Com-mander-in-Chief of the Forces in Ceylon.
At Colton House, Staffordshire, Elizabeth, relict of John Hill, Esq., Attorney-General of the Chester Circuit.
At New York, Mr. Hugh O'Reilly, late of Belturbet, county Cavan.

...by me up to the 1st S
Church Street, En
Sept. 8
County

TO BE LET, from November next COLMAN EAST, sit of Rathkeale (a station Railway) and 2 miles road from Rathkeale. The Land to be Let contains ... measure and has been last 7 years, who has ing a good dwelling h farm offices thereon, a Land which required permanently done. T dairy and feeding pu the exception of the subsequently broken down in an improved the following division and the Proprietor wi one lot, or in two thre can be given.
Apply to JAMES GA who will receive prop

"OUR
CONTINUES to gi much admired for far surpassing Chinese ness, and is consequ assumption.
Our Assam Mixture introduced, at the req is calculated to come Strong, Economical, w Cash purchasers of I peculiar advantages in
M. W. BEE
TEA
26, Patric
August 18