

Inland Revenue, stated for the receipt of the the 24th, 25th and 26th of Annual field day of the North and South Camps took place at Alders consisted of the Horse Col Philpotts, and the commanded by Capts.

ley Brigade commanded aget, C-B., comprised the th Lancers, Colonel Little Knox; and the Military fantry Brigades under the or-General Lawrence, CB Taylor, and Brigadier the 10th, 82nd, 41st, 49th le Brigade, and the Royal force was under the com-ohn L Pennefather, KCB.
eral weeks ago of the bilm, the infantry force sisted of but two corps—fact unprecedented in the y.
Dublin garrison, compristhe Scots Greys, and the l as the Royal Horse esterday, by Lieut-General der of the Forces, and e 'Fifteen Acres.' The d shortly after ten o'clock,
ed. A number of evolu-mizable order and with illiant charges were made these charges, when the l pace, a soldier of the d was so severely injured the field to hospital in an ndance in case of accident. ng took place, and the ective quarters at halfpast named Henry Haynes, nt, of the detachment of at Gahir, suddenly dise-without leaving any clue ure of his destination. s discovered that he had and two cheques for 5l.
ter. Subsequent inquiries s, traced the fugitive to Arms, son of the Rev. C. Levens, 11, Colemanto Elizabeth, daughter of the late Major Rehe, Hon. East India Company's Service.

At Halifax, Nova Scotia, Captain John T. Campbell, 7th
Royal Fusiliers, to Mary Augusta, daughter of T. C. Kinnear, Esq, of Halifax
At St Lawrence, Ludlow, the Rev. W. Serjeantson, son of the late Captain Serjeantson, 40th Regiment, to Mary Emily, daughter of the Rev. R. Meyrick, of Ludlow, Salop.
At Kishnaghur, East Indies. Franklin Prestage, Esq, C.E.
Eastern Bengal Railway, to Eliza Awrella, relict of Lieut. G.
Hawes, late 5th Regiment B.N.I, and daughter of Major Cary, Indian Army.

DEATHS.

In London, Michael J. Staunton, Esq. of Ballysimon, near this city—a gentleman of high accomplishments and general information, whose death is much regretted by his family and friends.
On the 30th ultimo, at his house, Beaumont-square, London, of bronchitis, Mark O'Shaughnessy, Esq, late Captain in the 83rd, the Queen's Own Light Infantry (Tower Hamlet) Regt Yesterday evening, at the Convent of the Redemptorist Fathers, Mount St. Alphonus, the Very Rev. Father Roes, Rector of the Order in this city, a truly pious clergyman, and native of Belgium
At Doonass, county Clare, at an advanced age, the Rev. A.
Walsh, for many years rector of that parish.
In Dublin, Richard Burke, M.D, of Galway.
At Upper Rutland-street, Dublin, Martha, daughter of the late Robert Blackley, Esq.
At Grantham-street, Dublin, George W. Leeson, Esq.
At Naas, William Clarke, Esq, Governor of the County Prison in that town.
At Corrickfergus, Elizabeth, wife of the Rev. S. Thompson.
At Ballyragget, John Brennan, Esq.
At Carrick-on-Shannon House, county Leitrim, John Nunn Richards Henzell, Esq, R.E.
Suddenly in Dublin, James B. Toldervy, Esq, M.D, of Fre-derickton, North America.
At Portarlinton, James Paul, son of James Anderson, Esq, of Grace-Dieu-Lodge, county Waterford.
In Dublin, Susannah, relict of the late William Slater Harrison, Esq
At Drumlease Vicarage, county Leitrim, the Rev. William Willoughby Wynn, rector of Drumlease.
At Blackrock, county Dublin, George Alfred, son of Alfred Keen, Esq.
At Simon's Bay, Cape of Good Hope, Brevet Lieut-Colonel Maycock, 53d Regt.
At Clifton, Bristol, Julia, Dowager Lady Wrottesley, widow of John, first Lord Wrottesley.
At St. Helier's, Jersey, Margaret Ruth, daughter of Major Wilton, 60th Rifles.
At Ramsgate, Lydia Mary, [relict of the late Captain Nixon, Royal Navy.
At Portland-place, Lower Clapton, London, the Rev. Alex.
Fletcher, D.D.
At Torquay, Isabella Maria, widow of Captain Francis Constable Jackson, late of the 12th Regiment B.N.I, and Stud Department, Bengal.
At Odin Bay, China, on board the hospital ship Mauritius, Surgeon R. W. Macaulay, Bengal Medical Service, son of Dr.
A. Macaulay, Edinburgh.
In Liverpool, Elias Arnaud, Esq, Collector of Customs at that port.
At sea, on his passage to England, Captain John Dinsdale, 22d Madras Infantry.
At Aden, en route to Australia, John Dunn, Esq, M.P. for Dartmouth, and formerly member of the Legislative Council of Tasmania.

Agents Kingdom for
For particular Isleworth, near Sept 26

HORSE

IN consequence Ballinasloe as held on the be held until therefore pa
Brougham Ho
eral use, and please send f
number in Cat
Cavalry Off
Troop Horses
without blem
M.
P.S.—The s mence at 12 o
Oct 6

SIR.
UNLESS y
Dromore move same be to re-sell the your risk and Dated 29th

To Mr. Edw
October 3.

WE are n which of which can
Parmar
Cheshire
Double
Leicester
Somers
We strongly per lb., very Rifle Biscui
M.
Sept 29