

superior to no town in Irelly efficient, experienced,
in future meet with due ael reading room "kicked ublic street, where it was ho swept its tattered fragis disgraceful exhibition on amel resulted from the ob
that paper against the Irish embarked on the 20th ult.
ived in England.

, 7th Hussars, eldest son of Drewscourt, county Lime-pot of that corps at Maids being provided in this on of the 17th Regiment, Limerick, and expected to e has left for Gibraltar as y to the Commander innton, Adjutant General,

o Warsaw on a Govern-Colonel Simmonds, of the eived an appointment at he Hon. H. T. Keane is at the Horse Guards.

rland, 92d Highlanders, is and retire upon the full pay

on, 13th Light Dragoons,

strong 100-pounder guns.
iew yet completed, was on oyal Arsenal butt, Wool-fired ten rounds, loaded
arge of powder and shot,
y searched and examined,
d the test well. Sir Wm.

h, Inspector-General of Assistant Inspector; and ce Select Committee were
was subjected to a second
again fired ten rounds,
e of powder and a 100-lb
milar result. This species ed according to the new en pronounced an impor-
struction of heavy guns
rength to the chamber.
irection of Sir William instead of in coils, and,
of the examining committee,
vice.

nissioned officers of the er amateur theatrical pers.
3th Light Infantry, has as Aide-de-Camp to the Surrey.

At Westham, Edward, son of Samuel Barrett, Esq. of Devonshire, to Charlotte, daughter of Richard Crawford, Esq. of Hardwicke-street, Dublin.

DEATHS.

On the 11th instant, at Brasfort, Portarlington, Mary Jane, the beloved wife of Wm. Bloase Armstrong, Esq. and daughter of the late Richard Phillips, Esq. of Galle, county Tipperary.
Her end was peace.

In Dublin, sincerely regretted, Catherine, sister of the late Jonas Studdert, Esq. D.L. J.P. of Elm Hill, in this county.
She bore a long illness with Christian patience, trusting solely for salvation to the merits of her saviour.

At Carrigeen Hall, Charity Greene, relict of the late Michael Greene, Esq. of Greenmout, county Tipperary, at the advanced age of 101 years.

Last night, in Lower Harstonge-street, Mr. Daniel Kelly, victualler, aged 77 years, an industrious and honest man, whose loss is much regretted by his family and friends.

At Templemore, Eliza, wife of George Wright, Esq. and daughter of the late W. E. Bushell, Esq. R.N.

At Mount Juliet, county Kilkenny, the Hon Charles Edward Butler Clarke, son of the Earl of Ormonde.

At Gen Curragh, county Cork, Daniel MacCarthy, Esq.

At Killogh, county Cork, William Hutchinson, Esq.

At King-street, Waterford, Patrick Cadogan, Esq. corn merchant.

At Cahir, Joseph Matthew, son of Mr. Charles Cody.

At Kingstown, Mrs Singleton, relict of Francis Singleton, Esq. of Aclare House, county Meath

At Carlton-terrace, Rathmines, Mrs. Anne Spain.

Bessie Alice, daughter of Edward Eagar, Esq. of London, formerly of Tralee.

At Burrinmout, county Carlow, Catherine, wife of C. J.
M'Cullagh, Esq.

At Jervis-street, Dublin, Susanna, wife of Surgeon Michael William Day, formerly of Chapelizod, Dublin.

At Aungier-street, Dublin, Mr. Peter Furlong.

At Belvidere-place, Dublin, Bridget, daughter of the late Patrick Smyth, Esq. of Snugbro', county Meath.

John Clark, sen, Esq. of Belmont, Carlow.

At Harristown, county Wexford, Margaret, relict of the late Edward Byron, Esq.

Suddenly, on Saturday, at his brother's house, Nelson-street, Patrick Anderson, a faithful member of St. Michael's Temperance Society for the last 21 years.

At Wexford, Mr. Denis Malone.

At Clontarf, William, son of Mr. John Allingham, of Capelstreet, Dublin

At New Ross, Edward, son of the late L. Galavan, Esq.

At Island-bridge, near Dublin, Mrs. Perkin, relict of Wm.
Perkin, Esq.

At Myshall, the Rev. G. Mulvin, P.P. of that parish.

Isabella, daughter of Mr. James Fisher, of Magheragal, near Lisburn.

At Ballymacarrett, near Belfast, Aeneas Lamont, surgeon.

At Carr, county Down, Mr. John Crawford.

At Waring-street, Belfast, Jane, relict of the late William Walker, Esq. Magheragal.

At Brighton, Hugh Barton, Esq. son of the late Hugh Barton, Esq. of Straffin, county Kildare.

At Russell-square, London, Sir Charles Fellowes.

Colonel Charles F. Rowley Lascelles, a Waterloo officer.

At New Amsterdam, Barbice, Mary Anna, wife of John McSwiney, Esq. Stipendiary Magistrate.

At Everton, Liverpool, Mr. William Goodwin, formerly of the city of Armagh.

At Bath, the Rev. Charles Yates, B.D. formerly Fellow of St.
John's College Cambridge.

At Caserta, from a wound, having been accidentally shot by a volunteer of the British Legion, Walter Augustus Jones, son of Henry Jones, Esq. Upper Baker-street, London.

At Woolgreaves, near Wakefield, Richard Dunn, Esq.

At Trinity College, Perthshire, Alfred Hemsley, son of the late Rev. R. Wildbone.

At Dover, Rose Isabella Douglas, wife of Captain Dressing, and daughter of Major Hartman, late of the 9th Regt.

At Madras, Captain Mars Morphett, late 57th Regt

At Pooree, Stephen, son of the Right Hon. Dr. Lushington.

At Broach, East Indies, John Wm Stack, Esq. Bombay Civil Service, son of Major-General Stack.

DIANA ATKINS, Agai
and Others.

Same and O
HENRY J. INC

PURSUANT to the Or these Causes, bearing
last, George Rogers, Esq., receive Proposals from suc
sirs to become Tenants and plot of Ground annexe
session of Miss Ellen O'Br
and to the House or Cabin possession of Edmond Wol
now in possession of Micha
pending these Causes, w
outside John's Gate and T
urbs of the City of Limer
sent to George Rogers, Esq Gardiner Street, Dublin;
citor, Francis O'Hara, 81 U lin, in order to be submit approval.

Dated this 26th day of O

WILLIAM PATRICK
Receiver, 21 Middle G
THOMAS O'SHAUGHN
Street, on behalf of the COFFEY, the Sub Agent will show the premises and November 14

THIS DAY IS

1 Vol., 12 mo., Cloth. P

Landlord and
OF THE LA

WITH Introduction, & Copious Index. By
rister at-Law.

Dublin: M'GLASHAN &
and all Booksellers.

Nov. 14

To Druggists, G
Dea

T O B E G I V

100,000 HOUSEK

as last y
December, for gratuitous d
of BORWICK'S BAKING

menacks contain numerous formation useful to Housek

G. BORWICK, 21, Littl be happy to forward copies
plet, Grocer, or Housekeep

Two stamps must be sent wit
O J 2 posts

Nov 15