

pre through the Irish provinces, a Mr. Gibberne, who has usurped the powers and assumed the office of king-maker, Zouaves in a speech of Bantry, or rather sequence, in which he offered the Crown to the pious Marshal MacMahon, Duke of Angoulême. As no one knew this Mr O'Sullivan of the Cork Asylum, it was supposed that he is one of those moonshiners who lately escaped from the Cork Asylum.

It has been graciously pleased to give and Charles William Cooper, of Cooper's Hill, in the County of Sligo, Esq., a Justice of the Peace and Magistrate of that county, and one of its representatives in Parliament, her royal licence and authority to date at St. James's, the 7th day of Nov., and his issue may take and henceforth use the name of O'Hara, in lieu of that of Cooper, and the same of O'Hara quarterly with those of Cooper, with an injunction contained in the last testament of his late uncle, Charles King, Esq., of Annaghmore, in the said county of Sligo, that her Majesty's royal concession on this subject may be recorded in the Office of Ulster in Ireland, which has been done accordingly.

THEATRICALS.—The non-commissioned performed two performances this week at the Barracks, which were well attended, and most satisfactorily. The pieces selected were the Painted Inn, and the farce of the Queer Subject, within the confined limits of a small theatre acted very well. Color Sergeant Burke, of the Limerick Militia, as Capt. Levant, (in the Painted Inn) went through the part with much effect, being ably supported by Corporal Trot, as Corporal Trot. Sergeant Hand, of the Limerick Militia, was well up in the character of Sir Mockett (Staff), as Monsieur Mockett, the arresting bailiff, did his business resolutely. Drummer Shread, Limerick Militia, was well up in the character of Tommy Tadpole. In the Queer Subject William Jones, 1st Battalion 17th Regiment, as Bill Matlock, backed by Alchin, 1st Battalion 3rd, as Ned Snatch. Mr Brazier, (Staff), looked and acted the part of Bingo in appropriate style—the other parts were fairly represented. We understand it is intended to transfer the Theatre to a larger barrack, a change most desirable, in order to have a more stage room. Much praise is due to Sergeant Fellows, (staff) for his very clever management.

Given this week in Clonmel by Captain [Name], and officers of No. 3 Battery, 9th British Artillery, was numerous and fashionably attended. The band of the Tipperary Light Infantry service pension of 300l. per annum, vacant of Sir Charles Napier, has been bestowed on the Duke of Somerset upon Admiral John [Name]. This act redounds to the credit of the Government.

Mr Selly, late of the 1st Royals, has been granted a decree of the Court of Chancery, 8,000l., for 20 years' arrears of interest. The fortunate man was recently discharged after 21 years' military service on a pension 1s. per day.
