The Dean of Limerick has appointed Handel Rogers an accomplished organist of the Cathedral, to a benefice, vacant by the death of Archdeacon Rogers.

This is a just and graceful acknowledgment of Rogers long and eminent services.

Archdeaconry of Aghadoe, vacant by the death of Dr. Foster, is worth 300l. per annum, and is held by the Bishop of Limerick.

ANNUAL FIELD MEETING.—As announced in last issue, the annual Field Meeting of the Wesleyan was held in the beautiful demesne of the Earl of Adare, and was attended by about 100 members of the congregation. The weather was propitious, and the display exceedingly interesting. Two sermons were preached by the Rev. H. G. and Rev. Thomas Guard, the eloquence of both gentlemen being distinguished for true Christian zeal in the cause of religion, and called forth admiration of the respectable assemblage convened to participate in the religious services of the noble proprietor of the soil. The society is indebted for his condescension in annually throwing open his magnificent grounds for these special services.
