

dec., &c.; also,

PHAN BAZAAR.—The fancy fair for "by" opens to-morrow in the Orphan tree look with some anxiety to the They owe a heavy debt to the number of applicants for admission unusually large, yet no eligible fused. They look, therefore, to a o assist them as heretofore, kindly The ladies who will have tables, on Massy, Doonass House; Mrs. n; Mrs. Westropp, Attyflin Park; stle Park; Mrs. Harrison, Castle-Franklin, Provincial Bank; Mrs. John's; and Mrs. W. Willis, Kilng proof of the extension of the Pro- opal Church in Canada is afforded by act which we copy from an Ame- e Rev. J. H. McCullum is son-in- eorge Gough Gubbins, and once the istant of Ballingarry parish, in this ow the Incumbent of the parish of ing and rapidly thriving district in "Aurora, Sunday School Festival. he 22nd of August, the children of Schools, of Aurora, Oakridges, and ed by their teachers, assembled in l a happy day and enjoy the good or them by the ladies of the congreg- dren amounting to between 160 and t Trinity Church, Aurora, at half- ck, where prayers were read by the Rev. J. H. McCollum. The children, ents, were then addressed by the r, and the Incumbent upon the great aking a deep interest in the working hool. This concluded, the children d in line, by Captain Stupard, one of ns, and bearing appropriate flags, and urora band, kindly given by Mr. Ire- Mr. Mosley's bush, where the ladies ion had all things provided for the l what with cake and coffee, with aw,—with swings and various games, happy may you and I be happier. As roached, the bugle sounded, and all line—the larger children carrying and headed by the band marched nicipal streets of the town and up to te, where a circle being formed, the Collum briefly addressed them,—the d God Save the Queen, three hearty were given for Her Gracious Majesty was pronounced by the incumbent, to their respective homes highly gra- spent a happy and delightful day.—

nity of the 'Good Shepherd' most owledge the receipt of the following eir Bazaar for the Magdalen Asylum : on, £1 10s; Mrs. Considine, of Derk, an, of Quinsborough, per Rev. M. £2; F. W. Russell, M.P. per Mrs. Rich-hill, £5. The Community of herd' also tender their most grateful Russell for his kind attendance and ty at their Bazaar. The results from ich, as we anticipated, has been most dy exceed £400. The precise sum hen all comes to hand. an M'Dermott, P.P., of Strokestown, he committee for building the Tuam ral with the princely donation of two

At St. Matthias Church, Richmond, Surrey, C. H. H. Watson, Esq., M.A., Secretary to the Society of Antiquaries of London, to Emma Jane, daughter of Pole Godfrey, Esq., of Kensington.
At Walcott Church, Bath, John Stone, Esq., son of the late Lieut.-Colonel Stone, 58th Regt., to Sophia Blanche, daughter of the late Captain Edmund Palmer, R.N.
At Toronto, William Beatty, Esq., J.P., of Omemees, to Miss Margaret Graham, daughter of Henry Graham, Esq., of that city, and formerly of Armagh.
At Glan-Urquhart, Inverness-shire, Major Cameron, 1st Madras Light Cavalry, to Mariann, daughter of the late Col. Hankins, Madras Army.
At Kersall, near Manchester, the Rev. John Charles Ryle, Vicar of Stradbroke, and late Rector of Helmingham, Suffolk, to Henrietta Amelia, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Clowes, of Broughton Old Hall, Lancashire.
At Craigesk, Charles William Cowan, Captain Queen's Regt. Light Infantry Militia, to Margaret, daughter of Robt. Craig, Esq., Craigesk, Newbattle.
At Montreuil-sur-Mer, and afterwards at Boldre Church, near Lymington, Hants, Jules A. Depontre, Esq., to Marianne Isabella, daughter of Major-General Dalton, Royal Artillery.
At Popotunoa, New Zealand, William, son of the Rev. Wm. Morley, Raithby Rectory, Lincolnshire, to Emily Frances, daughter of Thomas P. Boland, Esq., of Pembroke, county of Cork.
At Barbadoes, Richard William Charles Winsloe, Esq., Captain in the 21st Fusiliers, to Constance Edwards, daughter of F. M. Cromartie, Esq., Deputy Superintendent of Military Stores.
At Boolundshuhur, N.W. Provinces, India, Frederick E. Elliot, Esq., C.S., son of Rear-Admiral Sir Charles Elliot, K.C.B., to Marcia Cordelia, daughter of the late Lieut.-Col. John Ralph Ouseley, Bengal Army.

DEATHS.

On Monday, in Cecil-street, of worm fever, aged 8 years, Dora, daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Byrne, and grand-daughter of Mr. John Byrne. She was an interesting child, and is much regretted.
At Parsonstown, Joanna Elizabeth, daughter of John T. Barlow, Esq., of Moate, county Westmeath.
At Coolbanagher, Queen's County, Benjamin Stewart, Esq.
At Blackrock, near Kingstown, Mrs. Maria Lynch, relict of the late Counsellor Mat. Lynch, of Duras Park, in the county of Galway.
At Merchant's-quay, Cork, Ellen, wife of Mr. D. Singleton.
At Mullaghmore, near Dungannon, Joseph M'Clalland, senior, Esq.
At The Rocks, county Kilkenny, Mary, wife of Captain William Oliver Wheeler.
At Eglinton, Roundtown, county Dublin, Fanny, wife of Mr. Richard Meredith.
At Rathmines-road, Dublin, Mrs. Wilhelmina M'Namara.
At Great Brunswick-street, Dublin, Maria, wife of Mr. Joseph M'Mahon, of the Hibernian Gas Company.
At New-street, Dublin, Miss Mary Swift.
At Maynooth, Margaret, daughter of the late Andrew Jonathan Lynch, Esq.
At Corrig-avenue, Kingstown, Eliza, daughter of the late Mr. James Grant.
At Westport, county Mayo, John, son of Mr. John May, merchant.
At Kiltimagh, the Very Rev. Canon Mullarky.
At St. James's-place, London, Major Francis Forester, brother of the late Lord Forester, and uncle of the present peer.
At Brighton, Major Thos. Moubray, late of the 53rd Regt., son of the late Captain George Moubray, R.N., of Greenwich Hospital.
Suddenly, at Torquay, the Rev. Philip Walter Doyne, son of the late Rev. Charles Doyne, of Fennagh, county Carlow.
At Bath, Major-General James Price Hely, K.H.
At Cheltenham, Lieut.-Colonel Edward Ford Hamilton, late of the Bombay Army.
At Tiverton, Devonshire, Edward Penfold, Esq., late of the 12th Royal Lancers.
At Ochtertyre, Sir William Keith Murray, of Ochtertyre, Bart.
At Dresden, Augustus, son of Lady Augustus FitzClarence, and of the late Rev. Lord Augustus FitzClarence.
At Ryde, Isle of Wight, Mary Anne, daughter of the late Rev. James Dyke Molesworth Mitchell, formerly of Lismoy, county Longford.
At Norwich, Colonel William Collyer, Bengal Infantry.
At Tavistock, Thomas Gill, Esq., D.L. for Devon, and formerly M.P. for Plymouth.
At Cefisbrook, Isle of Wight, H. L. Tovey, Esq., surgeon.
At Simonosaki, Japan, James Hawkins Whitshed, Lieut. R.N., son of Sir St. Vincent and the Hon. Lady Whitshed.
At Moral Gwalior, Central India, Captain Urquhart, Paymaster H.M.'s Inniskillings.
At Neemuch, India, Leslie Copeland, Esq., Bombay Civil Service, son of Alderman Copeland, M.P.
At Rangoon, Robert W. Linton, Esq., son of C. C. Linton, Esq., Superintending Surgeon at Bangalore.
At Poona, Bombay, Capt. Robert Maurice Bonner Maurice, 95th Regiment.

FOREST TREES AND EVERGREENS of large sizes for immediate
The above being grown on an exposure kept regularly transplanted, will be complete satisfaction.
Prices on application to The Seed Ware-Ho
23, PATRICK-STREET
A CHOICE COLLECTION OF DUTCH FLORIBAND.
October 30

Abell's Model Range

THE Subscribers having purchased cutors of the late Mr. Abell the his celebrated Kitchen Ranges, tog Patent Right of all the Models connu beg to announce that they will continue the various sizes with the same attent and finish which gained for Mr. Abell of public patronage.
JAMES HOGG AND S

J. H. & S. call special attention Range recently introduced, and su Establishments.
Several Second Hand Ranges to be S 140, George-street, Limerick, 25th Sept., 1861.

Bargains of Gas Lamps

WE will sell our present stock of at and under prime cost.
James H Hardware House, 140, C Oct. 26.

Land Steward.

WANTS a situation as Land Steward much experience in everything the management of an extensive der rate agriculturist and judge of all kin buying, selling, and care of same; is to tradesmen's work in general, married; of the Established Church accountant; can be well recommend employer to any nobleman or gent require his services as a confidential man, who understands his business; Please address to G. B., Stewa Abraham's, Seed Merchant, 8, Geor rick, where any information can be l Oct. 30.

Steward and Gardener

A Married Man wants a Situatio Gardener; would take charge his Wife, and both make themselves If required Advertiser would drive h Apply at Mrs. M'LOUGHLIN's, Th October 30.

Butler, &c.

WANTS a Situation as BUTLER GENERAL INSIDE SERVANT testimonials for honesty, sobriety, quiness will be found most satisfact worthy, and will prove himself usef requiring his services.
Address "Butler," care of Cha Henry-street.