

yn, vice Colonel Higgins, resigned; t Knox, to be Major in the North Mayo ox, deceased; Maurice C. J. Blake, tain in the North Mayo, vice Captain ed; Lieutenant Henry Taaffe Ferrall, in the South Mayo Rifles, vice Blake, ut Annesley Knox, to be Captain in yo Rifles, vice Bingham, displaced; y, Larminie, Harry J. Buchanan, and ne, to be Lieutenants in the South Mayo of Newcastle, Secretary of State for the been pleased to appoint the Rev. John s, of Castlenan, Surrey, youngest son of . T. G. Willis, J.L.L.D., Rector of Kil-Derrygalvin, to the incumbency of St. e, British Honduras, value £500 per reverend gentleman and family sail on oximo in a government West India neir destination.

IN IRELAND.—We call the attention of e public of Limerick to the anniversary e Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Home ociety, as advertised in another column, e usefulness of this society have been ested by its labours in this country for the f a century, and few who have taken the served its workings will deny that Irish a in general has been largely benefited its perfectly unsectarian character it tself to the different classes of the com- in its commendable zeal for the well- people, it has made its way amongst lected populations of rural districts, as e miserable homes of the poor of our wns, sowing largely the Word of Life. on behalf of this valuable society will be V.) to-morrow in their chapel, Bedford- morning at ten o'clock, and in the even- st six o'clock, by the Rev. John White, nd on Monday evening the annual public e held in the same place, when Mr. other ministers will give information reas- present state of the society.

Rev. Lord Plunket has returned to the m.

7 while the congregation were worship- a Parish Church, Belfast, some ruffians vestibule, and proceeded to cut down a e bell rope, with which they proceeded e inner door. They had accomplished e when attention was attracted to their y their having struck the door with a e rope. Three fellows, named Devlin, Mulholland—Roman Catholics residing hbourhood—have been arrested, on a ving taken part in the disgraceful pro-

7 a conference of the Clergy of the Limerick, was held in St. Michael's ided over by the Right Rev. Doctor mediately before the conference there was e dead and high mass for the deceased e diocese. High Mass was sung by the 'Brien, P.P., St. Michael's, assisted by Malone, C.C., St. John's as deacon, and fr. Carroll, St. John's, as sub-deacon. . Moloney acted as master of the cereress of the Convent of the Good Shep- lly acknowledges the receipt of £2 from eutenant of Ireland, per Mrs. O'Gorman. ar.

he exertions of the R.C. Archbishop of the sale of spirituous liquors on Sunday untarily given up by traders.

At Carrigaline Church, county Cork, the Rev. Henry T. Wilmot, son of the late Samuel Wilmot, Esq., M.D., of St. Stephen's-green, Dublin, to Alice, daughter of George Foott, Esq., of Cork.

At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, William Gibton, Esq., of Kingstown, Captain 4th Royal Lancashire Militia, to Letitia, daughter of Thomas Warren White, Esq., Barrister-at-law.

At Monkstown Church, county Dublin, Captain William Hutchinson, son of Commander Hutchinson, R.N., to Anna, daughter of the late Wm. Gibton, Esq., of Gresham-terrace, Kingstown.

At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, the Rev. George Studdert, Rector of Ardee, son of the late George Studdert, Esq., of Sackville-street, Dublin, to Caroline Amelia, daughter of the late Major Priestley, K.H.

At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, George S. Wybrants, of Harcourt-street, Dublin, solicitor, to Mary, widow of the late John Swan, Esq., of Tombrea, county Wicklow.

At St. Mary's Church, Woolwich, Captain William Booth, Royal Horse Artillery, son of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Henry Booth, K.H., 43rd Light Infantry, to Eliza Emma, daughter of the late Major-General Russell, Royal Artillery.

At Twickenham Church, R. B. D. Morier, Attaché to H.M.'s Legation at Berlin, to Alice, daughter of Lieutenant-General the Right Hon. J. and Lady Alice Peel.

In London, Carlo Maurizio Bruno, Secretary to the Minister of War of the King of Italy, to Mary Wimbleson, daughter of the late Edward Horwood, Esq., Weston Turville-Bucks.

At Edinburgh, Major the Hon. James C. Dormer, son of Lord Dormer, to Ella Frances Catherine, daughter of Sir Archibald Alison, Bart., and widow of the late Robert Cutler Ferguson, Esq., of Craigdarroch and Orroland, N.B.

At West-Childerton, Captain Francis J. Slade Gully, Major of Brigade at Saugor, Central India, to Eleanor, daughter of the Rev. Wadham Knatchbull, of Childerton Lodge, Hants.

At the parish church, Clifton, Guy Rotton, Esq., Captain Royal Artillery, and Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel, to Charlotte Mary, daughter of the Rev. Mourant Brock, incumbent of Christ Church, Clifton.

DEATHS.

On Thursday evening, at his residence, Fort Union, Adare, John Christie, Esq., aged 86 years. To the agricultural community Mr. Christie was known as one of the most improving tillage farmers in Ireland, while as a breeder of stock, he obtained prizes at every cattle show throughout the kingdom where he exhibited. The loss of such a gentleman will be severely felt in this country.

October 11th, at Limerick, Ellinor, relict of the late Tenison Lyons, Esq., of Charleston, county Westmeath, aged 82.

Of scarlatina, in Henry-street, on the 28th September, Ada Arabella Goulding, aged 6 years and 9 months.

At Kingstown, Charlotte, daughter of the late Thomas Arthur, Esq., of Glenomera, county Clare.

At Baltimore Castle, county Cork, Mary Jane, daughter of the late John Freke, Esq., J.P.

At Newtown Lodge, co. Cork, Harrison Nason, Esq., M.D.

At Cahir, Margaret, daughter of Mr. John Sampson.

In Nenagh, Mary, wife of Mr. William Mackey.

At Fermoy, Mrs. Ann Condon.

At James's-street, Dublin, John Brennan, Esq., of the Phoenix Brewery.

At Talbot-place, Dublin, Jas. Little, Esq., late of Campsey Mills, county Kilkenny.

At Upper Buckingham-street, Dublin, Helena G. Conolly, widow of the late Glasgow Conolly, Esq., of Mount Prospect, county Leitrim.

At Swords, county Dublin, Thomas, son of R. Gore, Esq.

At Carlow, Charles James, son of Dr. O'Meara.

At Foster-place, Dublin, Alice, the infant daughter of Thos. Eyre Powell, Esq.

At Trafalgar-terrace, Dublin, Mr. Robert Leake, of Southport, England.

At Enniskillen, James Chittick, Esq., solicitor.

At Killukin Rectory, Carrick-on-Shannon, Susanna, widow of the late James Duncan, Esq.

At King-street, St. James's, the Hon. Edward Gardner, son of the first Lord Gardner.

At Melfort Cottage, Argyllshire, Colonel Campbell.

At Taunton, Somerset, Charlotte, wife of Octavius Moulton Barrett, Esq.

At Rottach Tegernsee, Bavaria, William, third Lord Ponsonby, of Imokilly.

At Babbicombe, near Torquay, Captain John Evans, unattached, son of Captain John Evans, of Bath, and late of the Bengal Army.

The Rev. William Henry Hart, M.A., Demy of Magdalen College, Oxford.

At Nairn, Major-General John Grant, late Inspector-General of Ordnance at Bombay.

At Cheltenham, Anne Elizabeth Bennett Ceell, widow of the late Samuel Cecil, Esq., of Dronfield Manor, Derbyshire.

At Farnham, Surrey, May, child of Lieutenant-Colonel the Hon. H. H. Clifford.

At Bedminster, near Bristol, Amelia Anne Gilbert, relict of the late Rev. William John Gilbert, M.A., of Maid's Moreton, Buckinghamshire.

At Allahabad, East Indies, Alice Ann, daughter of Capt. T. Cassidy, Paymaster 90th Light Infantry.

Oct. 12.

Convent of the Good

CHARITY PERFO

MR. FREDERICK MACCA Personator of Character, ness, and generosity, intimated a performance

On Thursday Evening next,

AT THE

NORTHUMBERLAND

For the Benefit of Magdal

Conducted by the Religiouses of Good Shepherd.

Tickets to be had of J. F. O'G street.

Holders of Tickets for the Baz send in the duplicates to the Sup the Good Shepherd, in the course

Oct. 11.

NOTICE

THE GRAND FANCY BAZ

THE MAGDALEN

Clare-Street, Limerick, will take 23rd, and 24th of this Month, in of the Town Hall.

The following are amongst the

A Silver Medal, sent by his Ho

tions of the Cross, a Magnificent C

handsome set of Vestments, a Ch

and Ciborium, a beautiful Chair,

several handsome Ottomans, Ban

Stools, Embroidered Slippers, &c.

The Duplicates of the Tickets ah be called for from the 10th to the October 9.

Franciscan Church,

THE Franciscan Fathers gra

the following additional Su

the improvements being made

Convent:—

John Flynn, brewer

John Hunt, Brunswick-street, ..

Michael O'Regan, Roche's-street

Mrs. Bray, Custom House, ..

Mrs. Kelly, ..

Mr. Hayes, baker, William-street,

Engene Coomey, William-street,

Mr. Hennessy, victualer, Roche's-

Bryan Hanrahan, ..

Small Sums, ..

Wm. Ryan, Grocer, Charlotte's-q

Mrs. Connell, Lock-quay, ..

Mr. Punch, county Clare, ..

Mrs. Enright, county Limerick, ..

James Edwards, Clare-street, ..

John Walsh, grocer, Rutland-stre

Maurice Hurley, Carr-street, ..

Isaac Cooper, Carr-street, ..

Mr. Crowe, ..

Thomas M'Namara, Corbally, ..

Anonymous, William-street, ..

Jeremiah Dowling, Thomas-stre

Oct 12.

APPLICATIONS addressed

Messrs. Hanburys and Lh

bard-street, London, E.C., from desirous of representing a First

Insurance Company, will receiv

Liberal commissions allowed. Priv to Solicitors and others where des

Oct 12.