

sacted may be the Columbia, in the graving yard, ascertained, but character. Several her bottom:—

employed by mer.

invitation from the Mansion onth.

yor of Clonmel, of the Lords of Palmerston in iece of informa-payers:—"The in charge of a ire in it, is not of the caretaker

rd Common Law

eld in the Cork inst Dr. Lee, of ney district, who the illegitimate hich he refused er sought relief m, before whom er to strengthen ve law.

ugh workhouse, rates uncollected house, and Dr. om £100 to £110

at, upon the invi- en will visit Dub-ass farms in the es to a very great vessel, lying at shipmates with a ll not prove mor- diate attention to the assassin was to be dealt with h of July, when r competition:—

sovs., to which p is held by Sir t Sybil. Second o 15 tons. Third 5 sovs. A La- wing gigs belonged will ask power 000, and that the liament on next m Sydney in 80 utta in 95 days.

he corresponding of Epsom Races of £1,748.

is this week show

oor, the Liberal lintshire was 332.

on Monday, the off the roll, for m with informa- t, that he might ctice.

fication, neither did Sir William preach theology from the bench when his duty compelled him to put on the black cap to pass sentence of death and execution upon an unfortunate fellow-creature. No—Sir William was a gentleman, a Christian, and a lawyer, but no religious controversialist. This is the only fault which we have to find with the volume now under consideration, and we merely urge it here to show that the memory of the gentle Sir William is still cherished by many who yet remain, and can say that they had the honour of his acquaintance. On the whole, the work is one of merit and is worthy of a large share of public patronage. London: Warde and Locke, 158, Fleet-street.

A marriage is arranged between Viscount Pelham, eldest son of the Earl of Chichester, and Miss Blight, daughter of Sir John Blight, K.C.B.

Tom Sayers was thrown from a horse in Cushing and Howes' circus, at Gallashiels, in Scotland, and placed hors de combat, but no bones were broken.

On the 18th of June next, Hurst, the Staley-bridge "Infant" is to fight Mace, the late victor in the battle, with Brettle the Birmingham whopper, for the boasted championship of England. £400 aside is to be boxed for. So much for the march of intellect!

Owen Nary, who is what is called a strong farmer. at Tubbercurry, County Mayo, was fined £6 or three months' imprisonment, for having all the materiel for a distillery on his premises.

Limerick and Foynes Railway Company.—Traffic for Week ending Saturday, May 24th 1861.—Passengers, Parcels, &c., £95 5s. 9d.; Goods and Cattle, £36 9s. 1d.; Total, £131 14s. 10d.; Corresponding Week last year, £133 15s. 5d.

The following "Restitution" acknowledgments have been made by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, by the Income Tax collectors, and by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue:—The Chancellor of the Exchequer acknowledges the receipt of the first halves of bank-notes to the amount of £320, on account of unpaid taxes, from "Illuminato;" also of the second half of a bank note and postage stamps for £5 5s. on account of Income tax, from "J. H.;" also of the sum of £2 in postage stamps on account of Income tax, from "E. J." The Commissioners of Inland Revenue acknowledge the receipt from "S.B." of the first halves of banknotes for £55 for unpaid Income tax.

Dr. Mackesy, 75th Regiment, has arrived in Dublin from England.

The recruits of the City Limerick Militia Artillery, numbering 64, are at daily drill at the Castle Barracks, under Sergeant-Major O'Flaherty, and on Wednesday next the full corps will assemble for 21 days' training, under Major the Hon. S. P. Vereker.

The South Mayo Rifles assembled for training at Westport on Wednesday. They mustered 290 rank and file, and 12 officers.

The North Mayo assembled for training on Wednesday at Castlebar. They mustered 485 rank and file, and 13 officers.

The Rev. Messrs. Hartrick and Chester will attend as a deputation, the meeting for the Jews Society, on Monday next.—See Advertisement.

The Presbyterian congregation of the city of Kilkenny presented their Pastor, Rev. James Porter, with a new pulpit gown, and his wife with a handsome piece of drawing-room furniture, as a token of their estimation for them.

The Sisters of the 'Good Shepherd' gratefully acknowledges for use of the Magdalen Asylum, from anonymous per Mr. Mortimer O'Brien, 424 yards of lincie, 75 yards check, 159 yards grey calico, and a lot of thread, &c. Also, 10 pair of blankets, 180 yards printed calico, and 334 yards grey calico.

Esq., son of the late Captain Marlborough P. Berry, and daughter, to Eleanor Letitia, daughter of Simon Foot, Esq., J.P., Blackrock, county Dublin.

In Rathfarnham Church, John Oscar Marr to Annie, daughter of Samuel J. Carolin, and granddaughter of the late Col. Dunkin, R.A.

In Ballymena, Thomas Dill, Esq., to Martha, daughter of William Saul, Esq., Dromore.

Major the Hon. Robert Baillie Hamilton, son of the Earl of Haddington Willoughby, to the eldest daughter of Sir John Pringle.

In the parish church of St. Nicholas, Brighton, Charles Webber, Esq., Lieutenant of the Royal Engineers, to the Hon. Alice Augusta Gertrude Hambury Tracy, daughter of Lord Sudely.

In St. Margaret's Church, Westminster, the Rev. Frederick James Abbott, Chaplain to the Forces, to Harriet, daughter of William Rothery, jun., Esq., of Buckingham-gate, London, and Denbigh House, Haslemere.

At Seven Oaks, New South Wales, Alexander Reid, son of Henry Robert Oakes, Esq., formerly of the Hon. East India Company's Service, to Clara Eva, daughter of the late Peter Lambert, Esq., of Castle-Ellen, county Galway, and Fortick's Grove, county Dublin.

In Calcutta, Christopher George Wray, Esq., son of the late Octavius Wray, Esq., 1st Bengal Fusiliers, to Francesca Maria Sforza, daughter of Henry R. Bagshaw, Esq., Q.C.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday, at Aghadoo, the Venerable Archdeacon Forster, Vicar-General, and Treasurer of the diocese of Limerick—a pious and exemplary clergyman.

On the 29th ult., at his mother's residence, Henry-street, in this city, Henry Evans, Esq., Civil Engineer, sincerely regretted by his family and friends.

On the 28th ult., at Blackrod Parsonage, Lancashire, the Rev. Peter William Browne, incumbent of the parish, only son of John Browne, Esq., Mountjoy-square, Dublin.

At Ballybunnion, at the patriarchal age of 100 years, Francis Creagh, Esq.

At Kilcammon, Enniscorthy, James Patrick Redmond, Esq., Manager of the National Bank, Athy.

In Tralee, Lucy, wife of Mr. John Crosbie.

Thomas William Barlow, Esq., Solicitor to the Board of Ordnance in Ireland.

At Cogue, county Mayo, James Dillon, Esq., J.P.

At Newport, county Mayo, Emily Mary Jane, daughter of the Rev. W. D. Roe.

At Nile-street, Cork, Mr. Isaac Bass.

Suddenly, in Skibbereen, Mrs. Mary Sullivan, at the age of 102 years.

At Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, Francis Johnston, Esq.

At Blackrock, Dublin, Mary Anne Howe, daughter of the late Rev. John Wiggins, Wesleyan minister.

In Rathmines, Miss Harriette O'Brien, of Grafton-street, Dublin.

At Monkstown, Jane Louisa, daughter of the late Henry Cannon, Esq., of Hillmount, county Galway.

Mary Harriet Briscoe, daughter of William Osborne Briscoe, Esq., Garnareagh, county Kilkenny.

At Castledermott, Samuel Richard Carter, Esq., medical officer of that district.

At Mountmellick, Queen's County, Elizabeth, daughter of the late T. Dunne, Esq.

In Newry, Elizabeth, wife of J. W. Belcher, Esq.

In Derry, Sarah, daughter of the late Daniel M'Sheffrey, Esq., Londonderry.

In Cavan, Agnes Theodosia, daughter of Dr. Mark Moore.

In Cavan, Mr. James Reilly, P.L.G., proprietor of the Farmham Arms Hotel, in that town.

At Cremorne, Belinda, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Strain.

At Newtownards, Miss Margaret Huddleston.

In Dundalk, Mr. James Curran.

At Pomeroy, the Very Rev. Dr. Mulgrieve, P.P.

At Richmond, Surrey, Berkeley Isaac, son of Isaac Butt, Esq., M.P.

At Holyhead, Captain Thomas Hirst, marine superintendent of the London and North Western Railway.

At Padstow, Cornwall, Thomas Kent, Esq., Hon. Member of the British Archaeological Association.

At Rochdale, George Ashworth, Esq., J.P.

In London, Elizabeth, wife of Surgeon Berrell, of Moore-place, Kennington-road, and daughter of the late James Hutchinson, Esq., late of Cork.

The Rev. Richard Foley, Rector of North Cadbury, Somersetshire.

At Great Malvern, Harriet, widow of Doctor Alexander Kennedy, formerly Superintending Surgeon Hyderabad Subsidiary Force, Madras army.

At Ramsgate, Ethel Gertrude, the infant daughter of the Dean of Peterborough.

At Madras, Dr. Ramsay Sladen, Physician-General.

At New Steine, Brighton, Timothy Smith, late Commander H.C.S. London.

At Mussoorie, Ensign Summer Merle Binny, Bengal army.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, C. K. Harvey, assistant paymaster Royal Navy.

At Fiery Creek, Australia, Benjamin Barton Thomson, Esq., son of the late Robert Thomson, Esq., of Ravensdale, county Louth.