

J. Anthon, the soldiers presented arms, most lustily. The Prince bowed repeatedly as he drove off in the direction of New-heering was again renewed. He was re-ord Clunecurry and Mr. Cane, directors of ry, who accompanied his Royal Highness. He arrived at five minutes past five at the ge station, where one of the Vice-regal as in readiness to convey him to the Vice-. He was met by Captain Cockerell, mp in Waiting, and Mr. Creyke. Mr. station superintendent, made most judicious its to prevent crowding or crushing as his mess drove off. The Prince and the Lord, attended by a brilliant suite, drove, r seven o'clock, to the Royal Hospital, were the guest of Sir George and Lady al Highness the Prince of Wales arranged e beautiful demesne of Powerscourt on accompanied by his Excellency the Lord. The railway company had made all the rangements, and his Royal Highness left ourt-road terminus at twelve o'clock, Bray a little before one. It was his inten- ch at Powerscourt—on the grass—in the cstyle if weather permitted—and after re- e beauties of the Waterfall and other sur- objects, to return to Bray, stay a few Breslin's Hotel, and leave by train in time e seven o'clock boat for Holyhead.

CIRCUS.—This grand equestrian troupe will r public entry into this city on Monday next, rform in a spacious field on Military-road also on Tuesday, morning and evening. mittee of the Mechanics' Institute thank- owledges the receipt of £1 each from the n. the Earl of Dunraven; the Right Hon. ill, M.P., Major G. Gavin, M.P., in aid of y Fund.

Twig exports have been made from Waterford —For Milford 219 firkins butter, 115 kegs ows, 83 casks porter, 1 do. whiskey, 46 pigs, 230 bales bacon, 3 boxes fish, 20 packages 9 cases eggs; 20 sacks flour. For Bristol, s butter, 90 cows, 30 sheep, 161 pigs, 20 poultry, 10 cases eggs. For Liverpool, ins butter, 110 kegs lard, 7 cows, 52 sheep, l horse, 86 sacks flour. For Milford 216 tter, 60 kegs lard, 36 cows, 172 casks porter hiskey, 60 pigs, 6 horses, 215 bales bacon, 8 , 46 packages poultry, 23 cases eggs, 50 sacks

y nine years the illustrious Duke of Welling-

General Sir Thomas Larcom proceeds on bsence for six weeks, during which the duties ce have been undertaken by Sir Robert t.

Annexed General Order, issued by the Com- Chief in India, and published there on the ion of No. 3 battery 14th brigade Royal Ar- England (now arrived at Woolwich), was ay read on parade to the battery by General rd Dacres, commanding the garrison:—

"No. 119, General Order.

"Head-quarters, Calcutta, March 18.

d battery 14th brigade Royal Artillery's gal- important services in the late campaign in itle it to a special mention in general orders rtature for England.

attery formed part of the column which, under e Sir Henry Havelock, fought its way from d to Lucknow, without tents, in a heavy

DUBLIN.

At Ballymonee, William Alexander Cameron, Esq., Black- burn, Lancashire, to Anne Red, daughter of the Rev. John L. Rentoul.

At St. George's, Hanover-square, London, Major Hugh Hib- bert, 7th Royal Fusiliers, to Sarah Catherine, daughter of Frederick Lee, Esq., of Broadgate House, Devon.

At St. James's, Westminster, the Rev. William Marriner, son of the Rev. John Marriner, vicar of Clapham, Yorkshire, and rural dean, to Jane Caroline, daughter of the Rev. Wm. Wilson, D.D., canon of Winchester.

At the Catholic Church of Our Lady, Grove-road, St. John's- wood, London, the Chevaliere Vigilani, a senator of the King- dom of Italy, and Attorney-General at Turin, to Sarah Corinna, daughter of the late William Harcourt Boys, Esq., of Elford, Kent, and widow of Ambrose Crawley, Esq., E.I.C.S.

At Hordle, Hants, Major Francis Edward Cox, Royal Engi- neers, to Zebec Helen, daughter of Admiral Symonds, of Yeaton, Lymington.

At St. Chad's Catholic Church Manchester, George Edmond Young, Esq., M.D., of Leeds, to Isabella, daughter of James Todd, Esq., Yarm, Yorkshire.

At Nynee Tal, India, John Douglas Sandford, son of the Archdeacon of Coventry, and Under Secretary to Government N.W. Provinces, India, to Jane Georgiana, daughter of the late Rev. Henry Coddington, vicar of Ware, Hertfordshire.

DEATHS.

In John's-square, the wife of Mr. Patrick Howard, mineral water manufacturer.

Yesterday, at his father's residence, Prospect-hill, in this city, after a long and painful illness, aged 16½ years, Edward Mortimer, son of Mr. Thomas J. Cassidy, reporter. The death of this good and promising youth is very much regretted.

This day, in Roche's-street, of consumption, in the prime of life, Jane, wife of Mr. William Southwell, engineer.

In Cork, William Pickells, Esq., M.D., senior physician to the Fever Hospital.

At Lisakeen House, county Tipperary, John, son of Samuel M. Going, Esq., J.P.

At Summer Cove, Kinsale, Helen Isabella, relict of the late John Bullen, Esq.

At Lower Dorset-street, Dublin, John Ray, Esq., of the Registry of Deeds, Office.

At Cullenswood-terrace, Dublin, Henry J. Simullen, Esq.

At Dalkey, the Rev. W. J. Donnelly, C.C., of St. Mary's, Haddington-road, Dublin.

At Tritonville-avenue, Sandymount, Elizabeth, wife of Samuel M'Cormick, C.E.

At Lower Abbey-street, Dublin, Daniel, infant son of Mr. David Murphy.

Mary Anne, daughter of the late Captain Burgess, late of Doroville, county Carlow.

At Tullamore, Celia, relict of the late Thomas Carr, Esq., of Castlebar.

At Castlebar, Mrs. Young, wife of Mr. Davis R. Young, of that town.

At Brighton, William Du Vernet, Esq., late Captain 84th Regiment.

At Brighton, Mrs. Eliza Clarke, of Belfield, county West- meath, relict of the late George Clarke, Esq., of Hyde Hall, Cheshire.

At Canterbury, Mrs. Bentham, widow of the late Lieutenant- General Bentham, Royal Artillery.

At Dover, Alfred Edmund Campbell, infant son of Colonel John Alfred Street, C.B.

At St. Leonard's-on-Sea, Mrs. Peel, wife of the Very Rev. the Dean of Worcester.

At Inverness, John Mackay, Esq., Procurator Fiscal for the county.

In India, General Sir George Barker, commandant of Royal Artillery.

In India, Thomas Richards, Esq., Lieutenant 8th Hussars, son of the late Captain Loftus Richards, of Little Clonard, county Wexford, formerly of the 71st Highland Light Infantry.

At Secunderabad, Lieutenant Robert Dennistoun Macgregor, 17th Lancers.

In India, of cholera, Captain de Winton, 8th Royal Irish Hussars.

In India, of cholera, Lieut. O. M. Glubb, Superintendent Meerut District Police.

In India, of cholera, Lieut. Edward Hardy Hugh Elliott, Bengal Horse Artillery.

In India, of cholera, Lieut. E. A. Elgin, 42nd Highlanders.

In India, of cholera, Doctor J. F. Stewart, Surgeon to the Bhurtapore Political Agency.

In India, of cholera, Captain H. E. Harrington, V.C., Ar- tillery.

In India, of cholera, Mr. William Dalsiel, of the well-known firm of Dalsiel & Co.

On board the Earl Balcarras, off the Cape of Good Hope, Lieutenant Shakespear Campbell Crawford, Bengal Artillery.

At Nassau, New Providence Island, Charles James Chisolme St. Clair, son of the Hon. Captain St. Clair, R.N.

Killed at the battle of Manasses Junction, John Simpson, Lieutenant 4th Alabama Regiment, son of John Simpson, Esq., formerly of Auchnacloy, county Tyrone.

Maurice Danaher, K.L.S., and Enright, P.L.G., Ardagh; Mic John Magner, Tally-ho-Lodge P.R.C., CastleMahon; Florenc and V.C., Newcastle Union, B Barry, Limerick; Eugene S Walsh, Foynes; Cornelius Ear O'Shaughnessy; Patrick Hartig Condon, Wellmount; Michael James Starkey, Toomdeely; Ed John Condon, Lisnaculla Castl allinan Castle; George Bar chael Lyons, T.C., and D.V. Bartholomew Woulfe, Athe Rathrea; John Power, Rathke do.; Michael Nolan, do.; cocera; Michael Ambrose, Ar Frankfort; William Shine Thomas MacNolan, Water Rathkeale; James M'Donne Noonan, Grouse Lodge; Danie James Condon, Ballyhahill; E Mount; Michael O'Connor, Mu M.D., Abbeyfeale; D. B. Hart D. Cusack, do.; A Friend, do. keale; Daniel Leahy, Stokesfe Rathkeale; Michael Crimmi trick Scanlan, Tynees; Da moylan; Patrick Histon, Ward, do.; John O'Conne gerald, do.; John Shaughnes

REPLY

MY DEAR FRIENDS,—With I will not endeavour to conce ordinary degree of pride, I r warm-hearted address, and it ments.

I have truly, for a period o ended your courtesy and frien liberal and warm hospitality, quite unprepared for the fur made in presenting me with s a watch, locket and chain, an some purse containing 45 sov I think on the many public sponded to with so much lib entirely undeserving of such it is only a fresh proof—if ind of the liberality for which you lieve me in sincerity, it is cal regret I feel at having to sep only), from the generous, the minded people of Rathkeale s

In the reference you are services in the establishment I lege to belong, I feel you flatt worth, intelligence, and busin duties of a public office light the simple discharge of them approbation and gained your further source of pride and sa

I have long since made Rat my adoption—I will always time I have spent there amor piest of my life, and while I with which you have this da serve it with an affectionat life, it needs not a glance to friends who have subscrib favours I have received from

I thank you all from my v ness, and remain, my dear fr Your much oblig

RO

September 14.