

flected great credit upon the pupils and their teachers, as well as upon the system of religious and secular instruction imparted in this institution. After the examination premium books were distributed among the children suited to their respective ages and progress.

The Rev. Charles Carroll officiated on Easter Sunday in Newport Church, in the absence of the Rector of the parish, Rev. Michael J. Heffernan,

The Ecclesiastical Commissioners are erecting an iron church at Ourath, near Caher, county Tipperary. The clergyman of the parish received a notice from Captain Rock directing him to look out for a place of rest if the new church trenched on the graves of the ancient families of the district.

The Lord Lieutenant has conferred on the Rev. Francis Briacoe the rectories of Assay and Balloon, in the diocese of Meath, which had been united to the parish of Kilmessan by Act of Privy Council in the year 1855

Jews, Quakers, and Roman Catholics have subscribed largely towards the rebuilding of St. Andrew's Church, Dublin, burned down last year, whilst it is said by Mr. Andrews that the Protestant parishioners have not subscribed as they ought. £1,600 is still wanting to complete the building.

APPOINTMENTS—Diocese of Armagh—Rev. Wm. Hunter Parrett, to the vicarage of Kilbryan, in the diocese of Elphin. Diocese of Ardfert—Rev. Edward Norman, A.M. to the vicarages of Drishane and Nohaval Daly. Diocese of Cashel—Rev. James Lawson, to the union of Kil St. Nicholas; Rev. Thomas Gimlette, to the rectory of Killoteran; Rev. Wm. Fitzgerald, to the curacy of O'Han; Rev. Henry Fry, to the curacy of Tallow. Diocese of Cork—Rev. Wm. C. Walker, to the prebend of Timoleague. Diocese of Ferns—Rev. R. Y. Heathley, to the chaplaincy of Duncannon Fort. Diocese of Ossory—Rev. Samuel Madden, to the prebend of Kilmanagh.

RESIGNATIONS—Diocese of Ardfert—Rev. Edward; Norman, A.M. the rectory of Brosna; Rev. Robert Eagar, the Curacy of Caher. Diocese of Cashel—Rev. James Lawson, the Rectory of Killoteran. Diocese of Cork.—Rev. W. C. Walker, the perpetual curacy of Fermoy. Diocese of Ferns—Rev. James Graves, the chaplaincy of Duncannon Fort. Diocese of Meath—The Rev. J. I. Duncan, the curacy of Drumconra. Diocese of Ossory—Rev. Samuel Madden, the union of Attanta; Rev. Samuel Madden, the prebend of Mayne Rev. Boles Reeves, the curacy of Rosbercon.

The Rev. H. C. Minchin has been promoted from High Cross, Ware, Hert., to a parish in the city of Gloucester.

The Right Rev. Dr. Ryan, ROB. has fixed upon the following days for the distribution of the holy oils in the following Decanates:—Monday, 8th inst. at Rathkeale; Tuesday 9th, at Newcastle; Thursday 11th, at Bruff; Friday 12th, at Limerick.

The Treasurer of St. Michael's Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, thankfully acknowledge the receipt of 5s., from R. O. J., per Mr. J. R. Ballard. The Sisters of Mercy gratefully acknowledge the sum of 1l. from the annual charities of the late Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, of Kilmannane.

Rev. Augustus C. L. Coghlan very thankfully acknowledges to have received from the Lord Bishop of Limerick the sum of 5l. towards the completion of the improvements now in progress in Nantenan Church.

At High Mass at St. Saviours Church (Dominican) in this city, on Easter Sunday, there was an exceedingly numerous and fashionable congregation. The singing by the choir of Farmer's composition was admirable, and reflected great credit upon the vocalists who took part in the Sacred music upon that occasion, the organ accompaniment by Mr. Pierce Garton being, as usual, first-rate.

DEATHS.

On Monday last, from the effects of a severe fracture of the leg, to the great affliction of her attached husband and family, Isabella, wife of John Singleton, of Quinville Abbey, county Clare, Esq.

Yesterday, at No. 10, Mardyke Parade, Cork, James Morgan, Esq., for many years Agent to the Royal Exchange Assurance, and formerly of this city.

On Sunday, the 31st March, at No. 32 Upper Pembroke-street, the house of his son-in-law, H. P. Jellitt, Esq. Sir Mathew Barrington, Bart., of Glenstal, county Limerick, Crown Solicitor for the Munster Circuit, aged 72 years.

On Saturday, the 30th ult., at Crugg, Tulla, county Clare, aged 49 years, after a lingering illness, Anna, widow of the late John P. Molony, Esq. J.P. The death of this estimable lady has caused most intense gloom and sorrow, not only amongst her own numerous and afflicted family and relatives, but throughout the whole surrounding district, where her virtues and unostentatious charities amongst the suffering poor, have earned their lasting gratitude, and secured for her an eternal reward.

March 23rd, of typhoid fever, on board the school frigate Conway, at Rook Ferry, aged 14 years and 8 months, William Nassau Smyth, youngest son of the late Wm. Monnell Smyth, Esq., of Oakwood, King's County. Cut off in early youth, this amiable and promising boy had already secured the esteem of those who knew him; and to mark the respect in which he was held by his shipmates and officers, they accorded him a military funeral, his remains being borne by the ship's crew to Bobington church, followed by 190 of the young cadets belonging to the frigate, with commanding officers, wearing orange on their badges and arms, and all regretting that one so universally beloved should have been so suddenly cut down in the bloom of youth and health.

At Waringfield, county Down, aged 60, Louisa, relict of Peter Lowe, Esq., D.L. of the county Limerick, and daughter of Sir Richard Butler, Bart., of Garryhendon, and Ballintemple, county Carlow.

At Monanelli Queen's County, Elizabeth, wife of John Steele, Esq., and daughter of the late Hon. Eyre Massey.

At Cashel, Sydney Mary Yelverton, daughter of the Rev. Charles Archdall.

At Fort William, county Tipperary, Hannah Maria, relict of the late John Grene, of Cloahiffe, county Dublin, Esq.

Suddenly, the Rev. Thomas Gibbings, Rector of Templecarriga, diocese of Cloyne.

At Carrigtwohill, county Cork, Garrett Barry, Esq.

At South Mall, Cork, Frederick Antonio, son of Frederick A Klein, Esq. C.E.

At Grange Hill House, near Nenagh, Charlotte, wife of John Harte, Esq.

At Baggot-street, Dublin, Felton Frederick William Hervey, Inspector-General of Prisons in Ireland, late Captain 13th Light Dragoons.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, Sarah, daughter of the late Robert Curtis, Esq. formerly of Inan, King's County.

At Kimmage, county Dublin, the wife of P. Regan, Esq.

At Sallymount-avenue, Ranelagh, Henrietta, daughter of the late Rev. C. B. Harrison, vicar of Cashel, county Longford.

At Besborough-parade, Rathmines, Mary, relict of Joseph Glyn, Esq.

In Tuam, county Galway, Ulick Jennings, Esq., son of the late Dr. Jennings.

At Kilkenny, Miss Gorman, sister of the Very Rev. Dean Gorman, P.P., V.G.

At Sandford, county Dublin, Joseph William, son of the late Rev. Hugh Cunningham, incumbent of Meath, Co. Louth.

At Harrybrook, county Armagh, James Harden, Esq., D.L. and J.P.

At Armagh, Alice, wife of William F. Cardwell, Esq.

At Shielstown, county Wicklow, William Kirkpatrick, Esq.

At the College, Marlborough, George Howard, son of the Rev. Edward Brooke, Rector of Drumcooland, county Down.

At Bridge House, Tralee, the infant son of Robert Conway Hurly, Esq.

At the Mall, Tralee, Mr. Maurice M'Carthy.

At Ouragh, near Tullow, county Carlow, Mr. Hugh Kelly, at the advanced age of 103 years.

At Coolreedy, near Castle Connell, Mrs. Ryan, at the age of 103 years.

At Killiane, county Wexford, Bob Bowse, huntsman, at the age of 101 years.

In London, Lady Jane Peel, wife of Laurence Peel, daughter of the fourth Duke of Richmond.

At Brussels, Major-General Robert Blake Lynch, 30th Regt., of Sowberry, county Roscommon.

At Blackheath, Colonel Robert Kearsley Dawson, of the Royal Engineers.

Mary, relict of the late John White, Esq., 12th Royal Lancers and daughter of the late Captain Phillips, of same regt.

At Seetapore, Oude, Lieutenant George R. Salmou, Royal Artillery.

At Meerut, East Indies, Captain Robert Dunmore Napier 8th Royal Irish Hussars.

At Edinburgh, Thomas Nelson, sen., Esq., publisher.

, under the cited feel-
l to publish ing state-
on your tifiable. I ra made by ologies for ndertake to orney and
lishing this
papers, two
GARTY.
30, 1861.
f the Cork
arly inspec-
rison under
with the ef-
evolutions
ich arrived
, under the
deroft, and
w stationed
armed with
hanism, the
h no news-
courate idea,
and appre-
the men of
h took place
ided for dis-
is Gazetted
and Lieut.
e 24th Foot.
ers has died
on was made
for his civil
ch respected
ved at Table
f Feb., from
al Regiment,
ape of Good
of the 87th
ngland, from
on the 12th
is likely to ld Officer of
country once
ut, relieving
e from China
eredith is on
s to embark
t Aldersbott.
from Dublin
goons.
view at Brigh-