

as met with a severe gun accident. He handed his rifle to an attendant who wounded him seriously.

Manchester, of the Inman Line, has returned in consequence of the stress caused by the civil war in the of wrecks during the month of September making a total during the present stern left Queenstown on Saturday, and shored at Milford Haven, to which it sailed at the rate of 10½ knots an hour. It visited the great ship at Queenstown on son of sporting dogs in London, this morning shilling day admission, 4000 persons present, and the judges had to decide on the animals.

never known to be so numerous around are increasing in Ennis at the rate of one per week, and the magistrates and town have called (energetically) the attention of the police to the nuisance.

Notice.

Notice of the Subscribers to the Abington is requested, on SATURDAY, the 19th inst. at the Hotel, Limerick, at 2 o'clock, punctually to settle the accounts and make arrangements for the next year.

(By Order),

R. E. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

NOTICE.

JOHN BERNAL

respectfully to inform Noblemen, Gentlemen, and the Public in general that he will hold his next

THURSDAY AUCTION

FOR THE SALE OF

HORNED CATTLE, SHEEP,

WAGGONS, Harness, Saddlery, &c.,

TRAINING ESTABLISHMENT,

THOMAS-STREET, LIMERICK,

ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30th Instant, at 10 o'clock, before the Horse Fair of the Great Munster Fair.

JOHN BERNAL confidently assures the Public that there will be a large attendance of purchasers from England, Ireland, and Scotland at this fair. Mr. Bouchier attended the fair of Bannascloe, and obtained the promise of the end of the Sale, it will be a great chance for all the Dealers who will be on the spot the day of the Sale.

The fair will be resumed on Friday morning, at 10 o'clock.

Dealers will have the chance of the day on Friday, and the day after for the small lots, to be returned when a Sale is effected.

Notice is given to the owners of Hunters from 4 to 5 yrs. old, suited for Troopers, to be in attendance.

Dealers may supply boxes, stalls and sheds for over 200 horses, on the very lowest terms.

John Bernal,

Auctioneer, Limerick.

October 9, 1861.

At St. George's, Hanover-square, London, Viscount Sandon, son of the Earl of Harrowby, to the Lady Mary Frances Cecil, daughter of the Marquis of Exeter.

At Broomfield, Somerset, Lieutenant-Colonel Tipping, of Davenport Hall, Cheshire, late of the Grenadier Guards, to Flora Louisa, daughter of the late Rev. Nicholas Calvert, of Quentin Castle, county Down.

At Farnham Royal, Bucks, the Rev. Henry Phillpotts, to Jane Maria, daughter of Sir Ranald Martin.

At Edinburgh, John A. Allen, Esq., of Errol, to Barbara Juliana Augusta, daughter of Major the Hon. Augustus Geo. Frederick Jocelyn.

DEATHS.

Oct. 2nd, at Bath, Louisa Grace Anns, widow of the late Rev. Hewitt O'Brien, and eldest daughter of the late Rev. John Hoare, Chancellor and Vicar-General of the Diocese of Limerick.

This morning, at Clonmel, Mary Anne, the beloved wife of Patrick Hayes, Esq., leaving a husband and children to deplore her loss.

On the morning of the 7th instant, after a brief illness, at her residence, Arthur's-quay, Mrs. Haugh, wife of Mr. Michael Haugh. Her earthly career was remarkable for every virtue worthy of the devoted and faithful wife, the affectionate and careful mother, and the obliging and kind neighbour.

At Killeullen, in the parish of Turnafulla, Mr. Maurice O'B. Harnett.

At Sun-lodge, county Cork, Denis Hanan, Esq., M.D.

At Annakissy, Mallow, Charles Roche, Esq.

At Lota Park, county Cork (the residence of her son-in-law, L. W. Beamish, Esq.), Petronella Elizabeth, relict of the late Rev. J. E. Forrstrom, District Rector of the Union of Monkshorpe, Sweden, and sometime chaplain to the Swedish forces in the Island of St. Bartholomew.

At Patrick-street, Cork, William St. John, infant son of John F. Lacy, Esq., C.E.

At Killorglin, county Kerry, Mary, relict of the late Mr. Denis Mahony Leys.

At Ballyadams, Queen's County, Major Edward Butler, son of the late Major-General Sir Edward Butler.

At Clontarf, Mary, daughter of the late Richard Quinton, Esq., of Dublin.

At Merrion, Anne Elizabeth, daughter of the late John Trotter, Esq., J.P., county Down.

At Kingstown, Daniel Francis, son of the late Matthew Pennefather, Esq., of Newpark, county Tipperary.

At Rathgar, Henry Crofton, Esq., Quartermaster-General's Department, Dublin.

At Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, James Kilkelly, Esq., of Drimcong, county Galway.

At the comparatively early age of 46, Wm. Daly, for upwards of twenty years the contra-basso player in the orchestra of the Theatre Royal, Dublin.

At Burgage, county Carlow, Anne, widow of the late Rev. Thomas Mercer Vigors, of Burgage, and rector of Powerstown, county Kilkenny.

Lawrence, the infant son of John P. Hyland, Esq., Castle Blunden, county Kilkenny.

At Cork-street, Dublin, Joseph, son of Mr. Nathaniel Colgan.

In Dublin, Mr. William Brady, of Clones.

At Anglesea-street, Dublin, Mr. Hubert Brady, commercial traveller.

At Holywood, Conolly Sherrard, Esq., of Calender-street, Belfast.

At Lurgan, Samuel Malcolm, Esq.

At Antrim-road, Belfast, Mrs. Elizabeth Doherty.

At Larne, Mr. George Baine, sen.

At Ashstead, Surrey, Mary, wife of Henry Rogers, Esq., some time stipendiary magistrate in the Island of Jamaica, and formerly of Duncannon, county Wexford.

At Broadstairs, Henrietta, infant daughter of Lieut.-Colonel M. Kennedy, Bombay Engineers.

At Slade, near Kingsbridge, Fortescue Wells, Esq., Captain Royal Artillery.

At New Charlton, Kent, Captain E. N. R. Gatehouse, of the Gold Coast Artillery.

At Strachur Park, Argyleshire, Lady Murray, relict of Lord Murray, one of the senators of the College of Justice.

At Portobello, N.B., Anne, widow of Lieut.-Colonel Andrew Hamilton, 16th Regt.

At Bon-Viegem, Lisbon, Alexander Henderson, Esq., of the British Legation.

At St. Kitt's, West Indies, the Ven. Archdeacon Poore.

At St. Germain-en-Laye, Lady Harriet Catherine Williams, relict of Sir John Williams, Knight, a Judge of the Court of Queen's Bench.

At the Royal Observatory, near Cape Town, Mary, wife of Sir Thomas Maclear, F.R.S., Astronomer Royal, Cape of Good Hope.

On passage to Natal, from Cape Town, Staff Assistant-Surgeon Arthur Saltz.

Stools, Embroidered Slippers, &c.

The Duplicates of the Tickets already called for from the 10th to the 15th October 9.

FOR SALE.

TO BE SOLD, the Interest in the House, No. 98, George-street, with Front Parlours, Back and Front 5 large Bed-Rooms, Pantries, Scullery, lighted Kitchen with one of Mr. Ab Range, Patent Water Closets, Show Baths, large Coach House and 8 Horses. The House is in tenanted subject only to the small annual rent of a Lease for 50 years with clause of

For any further information, &c.,

Edmond B

Auctioneer

Oct 2

Valuable Interest for

Mr. BEVERIDGE

IS instructed by the Trustees to sell on SATURDAY, 12th inst. at Two o'clock, p.m., at his Manse, the INTEREST in the tenative Dwelling House, Stores, and Stabling, large back yard, &c., &c., Mr. Edward Goodwin, No. 10, V under lease dated 17th July, 1818 newable for ever, subject to the rent of £35 15s. 5d., and 1s. renewal fine. paid up to 25th March last.

The situation is decidedly the best for any business, and is well worthy of

For any further information apply

EDMOND BEVERIDGE

Auctioneer, V

Oct. 5, 1861.

Policies of Assurance

FOR SALE BY AUCTION

M. B. BEVERIDGE

AT his Commission Mart, 53, SATURDAY, NEXT, 12th

No. 1.—A Policy in the North of £100, and Bonus £6 5s. 0d

1846, with participation of £60, and interest, admitted £4 15s. 5d., paid up to C

No. 2.—A Policy in the English &c., &c. Society for £100

1859, age now 53 years, a premium, £3 8s. 5d.

No. 3.—A Policy in the MUTUAL for £300, effected in November

44 years, admitted premium. The above will be sold immediately interest in the Grocery Establishment, street, is disposed of.

EDMOND BEVERIDGE

Auctioneer, Val

Oct. 9, 1861.

ZADKIEL'S ALMANAC for the fourth thousand; price 6d., containing the War in America. Louis

Warlike Doings in England. The Cumming dissipated, &c., &c.—G street, London; and all Booksellers 5th October.