

me time in the hands of the k that the committee would were closed. From this it h as the letter states, "Life- accident of an hour," the ham's subscription was the ants of the committee, which been of only one month's le proceeding is too obvious tion. M. K.

riots at Chatham was at- but one of them revealed the ing promptly called out, the use there are 296 inmates, and 2147 outstanding rates. re 98 inmates; in Kilrush, rdians have served the neces- legal owners of all the old al division, calling on them to those depositories of the dead, will enter into possession and of the Tuam Guardians there ical dispute, in which Mr the Connaught Patriot, out parliamentary language to- man, the Rev. Mr Seymour, red and a lying clergyman."

ly. 1st and 22nd inst., were well experienced. The winning Fosco, Mr Finucane's Escape Tool.

of Royal Artillery, will arrive e Capt Colclough's, which left regiment; first and second it; fourth battalion, Rifles, to be converted into artillery,agoon regiments are all to be Lancers, and that the three b, 20th, and 21st, will be alpole, of the Rifle Brigade, command of a division in tary riots at Woolwich, the ased to 100 men.

is going forward at the New e Depot Battalion of this gar- nivaliding all soldiers of un- eligible to be retained in the reduction of the army in Irewere fired from the Ajax, at the Pier-head battery, for the Kent.

he Tipperary Artillery (now red the London Police and in the line,

At Agra, Lieut-Colonel Charles Vernon Gubbins, 18th Regt. of Foot, to Norah, daughter of Martin H Gubbins, Esq, Bengal Civil Service.
At Melbourne, Australia, Matthew Dillon Cox, Esq, son of Colonel Cox, 87th Royal Irish Fusiliers, to Catherine Mary, daughter of Edward Bathurst, Esq, late of the Foreign Office.
At St. Kilda, Australia, Captain G T Barksness, 4th Madras Native Infantry, to Charlotte, daughter of the late J Murphy, Esq, Martello House, Belfast.

DEATHS.

On the 23rd instant, at his residence, Rathkeale, to the deep regret of his relatives and friends, Amos Switzer, Esq, aged 85. He departed in the full assurance of a joyful resurrection, through the finished work of his blessed Redeemer.
At the Club House, Galway, Martin Joseph Blake, Esq, D.L., formerly M.P. for Galway county.
A Gowran Castle, county Kilkenny, Edward Golding, Esq, J.P., Agent of the Offidan property.
At Coolmakee, county Cork, Ellen, relict of the late Charles Harold, Esq.
Lilias Newson, wife of John Kearney, Esq, of Cahirmee House, county Cork.
At Stephen's-green, Dublin, in the 70th year of his age, the Right Hon. Richard Wilson Green, late one of the Barons of her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland.
At the residence of the Chief Baron, Stephen's-green, Dublin, Miss Jane Beers, aged 72 years.
At Parsonstown, Jane Coventry, wife of Major Erakine, Paymaster Depot Battalion.
At Philiborough-avenue, Dublin, Edward Augustus, son of the late James Jones, Esq, of North Great George's-street, in that city.
At Kingstown, Ellen, daughter of Morney Coppin, Esq, M.D.
At Bayview-avenue, Dublin, Mr Wm Sherlock.
At Upper Leeson-street, Dublin, Martha, wife of Henry Shaw, Esq.
At Belgrave-road, Dublin, Elizabeth, relict of the late Capt Giles, R.N.
At Harcourt-street, Dublin, Anne, relict of the late Robert Norris, Esq.
At Rockfield, county Wicklow, Eliza, wife of Guy Price, Esq.
At Bantry, Mr John R Jagoe.
In Tralee, Vianna, wife of Mr John S Walsh.
At the Convent of St. Clare, Harold's Cross, Sister Mary Ignatius, daughter of the late Luke Duffy, Esq, of Greenogue, county Meath.
At St. Columba's College, Sarah Louisa, widow of Thomas Callan, Esq, of Ballinasloe.
At Waterloo-road, Dublin, Helena, daughter of the late Patrick Owen Cogan, Esq.
At Derby-terrace, Dublin, Penelope Anne, infant daughter of William Anderson, Esq.
In Dublin, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Richard Cahill, Esq, merchant of that city.
At Lisnare House, Eyrecourt—John Kenny, Esq.
At Gorteen House, county Wexford—James Fanning, Esq.
At Ballyorley, county Wexford—Mary, relict of the late John Goff, Esq.
At Sandymount, Dublin, Joshua Phillips, Esq, late of Drim- daly Lodge, county Meath.
At Finglas, the Rev. Edward J Evans, vicar of Kilbroney, Rostrevor.
At Kandy, Ceylon, Archibald Taylor, son of the late George Taylor, Esq, of Lissonfield, county Dublin.
At Strathalby, South Australia—Sarah, relict of R Mathews, Esq, formerly Postmaster of Kilkenny.
At Boulogne, Charlotte Elizabeth, wife of Major Wm Verner, Royal Antrim Artillery.
At Woolwich, Mary, widow of the late Major Bentham, Royal Artillery.
At Ouaragit, N.B, Sir James Dalrymple Hay, Bart.
At Clapham, Ann, relict of the late Captain Dawson, of Ditton, Surrey.
At Cheltenham, Thomas Fishburn, Esq, Justice of the Peace and Deputy Lieutenant for Yorkshire.
At Kensington—Herbert Williams, son of Colonel Nicholas Palmer, late 60th Regt.
At St. George's-road, Pimlico, the house of her brother-in-law, Captain Jervis, MP, Mary, wife of the Rev. John Jervis White-Jervis.
At Manchester, Adelaide, wife of John Reid, Esq, Agent to the Bank of England, in that city.
At Emsworth, Margaret, wife of Major-General Anderson Gibson, R.M.A.

RESIDENCE A TO BE SOLD, BY AT ROYAL MART, IN IN THE TOW ON SATURDAY, THE 6T

JOHN CHAR HAS received instruction Esq., who is going on SATURDAY, the 6th in Ennis, the Interest in Lands of CAPP, contain measure. A large sum expended in making the Gentleman's family; as a claimining and improving Excellent heart, with good land; it is an excellent dai This House and Demetur lives renewable for ever, the Market Town of Enni mile of the Mail Coach Ro part of the County, and a bourhood. Full particula mence at 2 o'Clock. The date possession of the Lan before the 1st MAY, as soo ture are disposed of. Priv may be closed with up to t

Terms—Cash, or appro with the usual commission JOHN CHARLES

March 14, 1861

CLOUNRIE NEAR AS

JOSEPH HAS received instructi Esq., (who is givin Public Auction, at

CLOUNRIE

On THURSDAY, 20 Highly bred In 6 Prime In-calf E all bulled by a Thorough Dairy Utensils.

Mr. CASEY begs to breeders and Farmers to The Cows are descended Phoenix and Pasha. (To at Auction).

They are all in Calf to Owen, of Blessington, got (10994), dam Empress (10991), g. d. Buttercup Provost (4846), g. g. d. Sale at 1 o'Clock.—Ter

Rathkeale, March 20, 1 March 23