

Lower Hamlets Militia.
 e West Cork Artillery is to assemble for training
 insale on the 5th June next.
 e Royal Tyrone Fusilier (Militia) have been orl to Euniakillen. Tyrone Artillery to Charlemont
 he South Downs to Newry.
 e Carlow Rifles are to be called out on the 28th nt.

ie Londonderry Light Infantry will assemble on 5th June, for twenty-four days' drill.
 ie Prince of Wales' Donegal Artillery will as-de at Letterkenny on the 10th of June, for twenty-n days' training and exercise.

. Maunsell, Esq., thankfully acknowledges the pt of £1 from Mrs. Caswell, Blackwater, for erick Protestant Orphan Society.

ne Rev. B. Jacob thankfully acknowledges con-tions from the congregation of Trinity amounting 9l. which he has lodged in the Provincial Bank account of the Indian Famine Relief Fund ; 2l. from Mrs. Quinlan, in aid of the blind, and
 s Lady Fitzgerald, Captain Lowe, and J. R. enthard, Esq. Seaham, by Miss Bernard, 1l. each
 the Ragged Schools.

he Dean of Ossory and Mrs Vignoles have left the enery for England.

large and highly influential meeting of the gentry respectable farmers of the neighbourhood of ghgall was held in the market-house of the town
 Wednesday, for the purpose of forming a Protest-Defence Association in connection with the pre-society in Armagh. The committee, secretary, and urer were appointed, sixty-five members were ened, and the petition to Parliament praying for in-ry into the recent trial at Armagh and the removal
 the proclamation was numerously signed.

otwithstanding the largely deficient harvest of last r which tended to the depressure of the people's as to the amount of millions, yet the contributions various societies were, if at all, very little affected.
 Baptist Missionary Society received 33,000l. ; the ebyterian do., near 150,000l. ; the Church Missionary iety, 125,000l. ; the Primitive Methodist, about 000l. ; American Missionary Society, 54,000l.

The Mayor presided on Sunday at a meeting held Saviours Church (Dominican), to promote a coltion for repairs and improvement of the edifice.

RESTITUTION MONEY.
 City Limerick Marshalsea,
 May 7th, 1861.

Received from the Rev. D. Fitzgerald, St. Mary's spel, a small amount of money, out of which I was frauded in the year 1852.

R. P. POWER.

David Fitzgerald, Treasurer of the fund for roofing Remptoriest Church, Mount St. Alphonsus, erick acknowledges the receipt of 50l. from the entor of Miss Mary Fitzgerald late of Glentworth-est being her bequest in aid of said fund.
 The Dublin E. Post states that Sir Charles Domville, rt., has embraced the Roman Catholic religion.
 The Right Rev. Dr. McGettigan, R.C.B. of Raphoe
 at Rathmullan, on the 1st inst., in the 84th year
 his age.

Dublin Recruiting District, to Annie Willis, daughter of the late Major McPherson, 2d West India Regt.
 At Hamilton, Canada West, Mr Joseph T Bayers, of London, to Addie Jane, daughter of the late Joseph B Eger, Esq, of Blessington, county Wicklow.
 At Gibraltar, Musgrave Watson, Esq, 7th Royal Fusiliers, to Mary Glasgow, daughter of James Thompson, Esq, Hansatic
 Consul at that place.

DEATHS.

May 5th, at Lisowen, county Limerick, in her 83rd year, Elizabeth, relict of the late John Dawson White, Esq, of Lisowen, J.P for counties of Limerick and Tipperary.
 Yesterday, at Rathlooba, county Clare, after a few hours' illness, John Bridgman, Esq, eldest son of the late Capt. Henry Bridgman. The hospitality of character and frankness of manner, for which the deceased gentleman was remarkable, will make his death a subject of very great regret to his numerous friends and acquaintances.
 In Dublin, on the 2nd instant, at an advanced age, Miss Hickman, Kilmore House, Knock, county Clare
 On Sunday last, at Newcastle West, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Brien, relict of the late Mr John O'Brien. She was a most exemplary wife, a good mother, an excellent Christian, and a true friend, and her death is sincerely regretted by all who shared her friendship.
 At the Cape of Good Hope, Peter Charles Aylward, Esq, youngest son of the late Nicholas Aylward, Esq, of Shankill Castle, county Kilkenny.
 At Cashel, the Rev. John Williams, Wesleyan Minister.
 At Killard, Nenagh, Edward Minnitt, Esq.
 At Birr, Henry S Booth, the infant son of the Rev. Thomas Booth.
 At the residence of his son, the Rev. David Brownrigg, Ca-molin, county Wexford, John Thomas Brownrigg, Esq, late of Barndown, same county.
 At Sandymount, Dublin, Mr John Bergin, proprietor of the Angel Hotel, in that city.
 At Talbot-street, Dublin, Anthony M'Gulloch, Esq, for many years in the Bank of Ireland.
 At Clontarf, Mary, daughter of the late Edmond Connell, Esq, landing surveyor of her Majesty's Customs, Dublin.
 In Dublin, James Edington Millar, Esq, son of the late Geo.
 Millar, Esq, of Kirkaldy, Fifeshire.
 At Rathmullan, county Donegal, the Most Rev. Patrick M'Gettigan, R.C. Bishop of Raphoe. He was the oldest bishop in Europe.
 At Bray, Carroll M Hopkins, Esq, son of the late William Hopkins, Esq, of Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin.
 At Spring Garden-parade, Dublin, John Donnelly, Esq, late of the 2nd Royal Veteran Battalion.
 At Percy-place, Dublin, Mrs Anna Grant, daughter of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Owen Lloyd, of Rockville, county of Roscommon.
 At Blackrock, Dublin, Mary, relict of Joseph Humphreys, a member of the Society of Friends.
 At Athlone, Josephine, daughter of Mr Joseph Macnamara.
 At Portstewart, Hugh Williamson, Esq.
 At Dungannon, the Rev. Edward Power, formerly Curate of Drumglass, county Tyrone.
 James Wynne, the celebrated Irish jockey, aged 23 years.
 In Carlow, Mr John B Edwards.
 At Roscarbery, Catherine, relict of Thomas Hungerford, Esq, solicitor.
 Mrs Isabella Babington, Greenfort, county Donegal, relict of the late Captain Humphry Babington, same place.
 At Donegall-street, Belfast, Mary, the infant daughter of Dr Halliday.
 At Coleraine, Elizabeth, relict of the late Robert Anderson
 Esq, of Articlave
 At Dartford, Kent, Eliza A Vigora, widow of N A Vigora
 Esq, M P.
 At Milnegradon, county of Berwick, Margaret, wife of the Hon. A F Cathcart.
 At Thurston Hall, Lient-Colonel Glegg.
 At Upper Berkeley-street, London, Edith Mary, daughter of the Rev. Lionel Carden.
 At Havre, Mary Clare, daughter of Robert G Moore, Esq, formerly of Dublin.
 Suddenly, at Eastport, New Brunswick, William K Bradley
 Esq, M.D. son of Jonathan Bradley, Esq, of Castlecomer, Co Kilkenny.
 At Torquay, Maria, daughter of the late Major James Conway Travers.
 At Natal, Captain John Althorpe, 85th Light Infantry.