

used him to throw up a consider-
d.

SECOND DAY.
£8 each. £40 added by the com-visiting Nenagh. One mile and ver the steeple chase course.
Margaret, 9st 6lb ... 1 1
9st 4lb ... 2 2
ng, 9st 12lb ... 3 0
ran, but were not placed.—Mr.
6 years. 10st 10lb; Mr. King's 9st 10lb; Mr. Longheed's Roe-Dillon's Irish Queen, 8st 7lb;
ing, 9st.
seen Miss Margaret and Rose. The "strike" amongst the handloom oghedra for an advance of wages.

terly meeting of the Wexford Cor-ty, a memorial was adopted to the n favour of the charter for the A petition to Lord Palmerston
the Galway subsidy was adopted

THE COUNTY CAVAN.—A tragic d the peaceful neighbourhood of e morning of Wednesday last,
g to brothers by marriage; Pat-y, residing in adjoining houses at e, commenced fighting. Their their respective house to separate ed a grape fork, for the purpose, ling both dogs, when Reilly used
which irritated the excited Cahill, him, and drove the sharp-pointed brain, causing his victim's instan-hill immediately fled, but on Satursurrendered himself to Mr. John ate in the neighbourhood. Bad
g between the families of these two sufficed to lead to this tragical ill was always deemed a harmless
d was generally a favourite amongst er's inquest produced the verdict effects of a wound inflicted by a

OS.—Our Dunmore correspondent ise is due to those landlords in that ng meal to their tenantry at first ery other charge, until Christmas.
benefactors of the poor are—Sir
Mrs. Kilkelly, Mossfort; Richard
rule; and Walter Bourke, Esq., Herald.

ess of white females over males in 263, and the excess of negro females sent time the excess of females over k is about 50,000.

THE BANQUET.—The principal dish
entertainment will consist of Bubble will be supplied by the speaker them-hly rhodomontade of their speeches,
ll be furnished by Smith O'Brien ed cabbage-garden, which he has very leaf, leaving himself scarcely a future occasion. However this so much matter in this instance, as is not one of those Irish patriots safety to say, "unaccustomed as I aking."—Punch.

county Dublin.
At Milton-next-Gravesend, Stanley John Lowe, Esq., Capt.
25th Regt., to Annie, daughter of W. G. Dobson, Esq., of Gravesend.
At Albury, Surrey, Thomas Goldie Dickson, Edinburgh, to
the Hon. Louisa Charlotte Addington, daughter of the Rev.
Viscount Sidmouth.
In London, James Allan, son of the Rev. J. S. Wiggott, of Allanby, Berks, to Caroline Frederica, daughter of the late General D'Oyly, Colonel 33rd Regt.
At Hove, Brighton, Major Percival Robert Innes, H.M.'s
Indian Army, to Mary Carne, daughter of the late Archibald
C. Ross, M.D., of Madeira.
At St. Leonard's-on-Sea, Captain A. A. Currie, H.M.'s Indian Army, to Emily Louisa, daughter of the late James Mac-Gregor, Esq., formerly M.P. for Sandwich.
At Old Brompton, Horatio Pettus Batcheler, Captain 73rd Regt., to Laura Louisa, daughter of W. C. Wryghts, Esq., of Rich Lodge, Old Brompton.
At St. Mary's Church, Woolwich, William Frederick Rowe, Esq., Master R.N., to Felicia Elizabeth, daughter of Commander Budgen, R.N., Woolwich.
At Corfu, John Ralph Carr, Captain 4th (K.O.) Regt., to Emily Anne, daughter of the late Captain Henry Pearson Stockley, Bombay Army.

DEATHS.

At Cashel, in the 89th year of his age, Richard Butler
Hamilton Lowe, Esq., D.L., formerly of Kenilworth, county
Tipperary, and of Beyview, county Waterford. He was High Sheriff of Tipperary in the year 1800.
In High-street, Mr. Richard Ballard, aged 82 years, an old and respectable inhabitant.
At Newcastle West, Mianna, the beloved child of James O'Ryan, Esq., Provincial Bank, aged 4 years.
At Densary, William Young, sen., Esq., aged 92 years.
At Upper Leeson-street, Dublin, Capt. Alexander Brennan, R.N., one of the few survivors of the memorable battle of Trafalgar.
At Kenure Park, county Dublin, Mary Matthews, daughter of the late John Matthews, Esq., of Eyarth, Denbighshire, and sister-in-law of Sir Roger Palmer, Bart.
At Leinster-road, Rathmines, Anne, relict of the late Wm.
Neilson, Esq., of Dublin, solicitor.
At Clanbrassil-place, Dublin, William Beasley, Esq.
At Blackrock, county Dublin, John, son of Valentine O'B.
O'Connor, Esq.
At South Frederick-street, Dublin, Mr. Richard P. Petersen,
for many years connected with the University press.
At Rathgar-avenue, Dublin, Henry Gore Carolan, Esq.
At Mount Pottinger, Belfast, William Bart, Esq., Commander Royal Navy.
At Easton-square, London, Elizabeth Bowles, relict of the late William Bowles, Esq., of Dublin.
At Athens, the Right Hon. Sir Thomas Wyse, K.C.B., Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary
at the Court of Athens.
At Rathlin Castle, Denbighshire, Frederick Richard West,
Esq., son of the late Hon. Frederick West.
At the Vicarage, Isle Brewers, Joseph Wolff, D.D., LL.D., vicar of Isle Brewers.
At Penshurst, Kent, Lieut.-Colonel Henry Lee, late of the 15th Hussars.
At Aspley, near Woburn, Sarah, widow of the late Rev.
Boteler C. Smith, of Aspley.
At Stoke, Devonport, Elizabeth, wife of Admiral Mends.
In London, Mary Ann, wife of Sir Matthew Wyatt, of Hyde-park-square.
At Radnor-place, London, Eliza Serena, widow of Major-General Robert Sewell, and daughter of the late Sir Francis
W. Macnaghten, Bart.
At Haughton Hall, Cheshire, Captain Charles Hugh Key,
late of the 2nd Dragoon Guards.
At Cotton House, Warwickshire, Lady Skipwith.
At Trinity-square, London, James O. McWilliam, Esq., Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians.
The Rev. Charles Lloyd, Student of Christ Church, son of the late Right Rev. Charles, Lord Bishop of Oxford.
At Clifton, Jane Grant, widow of the late Col. Chandler, of Nicolet, Canada.
At Heacham, the Rev. Robert Couper Black, rector of St.
Dunstan's-in-the-East.
At Liverpool, Thomas Thornely, Esq., late M.P. for Wolverhampton.
At the York Hotel, London, Mary Erelina, infant daughter of Lord and Lady Scarsdale.
At Lowndes-square, London, Henrietta, daughter of Sir
Adam Hay, Bart., of Hayston, Pembrokeshire.
At Park-crescent, London, Charles Hammeraley, Esq.
At Treshurst, Sussex, Jonathan Childs, Esq., son of Wm.
Childs, Esq., of Kinet Hall, Shropshire, and formerly Capt.
in the 13th Royal Lancers.

Contain German and other deistean,
paliasses, bolsters and pillows, blankets
carpets and rugs, blinds, toilet tables ar toilet glasses, chamber ware, wartr drawers, towel airers, chairs, commo fenders and steels, &c.

THE PANTRY

Contains dinner ware, morning and ev
vices, cut glass, tumblers, champagne, glasses, caraffs, butter coolers, pickl
glass, dish covers, &c., &c.

THE KITCHEN

Contains every requisite for a respect quantity of out-door effects, consisting plements, ladders, wheel barrows, and too numerous to insert within the limi tissement.

Sale at 12 o'Clock.

PATRICK COLE
Auctioneer, Va

Limeri

(Not Five Minutes walk from the R

V.

THEATRE ROYAL, LIME

MR. T. C. KING

MAKES the present appeal or daughter and himself, with collection fresh upon him of the man from time to time at the hands of tl
the Garrison, and of the Citizens of l

Under the immediate Patro
COLONEL BORTON, C.B., AN
OF THE GARRIS

BENEFIT OF MISS BESS

On FRIDAY EVENING, May 9th
formances will commence with Sir E Lytton's Play,

The Lady of Ly
Or, Love and Pride.

Claude Melnotts..... Mr. T.
Pauline Deschappelles..... Miss I

To be followed by an Irish Jig and S
by Master HENRY KIN

After which, Monsieur D'ETARD, der, will give his Extraordinary Le One Hundred Feet, the performan already produced a marvellous sens
as well as in every other place
Wonder has visited

To conclude with the renowned
The Wonder,

Or, a Woman keeps a se

Don Felix..... Mr. T
Violante..... Miss I

Doors open at 7 o'clock, performances
half-past 7 precisely Private Boxes, £2 2s., and £1
Stalls, 2s. 6d.; Pit, 1s.; Gallery, 6d.
Half-price at 9 o'clock—Boxes, 1s