TIPPERARY FLOWER SHOW.—The Spring of flowers, fruits and vegetables, took place day, in the gardens of the Tipperary H Society. Under the care of Mr. Flynn, th are much improved, and had the weather pu propitions, the show would have proved successful. But April was in a capricious the sunbeams of the forenoon were succede showers, which kept at home many who l forward to this day with pleasureable an Still the attendance was numerous and fa the show of flowers was as usual, excellent and the band of the Tipperary Artillery most eloquent music, and added to the at the scene.

FREEMASONRY.—I have ever felt it my d port and encourage its principles and practi it powerfully develops all social and benev tions; because it mitigates without and within the virulence of political and theol trovbery; because it only affords the or ground on which all ranks and classes c perfect equality, and associate without or mortification, whether for purposes of struction or social intercourse—Earl of Du
