

not guilty were pronounced, there is burst of applause, which the judges attempt to check. received the announcement without motion.

Clonmel Tuesday Night. report on this evening by sending, per telegraph, the result of the two days, which was an acquittal of the pri- I shortly told you, that announcement with frantic enthusiasm on the part of and throughout the town nothing could but people running about, as if mad, if wild, with joy. As soon as Hallo- accompanied by his brother, appeared in out of the court-house, he was lifted on the men, and, in this way, conveyed multitude to the main guard, where a car from Cashel was pressed into the ned into a triumphal chariot, on which last two days was placed, under green en of his victory over the Attorney- e whole power of the Crown!—in this aded through the town, accompanied : mass of people, cheering after the pe- of the gallant and impulsive "Tipe"; ng thus chaired and cheered, he was s hotel in Johnstone-street, where he his friends and acquaintances until a before the door of which an immense and fire-works amused the spectators; ard; another bonfire of gigantic magni- fished. In truth, the whole town was n of by the populace, who, beyond yell- ng, burning tar-barrels and disturbing the night, did no other harm; and to- n of morning, all became quiet—the its matinal serenity.

WEDNESDAY.

OPENING OF THE SPECIAL COMMISSION.

morning the judges sat at 10 o'clock, and nd Solicitor-General, with Mr. Sergeant t the other Crown council, being in at-urke charged with the murder of his ng, was placed at the bar. Mr. John- for a postponement until the assizes, as ary to institute enquiries as to several had recently made depositions, and also sistance of a chemist.

ey General did not oppose the applica- the Crown was ready to proceed, and us of great social importance.

ations were made by the Attorney Gene- dges in reference to the imperative duty ive to the issue of the Special Commis-

s trial proceeded it would have occupied

ey General said he would soon inform ether the Special Commission would be merick on the 1st of July.

left for Dublin by 9.45 mail train from

g establishment of the famous Messrs. o., in Clonmel, is now a large saddlery

At Oxford, the wife of Professor Kelleston, of a son.

At Cambridge House, Cheltenham, the wife of Major R. C. Barnard, of a son.

At Guildford-road, South Lambeth, London, the wife of Mr. Edwin James, of a daughter.

At Eaton-square, London, the wife of George Douglas Pen- nant, Esq., of a daughter.

At Roy Barelly, Oude, the wife of Lieut. George Malcolm, 34th Regt., of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At the parish church, Ettagh, near Roseres, Septimus Sherson Connell, Esq., Captain 21st Fusiliers, son of James Connell, Esq., of Eakdale House, Dumfriesshire, to Sarah Annie, daughter of the late Colonel Hardress Lloyd, of Gloster, King's County.

In Killecrohane Church, by the Rev. A. V. Watson, A.M., T.C.D., Mr. Thomas Hosbonds, of Brook Villa, to Mrs. Arabella O'Sullivan, of Sheem.

At St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, Thomas Sadleir Brereton, Deputy Assistant Commissary General, son of the late Thomas Brereton, Esq., R.M., to Frances Gertrude, daughter of the late Edward Townley Hardman, Esq., M.D.

At St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, William Stafford, son of the late Andrew Barrett Wallace, Esq., to Louisa Douglas, daughter of the late Captain R. Marshall, of London.

At St. John's, Paddington, Captain Brenchley, late of the 31st Regt., to Margaret, daughter of the late Alex. Stewart, Esq., Cambridge-square, Hyde-park, London.

At Stoke Prior Church, Worcestershire, William Staunton Pierson, Captain Bengal Staff Corps, son of the late Rear-Admiral Sir William H. Pierson, to Georgiana Katharine, daughter of the Rev. Harcourt Aldham, vicar of Stoke Prior.

At Weston-super-Mere, F. W. Baedeker, Esq., of Witten, Westphalia, Prussia, to Ann Jane, widow of Captain Alexander H. Ormsby, Gifford, county Down, and daughter of the late Captain Leigh Lye, Bath.

DEATHS.

At No. 2, Wellington-terrace, on Tuesday night, aged 55 years, after a protracted illness, Brevet-Major Wm. Burden, late 9th Regt. The deceased was stationed in this garrison for the last six years, and was much esteemed by the officers of the 17th Depot Battalion. His remains will be interred with full military honours on Saturday morning next, at 9 o'clock.

At Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, Elizabeth Newenham, daughter of the late John W. Trousdell, Esq., Comptroller of H.M.'s Customs, Belfast.

At Middle Gardiner-street, Dublin, John Thomas, son of James Blaquiers, Esq.

At Bellfield Lodge, Dundrum, Cornelius Shannon, Esq., of Mount Brown, Dublin.

At William-street, Dublin, Richard Allwood, son of Mr. William Macdona.

In Dublin, Samuel Hutchins, Esq., of Ardnagashel, county of Cork.

In Dublin, Margaret, relict of the late Henry Smyth, Esq., of that city.

At Boebuck, Dublin, Patrick Scott, Esq., solicitor.

In Waterford, Nicholas Hayes, Esq.

At Plymouth, Edward Falconer Myles, Assistant-Surgeon H.M.S. Donegal, son of Falconer Myles, Esq., of Sandford, Dublin.

At Oxford-terrace, London, Margaret, wife of the Hon. John C. Erskine.

At Hemsted-park, Kent, Jane Isabel, daughter of Gathorne Hardy, Esq., M.P.

At Eaton-square, London, Anne, wife of Edward Greaves, Esq., M.P.

At St. Asaph, Lieut.-Colonel Herbert Watkin Williams Wynne, M.P. for Montgomeryshire.

At Almond-street, Liverpool, the Rev. David Williams, Wesleyan Minister.

At Edinburgh, Dame Mary Wightman Ker, widow of the late Sir James Spittal, of Justice Hall.

At Berkeley-square, Bristol, William M. Bannatyne, Esq.

At Kensington, London, Alexander Macrae, Esq., M.D., Surgeon 97th Regt.

At Sisle, Sophie, wife of Patrick Hunter, Esq., Captain 82nd Regiment.

At Hobart Town, Tasmania, Denis Jachin, infant son of Major Eagar, Assistant Adjutant-General.

At Corinth, Mississippi, U.S., Lieut. William Buchanan, 47th Tennessee Regt., son of the late John Buchanan, Esq., of Lisboy, Omagh, county Tyrone.

At Halifax, Nova Scotia, Martha Anne, widow of the Rev. Archibald Gray, D.D.

containing about Seventy Acres, of which 60 acres are in Grass & remainder is planted with Oats & the tenant declared, can have at valuation. Immediate possession is a good Farm Dwelling, Mr. on the Lands, which are situate Ennis, four miles of Kildysart, miles of the market and post town

For further particulars, apply

TYRRELL D.

Shannon View

THE PROVI

Catherine-stree

June 26.

To be Let, Fu

FROM 1ST JULY

(By the Month, or, for

GREGG LOI

Lahinch,

FULLY Furnished, and conta ing-room, and 4 Bed-roo accommodation, Stabling, Coach-Vegetable Garden, and Turf, wit Horse, if necessary.

Apply to I

Gregg

June 21.

Cahirncee I

HUNTERS, CARRIAGE B

TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION

JULY 12th [Prox., at

36, George's-street, Cork, Seve

trained, weight-carrying HUN

of R. TONSON RYE, Esq., ow

Fox Hounds, parted with solely ening the Hunting Establishm

dark Bay CARRIAGE HORSE

Brougham.

At the same time the prop

Esq., the Chestnut Mare "T

thorough-bred, a highly-trained speed, has been carrying it at seasons.

Also several other first-clas

Horses, Cobs, &c.

WM. MARSH &

N.B.—Sale to commence at 1

Contract

BARRINGTON'S HOSPITA

LIMERICK INFI

SEALED Proposals will be r

of the following Articles

Months from July:—

Proposals to be sent to the o'clock, on Thursday, 3rd July.

Best White Bread, ... Per 4lb

Cutlins, ... Per S

Coal—Best Orrel, or Wallsend,

Conditions to be known at the