35 men of the 18th Regiment, under Ensigns Bradley and Haith, embarked this week at Waterford, and proceeded to join their regiments in India.

On Wednesday the troops at the camp at the Curragh and at Newbridge were reviewed by General Sir George Browne. The soldiers were under arms shortly after ten o'clock, and were drawn up in line in front of the encampment. The force on the ground amounted to near seven thousand, consisting of two batteries of horse artillery and three field batteries, the 4th Dragoon Guards, 3rd Hussars, 11th Hussars the second battalion of the 12th Regiment, the 36th, 58th, and 87th, 11th (1st battalion), second battalion of the 18th and 86th regiments. The Commander of the Forces having attended by his staff, rode along the lines, after which a series of evolutions were gone through with admirable order and precision, the review terminated after two o'clock, when the troops marched to their respective quarters. The day was most favourable. The attendance of visitors was most numerous.

REV. BENJAMIN JACOB.—There was a meeting at the Protestant Orphan Hall yesterday, the Mayor in the chair, to consider the address and testimonial to be presented by the congregation of Trinity Church, in this city, to the Rev. Benjamin Jacob, their late revered and estimable Incumbent, who has been appointed to the living of Parteen, near this city, and who is now on the Continent for the benefit of his health, which, we trust, may be renovated and renewed for a long life. It appears by the statement of Mr. R. Russell, yesterday, that it was in deference to Mr. Jacob's feelings that the meeting was not held until his departure to the Continent. We understand that over £200 have been already contributed by this grateful congregation for a testimonial to this truly deserving minister of the Gospel.

The Rev. Thomas Cather Maguire, of Dublin (late of this city, where his ministry afforded such gratification), will preach (d.v.) to-morrow, at 10, a.m., and at half-past 6, p.m., in the Methodist Chapel, Bedford Row.

The Treasurer of the Protestant Orphan Society thankfully acknowledges the receipt of one guinea from Thomas Prossor, Esq., as foreman of a jury; also seven shillings from James Harris, Esq., for the same charity, as foreman of a jury.

The sittings of the Wesleyan Methodist Annual Conference commenced yesterday at Calbourne, in Cornwall. The Rev. President was elected by 280 votes; the Rev. Dr. Osborn received 24, and the Rev. W. L. Thornton, 22. The Rev. John Farrar was elected secretary by 225 votes.

Monday next being the feast of St. Dominic, founder of the order of preachers, will be a day of special devotion in St. Saviour's Church, in this city. There will be High Mass with select music at 11 o'clock, and the panegyric of the Saint will be preached at the last Mass on Sunday.

The Community of the Good Shepherd very gratefully acknowledge the sum of £1 from DeCourcy O'Grady, Esq., in aid of the Magdalen Asylum, per Rev. T. S. O'Grady, P.P. Adare.

The Community of the Good Shepherd gratefully acknowledge the receipt of 10s. from Michael Laffan, Esq., as Foreman of a record jury, in aid of the Magdalen Asylum.

The Most Rev. Dr. Leahy, Archbishop of the Diocese of Emly and Lismore, having held a visitation in Bannaha on Thursday, preached a sermon in which that excellent Prelate spoke in terms of scathing denunciation of the awful murder which had been perpetrated the evening before in the town of Tipperary—a crime of sufficient magnitude—he said—to bring down the curse of the Most High on the people and the country. He proclaimed it to be the imperative duty of every man to aid in dragging the assassin to justice, and rendering him amenable to the laws.

The Right Rev. Dr. Purcell, R.C. Archbishop of Cincinnati, has arrived at Short Castle, Mallow.
