DEATHS.

In Dublin, on the 3rd inst., very deservedly regretted, the Rev. Arthur Champagne, of Miltown, Kenry, by whose demise a large and most respectable circle of relatives in this country and England are thrown into mourning. He was charitable and humane to the poor, and in the district where he lived his loss will be severely felt by the farming classes, to supply whose wants his purse was always accessible. His remains will be interred to-morrow, in the family vault at Askeaton.

On the 4th inst., George H. Hunt, Esq., of Lower Mallow-street, sincerely regretted.

In Upper Cecil-street, rather suddenly, Mr. Wm. Christy, assistant to the ironmongery trade—a very religious and well disposed young man, whose brief career was characteristic of a true Christian.

On the 3rd instant, in Youghal, aged 85 years, Mrs. Belle Donald, relict of Mr. Thomas Donald, of that town.

At Paul-square, Waterford, William Marchant Ardagh, Esq., J.P.
