

was his; it was not for the purpose of case that I went into the workhouse; ne to go in there; it was poverty com- into the workhouse.

resent impression is, that I have only magistrates decision. The 10th sec- 25th and 26th Victoria, cap. 38, says after the passing of this Act, when been made before any two Justices of etty Sessions (which oath the said eby empowered to administer) by the mother of any illegitimate child, and have been supported by corroborated shall be lawful for the Boards of ecover from the putative father the tenance of such illegitimate child during e is in receipt of relief from the poor e under the age of 14; and such cost of nd the cost of suit, shall be recover- , in the name of the guardians, before at Quarter Sessions from the person been adjudged to be the father of the rder of the magistrates is sufficient to ake an order for the cost of mainte- nild.

J.P.—I am very glad to hear your sion, as I was always of the same felt diffident to place my opinion in as superior opinion of the Law Adviser argued that there should be corroborat- iven before his lordship. ll hear any additional evidence that may ert sworn—I am one of the Serjeants- borough, I recollect the last witness the late Mayor about the defendant; t me to him, and I got money from the our occasions for her; the two first oc- ch he gave me money for her he made ut on the two last occasions he denied er of the child.

ed by Mr. Langley—It was the Mayor o the defendant; the Mayor did not tell ould make Shea pay for the support of old defendant that it would be better e her some money and not to have her y, Master of the Union Workhouse, e support of the child cost the Union ngs.

—The guardian objected to pay the costs ings before the magistrates. guardians have a right to pay in the the act provides for the recovery of the

, J. P.—That is my opinion. on reading over this section of the Act , it appears to me to be very clearly ex- here is some difficulty in coming to a ation of it. Upon the view as I take t, I think I am bound to take the order rates as conclusive of the liability of the it for the present, it not having been ob- ave heard evidence upon the subject.— rds of the section which proposes to ction upon the Barrister (as he is called) ssions, being "that the cost of mainte- ce coat of suit, shall be recoverable by e name of the guardians before the

At Leamington, the wife of Henry Clark Worthington, Esq., late Capt. 67th Regt., of a son.

At Saplegrove Lodge, Somersetshire, the wife of Henry Bethune Patton, Esq., late Captain 27th Enniskilling Regt., of a son.

At Peshawur, the wife of Major J. F. Richardson, C.B., 6th Bengal Cavalry, of a son.

At Murree, Punjab, the wife of Captain S. B. Cookson, Brigade Major, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

In Navan, county Meath, Joseph Clarke Collins, Esq., of Garvary Lodge, county Fermanagh, son of Robert Collins, Esq., M.D., of Ardallagh, to Eleanor Gerrard, daughter of the late Colonel Thomas Gerrard, of Boyne Hill, county of Meath.

At St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Phibsborough, Chas. James Gogerty, Esq., Navan, county Meath, to Frances Maria, daughter of Wm. Fitzpatrick, Esq., of Maryborough, Queen's County.

At the Abbey, Waterford, Thomas St. Leger Atkins, Esq., to Susan Ivie Pope, daughter of the late P. Pope, Esq., Sion Hill, Waterford.

At the Cathedral, Marlborough-street, Dublin, P. J. Hughes, Esq., B.A., her Majesty's Vice-Consul at Kiukiang, China, son of Thomas Hughes, Esq., Courtney-hill, Newry, to Maggie, daughter of the late P. Callan, Esq., of Courtsey-hill, Newry.

In Belfast, William H. Malcolm, Esq., Belfast, to Margaret, daughter of the late Richard Stitt, Esq., Marlborough, county Down.

In Belfast, Mr. Andrew Wright, of Anne-street, to Sarah, daughter of Henry Brown, Esq., Cranston-place, Belfast.

At St. Mary's Roman Catholic Chapel, Hexham, the Hon. John Francis Arundell, son of Lord Arundell, of Wardour Castle, Wiltshire, to Anne Lucy, daughter of John Errington, of High Warden, Northumberland, Esq.

At St. John's, Paddington, London, the Rev. R. W. Greaves, Rector of Tooting, to Charlotte, daughter of the late General Martin White, H.M.'s Bengal Army.

At Sangor, India, Captain Frederick Morris Alexander, 8th Madras Cavalry, to Constance Helen Sarah, daughter of Jas. J. Kinloch, Esq., of Kair, Kincardineshire.

At Dughshai, in the Himalayas, the Rev. Wm. Ross, Chaplain 42nd Royal Highlanders, to Amy Gertrude Westbrook, daughter of Colonel Tudor, late of the 86th Regt.

At Moka, Mauritius, Leicester Chantrey Keppel, R.N., son of the Hon. and Rev. Thomas R. Keppel, and nephew of the Earl of Albemarle, to Emily, daughter of the late George Robinson, Esq., of Bagatelle, Moka, Mauritius.

DEATHS.

At Bruff, on the 15th instant, Robert Coll, Esq., a truly honest man, aged 51 years.

At Parsonstown, Thomas H. Fernley, Esq., 65th Regt.

At Loretto Convent, Fermoy, Mary, daughter of John Magrath, Esq., of Dublin.

At Greenmount, Cork, Mrs. Mary Sullivan.

At Knockans Lodge, Portlao, the infant son of F. Bosanquet, Esq., J.P.

At High-street, Galway, Mary, wife of Mr. P. Clayton.

At Wellington-quay, Dublin, Mr. Peter Byrne.

At Enniskillen, William Chambers Ovenden, Esq., M.D., Surgeon of the County Fermanagh Infantry.

At Ballymena, Matilda, relict of the late Mr. W. Fleming, and daughter of George White, Esq., Ballymena.

At Edenderry, Catherine, wife of Myles Keon, Esq.

At Lingfield, Essex, the Rev. Francis Hill Sewell, son of the late Major-General Sewell.

At Brighton, suddenly, Louisa Harriet, widow of Charles Leicester, Esq., brother of the first Lord de Tabley.

At Grenada, the Most Rev. Ferdinand English, Archbishop of Port of Spain, Trinidad.

At Cape Coast Castle, Joseph Moseley, Esq., Chief Justice of the Gold Coast.

At Melbourne, Mr. William James M'Evoy, late of Sackville-street, Dublin, and brother of John M'Evoy, Esq., of Bridge-street, Dublin.

At Washington, of wounds received at the battle of Antietam, Colonel Howard Carroll, 105th Regiment New York Volunteers, son of the late Thomas Carroll, Esq., of Lower Mount-street, Dublin.

Killed at the battle of Sharpsburgh, Capt. John O'Connell Joyce, 88th Regt. New York Volunteers, Irish Brigade.

Killed at the battle of Antietam creek, Lieutenant George Lynch, 63rd Regt. New York Volunteers, Irish Brigade, a native of Clogher, county Tyrone.

Killed at the battle of Antietam, Peter M. Davis, a native of Dublin, a printer by profession, and of the 69th Regt. New York Volunteers.

Of Policies of Insurance, Railway Debentures, Interest in Hou Gas Companies Shan

Mr. Beverid

NEXT Sale of the above Inta his Mart, 53, THOMAS STREET 25th October, at the hour of 2 o' Parties desirous of disposing of furnish particulars at an early da insertion in Catalogue.

EDMOND I Auctioneer, Valuator

Also the Interest in the Forty Acres, with a good House, Pleasure Ground, within 8 miles moderate. Term, fourteen years N.B.—The above Sale is una from 18th to 25th instant, having Sale on 18th. October 14.

Crops! Crop

IMPORTANT UNRESERVED OF New Imported Wheat, Oat

MR. BEVERIE

IS instructed by Mr. PETER JO Unreserved Auction, at the (near Ahane Chapel), on MON 20th Inst., 16 Acres of Prime Pot of Imported Kessingland Red V Prime Turnips.

The above valuable property w suit purchasers.

Sale at One o'Clock, sharp. EDMOND BI Auctioneer,

Oct. 16.

SCARIFF COUNTY

Unreserved Au

OF Prime Oats in Stack, I Quantity of Prime Black Car, Prime Upland Hay, Shop Ge FURNITURE, &c.

MR. REVER

Is favoured with instruction M'CUCCLOCH, who is about chang sell by Unreserved Auction on T vember next, at SCARIFF, the foll

Out-door Effects—2 Acres of l 2 do. of sound Potatoes, 12 Tons a quantity of Swede Turnips, a g hundred of Black Turf, a Fash and Harness. Store and Fat Pi The Shop—Contains a Qu: Weights, Scales, &c., &c.

The House—Contains Chest D Presses, German, French and Ir Feather Beds, Wardrobes, Dress ing Glasses, Kitchen Utensils, w useful sundries.

Sale at One o'clock, sharp. T EDMOND Auctioneer, Val

Oct. 18.