

Under the immediate HIS EXCELLENCY THE IMMENSE A Royal Agricultural

Garrison Amate
 For the Benefit of th
Theatre Roya
 On FRIDAY Ev
 BY COM

HIS Excellency the Lo ciously expressed hi the Performances with his Servants' will perform the f
 APART

- Or, Visitors to the Exhi
- Mr. Tippetty
 - An American
 - An Indian
 - A Frenchman
 - A Scotchman
 - Mrs. Tippetty
 - Clementina

After which a Song
 TO COMUL
 The original Burlesque fe sation Drama of
 "THE COLLE
 Written by H. J. Byr
 "MISS EILY

- Miles Nacoppaleen, ...
- Hardress Cregan, ...
- Kyrle Dalry, ...
- Danny Mann, ...
- Mr. Corrigan, ...
- Sergeant O'Toorallooral, ...
- Eily O'Connor, ...
- Miss Ann Chute, ...
- Mrs. Cregan, ...
- Bridesmaids, Flunkies

The Entertainment will be PRICES OF A

Boxes and Stalls, Pit, ...
 Gallery, ...
 Tickets to be had, and Z. M. Ledger's and Sons, v may be seen.
 An entirely new and orig
 The splendid String Ban will attend.
 The whole of the Scener
 Scene Painter Momi
 Painter to His Royal High
 The Misses Fanny and shaw, and a talented corps Manager—F. Wood, Es
 For further particulars
 Vivant Regina
 August 7.

stream which flows by our walls, doubtedly the greatest of the Irish or cheers). And I trust the key note lency struck will be my justification the question of the Shannon, as a icket Station, because I believe it to ming events which will assist and ad-erity of Limerick (loud cheers).
 ugent proposed the "Royal Dublin er societies in England and Scotland," s with applause. Air—"Come through and Mr. Overman severally returned e loudly applauded. oposed the "South West Agricultural e other Societies in connexion with the ural Society."

 son said that he should require more ndulgence in addressing the meeting a at night, and he regretted that the llen into better hands than his, and y men present who had a far better griculture than he had; but in the abight hon. colleague, whose absence on was caused through ill health and he country, he would endeavour to say he Irish members of Parliament had one their Scotch and English brethren for ars of parliament, have ceased—they on by their constituents to come for-them on account of their stewardship; e to enjoy themselves in discharging and social duties, but, nevertheless, they ight to those who came among us, to esources, and there were amongst them any gentlemen from the sister coun-illing to developpe them, and at the e, they had a nobleman, who, ala Irishman, might almost be considered dition the noble and excellent Vice-ed himself in the list, and by his ation, and amiability of character anxiety to promote the country's welr). His Excellency's visit was one of value, but, from its intrinsic worth, e of loyalty to the Queen, who in every had proved herself to be worthy of the loyalty (cheers). Although his Excel-not agree with an humble person like allant colonel) on principle, yet he should hat many men of rank and station um, and when he heard men who dif-a unjustly attacked, he stood forward in Parliament and defended their cha-herefore he would say that, although not look on that meeting as a for display, or in which everything ived as gospel, but as a place where the ld meet the governed in a spirit of con-er to consider the best mode for deveources of the country and promote its ear). He (the gallant colonel) was adhere to that plan, and he would not from it had not his Excellency thrown e to him and to those who thought with poke of the police of the country (hear).
 Colonel proceeded to advocate the he took in Parliament, in reference to concluded amid loud cheers. (We are l over this speech until our next publi-ing toasts of the evening were given.
 en played the National Anthem during ce of which the Lord Lieutenant left om, and the general company followed.

At Clive-square, London, the Hon. Mrs. Percy Wyndham, of a daughter.
 At Oxford-square, Hyde-park, London, the wife of Clinton F. Henshaw, Esq., Rifle Brigade, of a son.
 At Westbourne-park-road, London, the wife of Lieut.-Col.
 Edward Hall, of a son.
 At Courteen Hall, Northamptonshire, the wife of Herwald Wake, Esq., C.B., of a son.
 At Newport, Salop, the wife of R. de C. Peele, Esq., Surgeon, Bombay Army, of a son.
 At Victoria, Vancouver's Island, the wife of Archdeacon Wright, of a son.
 At Cardiff, the wife of John Wood, Esq., Royal Glamorgan Light Infantry, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

On the 5th instant, at St. Michael's Church, in this city, by the Ven. Archdeacon Peacocke, William, only son of Robert Thorn, Esq., Thornhill, county Tipperary, to Mary Anne, daughter of John Evans, Esq., White Abbey, Belfast. [No cards sent.]
 At St. Stephen's Church, Dublin, Alexander Bell, of Had-dington-road, Esq., solicitor, to Ellen Amelia, daughter of William Maffett, of Pembroke-place, Esq.
 At Rathfarnham Church, county Dublin, Thomas Rudd, Esq., of Clonhaston, county of Wexford, to Emily Caroline, daughter of Thomas Goodisson, Esq., Heathfield, Rathgar, county Dublin.
 At the Roman Catholic Church, Clonsilla, Dublin, Christopher Palles, Esq., barrister-at-law, to Ellen, daughter of the late Denis Doyle, Esq.
 In Carlow, Alexander John Simpson, Esq., to Miss N. M.
 Murphy.
 At All Saints' Church, London, Charles Henry Bruce Somerset, son of Lieut.-Col. Henry Charles Capel Somerset, of Elm Lodge, Hempstead, Gloucestershire, to Victoria Alice Anne Beare, daughter of the late William Fitzgibbon, Esq., of Sydney House, Cork.
 At the Church of the Holy Trinity, Paddington, London, Toler Roberts Garvey, Esq., son of George Garvey, Esq., of Parsonstown, King's County, to Amelia, daughter of the late Samuel Cox, Esq., Rosemount, Jersey.
 At the British Embassy, Paris, Arthur Henry, son of the late Robert M'Kenna, Esq., of Summerhill, Dublin, to Laura Emily, daughter of the late William Board Edward Gibbs Cranford, Esq., of Pax-hill Park, Sussex.
 At St. George's Church, Hanover-square, London, Major
 the Hon. Henry Littleton Powys Keek, of Stoughton Grange, Leicestershire, to Maria Gore, daughter of the late Vice-Admiral Sir John Gore, G.C.B., G.C.H.
 At Cheltenham, the Rev. Algernon S. Grenfell, M.A., of Balliol College, Oxford, to Jane Georgiana, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel George Hutchinson, Bengal Engineers.
 At Christ Church, Lancaster-gate, London, Charles Thomas, son of George Friend, Esq., of Canonbury Park, to Jane Elizabeth, daughter of the late Holland Lecky, Esq., of Castle Lecky, county Londonderry.
 At Cambridge, George Bowes-Watson, Esq., B.A., Trinity College, to Rosine, daughter of Capt. George Davies, R.N.
 At the Royal Bavarian Chapel, London, Edward Pereira, Esq., to the Hon. Margaret Ann Stonor, daughter of Lord Camoys.

DEATHS.

At Komoka, Canada West, on the 12th July, of paralysis, after three days' illness, Arthur Samuel, eldest son of Duncan D'Hesterre, Esq., aged 7 years and 4 months.
 August 6th, to the inexpressible grief of his afflicted parents, relatives and friends, William, second son of Mr. Thomas Carman, 16, Clare-street, aged three months—being the second child in five days.
 At Middleton, county Cork, T. Allen, Esq., J.P.
 At Charleville, Henry H. Condon, Esq., late of New York.
 At Upper Gloucester-street, Dublin, Thomas H. Gleeson, late Captain 90th Regt., and Paymaster 1st West Norfolk Militia.
 At Sandymount, near Dublin, the Rev. T. G. Lapiere, Perpetual Curate of Corwallen, diocese of Kilmore.
 At Upper Dorset-street, Dublin, Robert A. Thompson, Esq., solicitor.
 In Dublin, John Edward Jones, Esq., sculptor.
 At Larch Hill, Queen's County, George Roe, Esq., late of Rush Hall, same county.
 At the Vicarage, Clara, King's County, the Rev. William P.
 Turpin.
 In London, Lieut.-Colonel Powrie, Ellis, half-pay, Royal Artillery.
 At Edinburgh, Dr. Thomas S. Traill, Professor of Medical Jurisprudence in the University of Edinburgh.
 At Bays-hill, Cheltenham, Lieut.-Colonel James Law, Royal Artillery.
 At Bath, Sir Edward Pine Coffin, C.B., Senior Commissary-General.
 At Pierrefitte, Seine, Mordant Ricketts, Esq., Hon. E.I.
 Co.'s Service, many years resident at the Court of Lucknow, Oude.