

go to sleep before the bills in an interest came on for discussion disapproved of the principle sought by this bill, to take the nomination from the grand juries, and give Lieutenant. He should, therefore, be adjourned.

IDE said the bill would throw some elements into the hands of the Lord aid he was quite ready to withdraw the measure (hear, hear).

on withdrew his motion, and the bill in time.

REGISTRATION (IRELAND) BILL. to postpone the second reading of asked 'whether, as this bill affected property of Ireland, the government objection to refer it to a select com-

IDE said that it was impossible to importance of this bill, which had of the house without a single word.

ow that the bill sought to repeal all subject of registration of deeds since in Anne (hear, hear)!

OR GENERAL said that it had been and that some legislation was necessary

The bill now on the table had been spared, and he would be quite ready people when the time for the second reading was then postponed until Thurs-of Lords has dissolved the marriage

Colonel Gore Boland Munbee and his (Frankland) Munbee, his wife, with his illustrious colonel to marry again.

ION BANK OF IRELAND.—The want accommodation has been frequently complained, and the charges which are made in connection with the same are in some instances more than a legitimate profit would probably, the favour with which the

the New Union Bank of Ireland has

We have been informed, and shall be authoritatively, that our information is the allotment of shares a preference applications from Ireland. This will arrangement, and it will naturally conspire, for Irish shareholders will, of course, be likely to consult Irish interest than foreigners, who may enter into the speculare purpose of turning profitable the same. The very competition induced by a new establishment, with extensive facilities, is likely to tend to induce the existence to relax some of those restraints which the public often suffer enough, and which occasionally complain.

THE BANK.—The annual meeting of the bank was held on Tuesday, in London, Mr.

chair. The balance sheet exhibited assets. The paid up capital is to be £1,000,000. The dividends during the last year have been at the rate of nearly 24 per cent.

The report for the half year was 24 percent. The report was adopted.

House, Armagh, to Miss Emily Moyers, daughter of the late

Wm. Moyers, Esq., Rathmines, Dublin.

At Thurles, Patrick Dwyer, Esq., merchant, to Bridget, daughter of Wm. Hickey, Esq., T.C.

At Belfast, Francis C. M'Minn, Esq., son of the late Francis

M'Minn, Esq., M.D., to Charlotte Louisa, daughter of the late

John Hudson, Esq., formerly Government Inspector of Factories in Ireland.

In St. James's Church, Westbourne-terrace, London, A.

Hughes, Esq., of Sydenham, to Elizabeth Aldworth, daughter of the late Rev. Alleyn Evanson, of Four-mile-water Court, county Cork.

At St. Thomas's Church, Winchester, Henry Edmonds, son of Henry Norris, Esq., of Charmouth, Dorset, to Emilia, daughter of the late Captain Frederick Marryat, R.N., C.B.

At St. Anne's Church, Westminster, Lieutenant-Colonel

Olivier, of Bath, widower, to Mrs. Maxwell, widow, of the same place.

In New York, Mr. James N. Gamble, of that city, to Miss

Margaret Penrose, daughter of Captain Penrose, of Corduff

House, county Leitrim.

At Christ Church, St. Kilda, Victoria, Richard R. Gibbs,

Esq., J.P., Ballarat, to Susette Laura, daughter of Charles Bueyertz, Esq., of H.M.'s Customs, Melbourne.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at his residence, 1, Richmond-place, in this city, George Dartnell, Esq., solicitor. During a life protracted beyond the period usually allotted to man, he had, by his many virtues and constant rectitude, succeeded in securing the high respect and esteem as well of those who enjoyed the pleasure of his acquaintance as private friends, as of those with whom he was brought into contact in the course of his lengthened professional career. His remains will be interred on Saturday morning, at 8 o'clock, in St. Munchin's Church-yard.

In Dublin, on the 20th inst., Barbara, the beloved wife of John G. Bradford, Esq., Inspector of National Schools, Kilkenny.

At Queenstown, the Ven. William Ryder, Archdeacon of Cloyne.

At Dunmanway, county of Cork, Jessica, daughter of R. M'Giverin, Esq.

At Mount Verdon House, county of Cork, Henry Baldwin, the infant son of H. B. Olliffe, Esq.

At Gibraltar, Lieutenant Richard R. W. Chute, Royal Artillery, son of the late William Chute, Esq., of Tralee, county Kerry.

At Carrick-on-Suir, Mary, daughter of the late Patrick Codd, Esq., merchant, of that town.

At Roscrea, Mr. Burke, apothecary in that town.

At Athy, Elizabeth, wife of Thomas B. Kynsey, Esq., M.D. and J.P.

At Tullamore, Bessy, daughter of Mr. P. B. Lumley.

At Parsonstown, Mr. Nathaniel Marks.

At Clonmel, Kate, daughter of the late Mr. John Tinley, builder.

In Dublin, Pilsworth Wheilan, Esq., Resident Magistrate of the Queen's County.

At Springfield, near Athlone, Wm. Potts, Esq.

At Kingstown, Mr. Thomas Roach, master of the pilot cutter "Alert."

At Plymouth, John Denis Brown, Esq., of Mount Brown, formerly M.P. for the county Mayo.

At Coton House, Warwickshire, Lady Skipwith, daughter of Hubert Butler Moore, Esq., of Shannon Grove, county of Galway.

At Park-place-gardens, London, Maria, wife of Major-Genl. Henry Goodwyn, Bengal Engineers.

At Montagu-square, London, Fanny Maria, wife of Sir H. Lushington, Bart.

At Glasgow, Charles William Heycock, only child of Richard Domenichetti, Esq., M.D., Surgeon 75th Regt.

At Ardwick, Manchester, the Rev. Samuel Warren, LL.D., Rector of All Souls', Apeoats, Manchester.

At Canford Manor, Wimborne, Augustus Frederick Guest, Esq., son of the late Sir J. John Guest, Bart.

At Aberdeen, Charles Walker, son of Major Pitcairn, 23rd Depot Battalion.

At Bath, Emma Hill, daughter of the Rev. Durand Baker.

At Edinburgh, John Cockburn, Esq., 27th son; and on the next day, at Old Broughton House, near Edinburgh, Jane Cockburn, daughter of the late Archibald Cockburn, Esq., one of the Bursars of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

At Kingsclere, Hants, Edward Bulkeley, Esq., late of the Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House.

On board the ship Windsor Castle, Edward William Lake, Lieutenant 3rd M.N.I., son of Captain Edward Lake, R.N.

At Florence, Francis Edward Gibson, Esq., of Saffron Walden, Essex.

Off the Cape of Good Hope, Lieut. John Robertson, son of the late Robert Robertson, Esq., of Anchleeks, N.B.

and respectability.

She would not be unwilling Situation of Junior Waiting-Maid family.

Communications addressed to I via Drumcolloher; or to the CHB to be attended to.

May 27.

THEATRE ROYAL, L.

FRIDAY, THE LAST

OF THE

NEW GRAND E

OPERA COMPA

GRAND FASHIONABL

Under the distinguished pa

MAJOR YON

AND THE

OFFICERS OF THE C

BEING FOR THE

BENEFIT OF MISS

who has the honour to announce sion)

THE OFFICERS OF THE

have kindly consented to repeat th formance of

ALADDIN

OR, THE WONDERFU

The Performance will commence with

Grand Sensation Opera, in

SATANELL

OR, THE POWER OF

Count Rupert M

Hortensius M

Lelia (a young Peasant and } M

Foster Sister to the Count }

The Princess Stella

Bertha

IMMORTALS

Arimanes M

Satanella and ... M

After which "The Irish Jaunting

Joyce, in character "a la

To conclude with the immensely

Burlesque Extravaganza, by H.

entitled

ALADDI

OR, THE WONDERFU

The Sultan F. W

The Vizier Capt.

Pekoe Miss

Aladdin Miss

Abanazar Capt.

Te-To-Tum Mr.

The Slave of the Lamp ... Miss

The Genius of the Ring ... F. G

The Widow Twankey ... Mr.

Princess Badroulbador ... Miss

Doors open at Seven o'Clock. F

mence at Half-past 8

Map 29.