

for the invaders are neither so much limate, nor so well under cover as the he South, nor so able to avail themselves of the country. But let us suppose consummation; let us grant that it to sacrifice man against man, and by to procure a perpetual succession of reign recruits to supply the exhausted be the value of a territory from off have been destroyed? Will it be a the soil alone survives with a miser-women, children, and slaves, the sick, the maimed! If this be what the usly contemplate, then may we well he best and truest friends to America—dvised them over and over again to into two friendly Federations, or the e Boston and New York not to draw e the spread of war till there remains ull down the Stripes and Stars on the ed States!

nce swells in its range and in its war flows round the whole Union, ead inlets, fortifies itself in peninsulas, ronic in vast plains. The long weary ighter we give to-day can only be con- cect of the worst that may be expected efenders of Richmond retreat to the heir rear, and all the other armies now k on their supplies and resources in the mutual charges of inhumanity show the bitterness already implanted by years' war. Only last year it was a e and gratification to both sides that had fallen without the loss of a er side, and it was predicted ericans would fight a bloodless ar otherwise now. The greatest committed, or ascribed, it matters or, if ascribed, they will be retaliated. ors leap into the sea, the Confederates ith firing canister shot at the boats sent owing wretches. Elsewhere, the Con- charged with massacring housefuls of ontrabands." These are rumours, be true. A private authority always ration, or chhcking. The same doubt mitted in favour of the authorities at lies the hapless city of New Orleans. o be read in the proclamation and the e of its military masters, and never did ume such a tone. They have, indeed, city, its inhabitants, and all its valuable igh the latter be paid for by English red in English names, and only wait nience of a passage to this country. The ll one day find that such tyranny reckons eads of those who countenance it, and sanctioning against themselves the prin- hey permit towards others. This is the a policy which looks only to conquest It raises dictators, conquerors, and to bear their yoke when there is no one advice from New York this week com- the resolution of Congress for an ad- of 30,000,000 of convertible paper, but ng of the tax bill and the tariff bill, a further blow at trade, and includes an ry a new duty on goods already in bond ork warehouses.

Webb, Esq., of a daughter.
At Bexley-heath, Kent, the wife of T. R. Strover, Esq., F.R.C.S., Retired List, Bengal Army, of a son.
At Liverpool, the wife of Eustace Greg, Esq., of a daughter.
At The Close, Salisbury, Mrs. P. A. Pleydell Bouverie, of a son.
At Cambridge, the wife of the Rev. John R. Turing, of a daughter.
At Preston, the wife of Captain and Adjutant Godfrey, 11th Depot Battalion, of a daughter.
At Porchester-square, London, the wife of Walter Graham, Esq., of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At Ennis Church, on Wednesday morning, by the Rev. H. Fleming, vicar of Kilmaley, Mr. Roger Martin, of Limerick, to Emma, only daughter of the late John Palmer Howard, Esq., Shinrone, King's County.
At the Friends' Meeting House, Waterford, Samuel Bewley Pim, Esq., of Mountmellick, to Mary Elizabeth, daughter of William Malcomson, Esq., of Millfort House, Portlaw.
At Carlisle, John Taaffe, K.M., Major Louth Rifles, son of Commander John Taaffe, K.M., to Barbara, daughter of Stephen J. Leonard, Esq., of Queen's Fort, Tuam.
At the Cathedral Church, Lichfield, Charles Howard, Esq., 71st Highlanders, son of the Hon. and Very Rev. the Dean of Lichfield, to Lilla, daughter of the late Captain E. L. Durant, Madras Army.
At Sheffield, the Rev. Charles Edward Camidge, B.A., of Wadham College, Oxford, to Laura Carow, daughter of E. F. Sanderson, Esq., of Sheffield and New York.
At Rickmansworth, the Rev. J. J. Stewart Perowne, B.D., Fellow of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, and Examining Chaplain to the Bishop of Norwich, to Anna Maria, daughter of Humphrey William Woolrych, Sergeant-at-Law, of Croxley, Herts.
At St. George's Church, Montreal, E. S. Freir, Esq., to Ann, relict of Lorenzo J. Walters, Esq., of Clohass, county Wexford, and daughter of the late Captain Warnford Ridge, 3rd Regt.

DEATHS.

In Cork, Robert Duncan, Esq., only son of Thomas Duncan, Esq., Excise Officer of Clonmel, and grandson of William Duncan, Esq., late Supervisor of Excise in this city.
At Dame-street, Dublin, Charlton Stewart Ralph, Esq., barrister-at-law.
At Kingstown, suddenly, Anne Green Wildig, widow of the Rev. G. B. Wildig, rector of Norton-in-the-Moors, Staffordshire.
At Victoria-terrace, Belfast, John Scott, Esq.
At Cambridge-terrace, Hyde-park, London, Colonel Humphrey Owen, late of the Royal Artillery.
At Brighton, Sir John Wedderburn, Bart., late of the Bombay Civil Service.
At Morningside, near Edinburgh, Captain R. Watson, late of the 43rd Regt., and Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh.
At Sussex-street, London, Major Frederick Alex. Blachford, late 93rd Highlanders.
At Ramsgate, Captain John Gilmore, R.N.
At Marseilles, Henry James Hamilton, son of the late Major-General Sir Henry Lindesay Bethune, Bart., of Kilconubar, Fife.
At Gloucester-place, Camden-town, London, Elizabeth, widow of the late Lieut. Thomas Alexander Watt, R.N.
The Rev. Thomas Trevenen Penrose, vicar of Coleby, near Lincoln.
At Croydon, Sarah, daughter of the late Edward Bentley, Esq., of Ely-place, London.
At Tunbridge Wells, London, John Charles Weir, Esq.
At Tulse-hill, London, Rowland Evans, Esq.
At Bradford-on-Avon, the Rev. L. R. Cogan, incumbent of Winsley and Limpley Stoke, Wilts.
At Hastings, the Rev. Henry Samuel Foyster, rector of All Saints, Hastings.
At Catton, William Salter, son of the late Rev. Charles Millard, Chancellor of Norwich.
At Grafton-crescent, Kentish-town, London, Mr. Gilbert Llaney Hutchinson, author of the "Equalisation of the Poor's Rate," and a Clerk in the Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House.
At St. Gervais, near Blois, Auguste, Marquis de Choiseul Beaupré.
At Stander, Staffordshire, the Rev. Joseph Salt.
At Tien-tsin, China, Captain W. Frederick Macbean, 51st Regt., son of Lieut. Colonel Macbean, K.H., of Richmond, late of the 84th Regt.
On his passage home from South America, Edward Villiers Robinson, Esq., son of Sir George S. Robinson, Bart., of Cranford, Northamptonshire.

carpets and rugs, fenders a ments, &c.

THE BED

Are fully supplied with Statesteads; best quality feather bedding, basin stands and v glasses, drawers, wardrobes, and steels, &c.,

SILVER AND PL

Tea urn, tea and coffee p sticks, morning and evening glass, decanters, tumblers an desert service, &c.

HAL

Tarpaulin, stair carpeting tures, &c.

The kitchen is fully furnis Sale at One o'clock sharp.

EDMON

Auctioneer, V

This very Commodio to be Let. Rent, £25 a ye July 5, 1862.

House in George

Suitable for a Private Resi or other

Situate in the most Cen Stre

TO BE LET, the enti HOUSE, 39, GEOR LIMERICK CHRONICLE Office been newly papered and Drawing-Room and Parlour Pantries; Front and Back Water Closet, &c. No Cor Office.

ALSO, TO

The HOUSE, No. 4, BE the Business of a Solicitor, cantile Trade. The Hous Drawing-Room, 5 Bed-Room

Lands To

ABOUT 26 Acres of Pr Land. These Lands in the immediate vicinity lease will be given of these Tenant be had for them.

Application to be made ESQ., Taughermore, Tuam Mr. Thomas Quane, Gr lands.

July 5

DEVONSHI IN BRILLIAN'

BASS AND CO MARCH 1

In Beautiful Order with the GUINNESS

DOUBLI In Fine Order.

JAMES 4, GEORGE