

lery assembled at Armagh barracks with the infantry. There was no more a fine body of men, of good

UK CATHEDRAL.

HIT-SUNDAY.

1 a.m.—Chant, Boyce, in E flat; Mus. D in D; Anthem, Ps. 34

p.m.—Chant, H. Rogers, V. C., r. Rogers, in D; Anthem, Ps.

Rev. J. Mangan, for Prebendary singing preacher, Very Rev. the ained glass windows have been re-rinity Church, Limerick, to the relatives by members of the con-ed, by our advertising columns, ll be preached on to-morrow (Sun- Wesleyan Chapel, George-street, o'clock, p.m., by the Rev. Thos. he Circuit Funds, which are at deficient, and this deficiency the to make up before the Con- place early in the present month. hat the mere mention of this fact induce a very numerous attend- orthy a purpose, independent of nted by the well known eloquence ter A. Reade, A.M., Assistant rt Church, Blackrock, near Dub- ted for the summer months to the Hesse, Homburg, Germany.

THE NEW CHURCH OF KILTURK.—

Church of Kilturk, county Wex- ed by the Lord Bishop of Ossory, 2. The morning service was read Rev. J. S. Cooper; the lessons by late Rector of the Parish. Imme- administration of the Holy Com- confirmed a number of young peo- id the neighbouring parishes, ad- is usual solemn manner before and on of the rite. This pretty little en roof, stained east and windows does much credit to the excellent e contractor, Mr. Carroll, of Dub- shioners and some of the landlords idition to their liberal contributions he church, have cheerfully supplied ell, and have procured a sweet-toned is the third church consecrated by uring the last week in May, viz. — own, and Kilturk.

Great Horkealey, near Colchester, it by the death of the Rev. John M.A., formerly of St. John's Col-

The benefice, which is worth in the gift of the Earl de Grey and ance of £300 has just been forwarded. ternity in Rome, by the officers of l in London of the St. Peter's Pence CHRISTIANS.—The Very Rev. Father owledge with gratitude the recep- rith from that portion of the people visited in pursuance of his mission e persecuted Christians in Syria. ebrate Mass for his benefactors in Mary's, Lishtown, on to-morrow.

county Limerick, by the Rev. Thomas Willis, assisted by the Rev. George Gough Gubbins, and the Rev. Newcombe Willis, Francis William Henry Petrie, late Captain 11th Foot, and third son of the late Commissary-General William Petrie, to Deborah Charlotte, only daughter of the Rev. Thomas Willis, prebendary of Killybeggy, and grand-daughter of the late George Gough Gubbins, of Maidstown Castle.

At Passage West, John George Newson, son of Richard Nevill Parker, of Waterview, county Cork, Esq., to Sarah Johnson, daughter of the late John William Topp, Esq., of Bellevue.

At the Scots Church, Adelaide-road, Dublin, James Hogg Barnett, Esq., to Elizabeth Stuart, daughter of Colonel Watt, Upper Baggot-street.

At Rathmines Church, Dublin, William Green Skipworth, Esq., to Ellen Wayland Pollock, daughter of Michael Marshall, Esq., Merrion-square, Dublin.

At Dunmurry, Richard Patterson, Esq., to Clara, daughter of Montagu Baldwin Mulligan, Esq., both of Belfast.

At St. Peter's, Pimlico, London, Sir Augustus Frederick Webster, Bart., to Amelia Sophia, daughter of Charles F. A. Prosser, Esq., Hastings.

At the parish church, Stroud, William Bligh, son of the late Lieut. General Sir Maurice O'Connell, and late Captain 73rd Regt., to Eliza, widow of Captain F. Wemyss, Bombay Engineers, and daughter of the late Lieut. General T. Dickinson.

At Clifton Church, Dr. William Johnstone Pyffe, of the 5th Dragoon Guards, to Caroline Margaret, daughter of the late Thomas Kingston, Esq., of Charlton House, Somerset.

At the parish church, Brighton, Thomas S. Tarterton, Esq., of Thurloe-square, Brompton, London, to Miss Langton, of Norfolk-square, Brighton.

At Bayswater, Thomas Henry Fernly, Esq., 65th Regt., to Laura, daughter of Henry Hart, Esq., Baywater.

At Toronto, Canada, Richard Nagle, Esq., Lieutenant 30th Regt., to Susan Maria, daughter of John Bell, Esq., barrister-at-law, Toronto.

At Trinity Church, Cape Town, Cape of Good Hope, James Alexander Fairbairn, Esq., Clerk of the Legislative Council, to Kate, daughter of the Rev. Robert G. Lamb, Colonial Chaplain, Cape Town.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at his residence, Lower Mallow-street, after a short illness, to the inexpressible grief of his family and friends, William Evans, Esq., solicitor, a gentleman highly esteemed for his bland and courteous disposition, wills in discharge of his professional duties he afforded general satisfaction to all for whom he was concerned. It may truly be said of the lamented deceased that he never lost a friend or made an enemy.

At his residence, Henry-street, Michael Bourke, Esq., nephew of the Right Rev. Dr. Ryan, R.C.B., and brother of the Rev. John Bourke, P.P.

On the 2nd instant, at Mayor Park, county Clare, Bessie Goggin, the beloved wife of Mr. James Murdock, deeply and deservedly regretted by her family and numerous friends.

At Glenlough Cottage, county Cork, John Westropp Carey, Esq., Dromatimore House.

At Newport, county Tipperary, Catharine, wife of Mr. John Cullen.

At Youghal, Jane, wife of Denis M'Donald, Esq.

At Clonkeen, county Westmeath, Delta, daughter of Edward Coffey, Esq.

At Charlemont-street, Dublin, Mrs. Catherine Kearney.

At Mantua, Catherine Eliza, relict of Rice Hussey, Esq., of Tralee, and sister to O. D. J. Grace, Esq., of Mantua House, Elphin, county Roscommon.

At Stowley-gardens, London, Maria Eliza Sproule, daughter of Sir John R. Carnac, Bart.

At Simon's Town, Cape of Good Hope, Harry Parnell Cole, Lieutenant Royal Engineers, son of Lady Henry Moore, and the late Edward Cole, Esq.

In Liverpool, David Graham, son of William Shannon, Esq., M.D., Magherafelt.

At Torquay, George Benjamin Tathwell, Esq., late Captain 33rd Regiment.

The Rev. John Balfour Magenis, rector of Great Horkealey, Colchester.

Robert Vaughan Wynne Williams, Esq., late of Upper Brook-street, Grosvenor-square, London.

At Bodrean, near Truro, Cornwall, Henry Prynn Andrew, Esq., J.P., D.L.

At Fenge, Surrey, Maria, daughter of the late Robt. Ancell, Esq., R.N.

At Madeira, Thomas Wakley, Esq., M.R.C.S. Eng., Coroner for Middlesex, and late M.P. for Finsbury.

At Cheitsham, Catherine Ellen Beales, relict of the late Charles Beales, Esq., M.A.

At Eaton-square, London, Howard Hamilton, son of the late Francis Banks, Esq., of Liverpool.

At Ingoldeshorpe Rectory, Norfolk, Katherine Louisa, daughter of the Rev. W. T. Beckett.

At Hactons, Upminster, Essex, Anne, wife of the Rev. Richard Battiscombe.

At Pusselawa, Ceylon, Anne Jane, daughter of Sylvester Richmond, Esq., late of the 49th Regt.

working agents, requested that none but parties business will apply.

Address T. M., Aberdeen House Dublin.

Steward

WANTS a Situation, in consequence of his late employer, the lived with for three years and a half, that time, without application, twice an active young man, who was ed nevin.

Unexceptionable References.—Add MURRAY, Belvoir, Six-Mile-Bridge June 7th, 1862.

No. 9, Crescent

HIGHLY IMPORTANT A

OF
First-class Household
Brilliant Chimney Glasses, Rich W
Powerful-toned Cottage Pianofo Gazaliers, Brussels Carpets and and Work Tables, Beautiful Bronz
Chairs, &c., &c.,
On MONDAY, the 9th

PATRICK COLE

HAS much pleasure in announci been favoured with instruction RICHARD MOORE, A.M., Rector of sell by Unreserved Auction (in con removal to the County Kerry), at hi 9, Crescent, on Monday, the 9th of of the very select collection of House &c., comprising in

THE DRAWING-ROOM,
Brilliant chimney glass, plate 65x50
cottage piano-forte, in mahogany es ditional keys and all the latest impro rich Ponceau window hangings and su ful 3-light omolu gazalier, sofa, centre
try cover; very handsome sofa ta clock, balloon chairs, Swiss do., pai Brussels carpet and rug, card and w davenport, fender and steels, guitar
A very handsome French Work-ments, and Two Musical Boxes att

THE DINING ROOM.
Contains first class set pillar and c tal sideboard, mahogany chairs, eas folding chairs, Brussels carpet, heart irons, drugget, window hangings, a Rocking chair, sofa, handsome chim rator lamps.

THE FRONT PARLOU Contains useful table on pillar and easy chair, lounge, window hangin zinc blinds, very handsome gas brack carpet and rug, fender and irons.

THE HALL AND STAI
Hat stand, mahogany chairs, tari
stair carpetting and rods, 8 day clo

THE BED ROOMS.
Are fully furnished with German steads, japanned iron do., feather bed and bedding, toilet tables, dressin stands, chamber ware, foot and spo rober, and presses, iron stretchers, pantry and kitchen requisites, &c.
CAR.

Sale at 12 o'clock sh
PATRICK
Auctioneer and Val