At Calcutta, Captain Edward B. Sladen, 1st Madras Fusiliers, son of the late Dr. Ramsay Sladen, Physician-General, Madras, to Sophia Catherine, daughter of R. P. Harrison, Esq., Bengal Civil Service.
At St. Paul's, Auckland, Captain T. B. Richards, 40th Regt., to Ida, daughter of Foster Goring, Esq., and the Hon. Mrs. Goring.

DEATHS.

Jan. 18, at Clareview, county Limerick, the residence of his brother, the Rev. Richard Fitzgerald, in his 57th year, John Lloyd Fitzgerald, Esq., of Glenastar Lodge, in the same county; barrister-at-law. His classical, scientific, and literary attainments were of the highest order, having obtained some of the most distinguished honours as a scholar of the house and a mathematical premium-man in the University of Dublin. He was beloved by all classes of his countrymen for his gentlemanly deportment, his humanity in relieving the necessities of his fellow-creatures, and his earnest desire to promote the general welfare of mankind. He died as he lived, a sincere Christian.

On the 19th instant, at the residence of her relative, Miles O'Brien, Esq., Newcastle West, Mrs. Margaret O'Donnell, daughter of the late Major Thomas Hobson, 34th Regt., niece of the late Samuel Hobson, Esq., Chairman of the Counties of Waterford, Limerick, and Clare, and grand-niece of the late Sir Thomas Pendergast.

At Cahircion, county Clara, on the 21st instant, Margaret, widow of Edward Roche, Esq., of Trabolgan, county Cork, and mother of Lord Fermoy.

Sunday morning, at Annagh, county Clare, after a short illness, aged 56 years, Mr. Denis Slattery, P.L.G., and V.C. Distinguished as the deceased had been for a most sincere, kind-hearted manner, and a truly generous, benevolent disposition, his loss in social life will be deeply regretted; while as a useful public man of his class, possessed of intelligence and business habits, which characterized him as Chairman of the Sheriff Board of Guardians, his loss will be sincerely felt by all who had the opportunity of estimating his worth.

On Tuesday morning, the 21st instant, at Ranelagh-road, Dublin, Alice, the beloved wife of the Rev. George Rivington.

On the 1st January, at Toronto, Canada West, of inflammation of the lungs, F. C. T. Arnoldi, Esq., M.D., aged 56. He was a kind father and sincere friend; the gap his loss will make in many a household will not be soon filled up, and his memory will live long with his friends, while they hear and re-hear in thought his cheering kindly voice.

At the Presentation Convent, Carrick-on-Suir, on Sunday, the 19th instant, after a protracted illness, M. M. de Pazzi O'Brien, in the 40th year of her age, and the 20th of her religious profession.

At Oulpen Park, Gloucestershire, Thomas A. Staughton, Esq., J.P., D.L., of Ballyhorgan, county Kerry.

At Templemore, Walter Hewitt, son of Capt. G. H. Adams, 86th Regiment.

At Middle Abbey-street, Dublin, Sarah Elizabeth, relict of the late Rev. Joshua D'Arty, Rector of Killaloe, diocese of Meath.

At Upper Gloucester-street, Dublin, R. Courtenay, Esq.
At Montpelier-hill, Dublin, John, son of the late William Atkinson, Esq.

At Brookville, county Dublin, Sarah, relict of the late Robt. Law, Esq., and daughter of the late Solomon Watson, Esq., of Summerville, county Tipperary.

At Gardiner's-place, Dublin, Charlotte, relict of the late Rev. John Sweeney, Rector of Clenish, county Fermanagh.

At Ballymon, county Dublin, Miss Margaret Dodd.

At Upper Rutland-street, Dublin, Letitia Mary, daughter of Daniel Monck, Esq.

At Rathgar-avenue, Dublin, Rebecca, widow of Trevor Lloyd Blunden, Esq., formerly of Oakfield, co. Tipperary.
