

well—Mr. Ryan is throwing out the board, and he has no right to and its officers acted in accordance and if Mr. Ryan thinks it unfair the public, let him give notice to This discussion is to go before the could not be led astray by a partial

That yard, which was set for want for a number of years, and at it he laid out money on it in he was about leaving this country and honest to take it up from him I have something for it.

er discussion, he would hold the auction on his then contended that a man coming party had no right to be asked for a coming here from Belfast or Glas-to equal privilege with the local added that since the resolution was n was signed, allowing Mr. John a sale by auction on the quay.

d that fact put Mr. Ryan out of usity for a requisition showed that l, and therefore a necessity to come erty to sell on the quays.

d as merchants they had no idea of intentions of any man. If they d be dangerous to do so, because it ertain place is paved with them," advertisement in which it was stated ty would be sold by auction—they and they saw the Inchiquin there, Ryan's premises, and he would say as contrary to law, and how could e place that were at another.

erved that Mr. Ryan had given an ould sell the property upon his own ould not and would not ask to get uking.

nnell said he would give a stranger emove his property from the ship to re would to any other man, but he m in a more favourable position, be- oming here was under very little ex- tizen, living on the spot, having his i paying his rent, taxes, and his was under heavy expence to which a subject.

—If these people were allowed to way they would swamp the timber discussion ensued, when it was una- that the sale by auction should be Messrs Martin's premises, and not livan complained that shipping corn ted to have the vessel moved, but accomplished in consequence of the floating in the docks.

not a stick of it was his. sed a resolution to have the cargoes off the quays.

n separated.

gales have caused great distress in n. More than a hundred vessels d, and in some cases were lost. A its way to Hull, which was forced s of weather, saw no less than six thout being able to render them the e.

At Kingston, Portsea, the wife of the Rev. E. B. Churchill, of a son.
At Florence, the wife of W. Cairnes Armstrong, Major 15th Regiment, of a son.
At Weston-super-Mare, the wife of Commander Durbin, R.N., of a daughter.
At Simla, India, the wife of Major Connell, Royal Artillery, of a son.
At Sierra Leone, the wife of Lieutenant-Colonel W. Hill, of a son.
At Dalhousie, India, the wife of Robert Needham Cust, Esq., of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

At St. Peter's Church, Dublin, the Rev. Thomas Mason, of Balish, King's County, to Ellen Brown, daughter of the late Wm. Ringwood, Esq., of Lower Leeson-street, Dublin.
In St. Peter's Church, Dublin, William Alexander Reilly, to Miss Tamer Barrington, daughter of Mr. Alexander Barrington, county Kildare.
At Ringrone, Robt. Hague, Esq., M.D., R.N., her Majesty's ship Fernst, son of William Hague, sen., Esq., of Cavan, to Sarah, daughter of Richard Gillman, Esq., Seaview House, Sandycove, Kinsale.
Thomas Enright, of Barnhalea House, county Cork, to Margaret Anne, daughter of Mr. Matthew Punch, of Ringaskiddy, same county.
At St. James's, Paddington, the Rev. W. O. Newnham, to Fanny Charlotte, daughter of Colonel Day, 99th Regt.; and at the same time and place, Captain H. L. Fitzgerald, 13th Light Infantry, to Henrietta Emily, daughter of Colonel Day, 99th Regt.
At Orcheston, St. George, Charles Henry Spenser-Churchill, Major 60th Rifles, son of the late Lord Charles Spenser-Churchill, to Rosalie, daughter of the Rev. George Paulin Lowther, rector of Orcheston, St. George, and prebendary of Salisbury.
In St. Peter's, Great Berkhamstead, Herts, the Rev. Frederick Bagot, Prebendary of Wells, and Rector of Harpsden, Oxfordshire, son of the late Hon. and Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells, to Charlotte Anne Philipina, daughter of Price Pearce, Esq., of Ashlyns, Great Berkhamstead.
At St. Helier's, Jersey, Wilbraham Archibald Tollemache, Esq., 48th Regt. Madras Native Infantry, to Florence Mary, daughter of Alfred Trueman, Esq., late of Grosvenor House, Walthamstow, Essex.
At Ootacamund, Thomas Reeder Clarkson, Lieutenant 68th Light Infantry, to Myra Hume, daughter of Major-General James E. Williams, Madras Army.
At Toronto, Canada, John Frederic Bell, Esq., 47th Regt., to Maria Aletta, daughter of Major-General George Napier, commanding the Toronto District.

DEATHS.

On the 3rd inst., at Wellington-terrace, Grattan's-hill, Cork, Ann, relict of Richard Feltham Guy, Esq., Royal Navy, aged 72 years.
On the 6th inst., at No. 3, Dominick-street, after a tedious and lingering illness, which she bore with fortitude and resignation for the last fourteen years, Mary, the beloved wife of Mr. John Hall, sincerely and deservedly regretted.
At Adelaide-place, Cork, Lieutenant-Colonel Lionel John Westrop, late of the 58th Regt.
In Mallow, John B. Brady, late Ensign 88th Regt., son of the late Wm. Brady, Esq., Wilton.
At South Terrace, Cork, Richard, son of Wm. Large, Esq. William Coppinger, of Barry's Court, county Cork, Esq.
At Viewville, Sunday's-well, Cork, Mr. John G. Reeves.
At Blarney-road, Cork, Mr. Robert Thompson.
At Belmont-avenue, Donnybrook, Capt. John Fry.
At Blackrock, Dublin, Mrs. Susanna Armstrong, widow of Capt. John Armstrong, Fermanagh Militia.
At Manor-street, Dublin, Miss Elizabeth Murphy, late of Drogheda.
At Snugboro', near Castlebar, Mr. James M'Gough.
At Southsea, John Charles Saunder, Esq., late Military Storekeeper at Dublin.
At Birkenhead, Anne, wife of Captain George Longford, late of Belfast.
At St. John's-wood, London, Lieut.-Colonel Peter Grenville Cazalet, late of H.M.'s Madras Army.
At Upper Wimpole-street, London, Thomas Green, Esq., of the Inner Temple, barrister-at-law, and formerly of the 91st Regiment.
At Portland, Charles Meyrick Hicks, Naval Cadet, H.M.S. Britannia.
At Berkley-square, London, Antony Butler Francis St. Leger, Esq., of Park-hill, county of York.
At Salisbury, W. Wadham Young, Esq., Superintendent of the South-Western Railway Company.
At Barbadoes, Thomas Williams, Esq., Assistant-Commissary-General.

Lieutenant of Ireland, the Duches Duchess of Athole, the Duches other distinguished Members of th WILL GIVE THEIR ENTER FOR T W O E V E N I N G On MONDAY and TUESDAY 10th and 11th, 18

The Christy's Mi

(From her Majesty's Theatre, the S Polygraphic Hall, L have given upwards of 5,000 Conc in the principal Provincial Cities and Scotland, where they have cessful.

Reserved Stalls, 3s. Boxes, Gallery, 6

Programmes, Tickets, and all i obtained at Messrs. CORBETT Music Warehouse, Limerick, w Seats may be se Doors Open at Half-past Seve Eight o'Clock. Carriages to be o to Ten.

November 8.

The Athenæum, L

THALBEI

FOR ONE NIGHT

S. THALB.

HAS the honour to annot musical public, and inha that he will give one of his celebra RECITALS at the above Room EVENING, NOVEMBER 20 mence at Eight o'Clock precis occasion he can possibly appear i

PROGRAM

PART I. Quartetto of the Puritani (Art of ing applied to the Pianoforte Tarantella ... Home Sweet Home ... Two Songs Without Words Fantasia (Il Trovatore) ...

PART II.

Ballad ... Barcarolle from Gianni di Calais of Singing applied to the Piano Serenade from Don Pasquale Fantasia (Elisir d'Amore)

ERARD'S PIANO

Reserved Seats 5s. | Fam Unreserved Seats 3s. | ad | Gall

Tickets and Programmes to be and SON'S, Music Warehouse. plan of the room may be seen an Oct. 25.