

to the Countess) returned ladyship, and promised that plate would be presented to her, and to be competed for. Captain said that her ladyship had to have the cottages of her land to have everything done in a happy, contented and kind cheer.)

(Lord Waterpark) returned to Lordship.

gentlemen, I call upon you to be respected and handsome conduct present, but who is not more worthy of this county than he is worthy in the kingdom, and why? Prosperity of the entire country, on two pieces of plate to be competitors who can exhibit fine at our next meeting, (hear you the health of Mr. John Ford.

and with cheers and hip, hip, hooray, and in doing so will have a fair chance in the market, if the pigs which they rear as heretofore. If those who had to that advice the Yankees in their own market. A pig market should not weigh over it were it not for the American get a morsel of meat at all, by-and-bye we'll have corned there were hear, hears in the philanthropist.

proposed the health of the as received with enthusiasm and satisfaction. respectively returned thanks, prosperity to the Clogheen given, and this social and separated.

—Linen—The late advance for goods has been fully established of 1d. per yard is now asked. During the past week has not and the operations have, more limited character. Spin, and with every prospect of for flax, decline any new own terms. Cotton—There diminution in the excitement in week, and prices of the raw about 2d. per lb. In other really nothing to notice.—

that the sum of five hundred pound of the building fund of the Hall, and that there is nothing maintenance fund. This state of to the Protestant citizens of Mail.

On the 18th inst., at St. Mark's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. Wilberforce Hastings MacAdam, A.B., brother of the bride, Henry Ware, Esq., Sub-Inspector of Constabulary, to Jane Matilda Hastings, youngest daughter of David Hastings MacAdam, Esq., M.D., of Castlepollard, county Westmeath. [No cards sent.]

At Christ Church, Cork, John Edwards, Esq., J.P., Knockrobbin, county Wicklow, to Caroline, daughter of the late John Archbold Leonard, Esq., J.P., of Clermont, in the same county.

At Bally-M'Elligott Church, county Kerry, T. Goodman, Esq., Paymaster Royal Navy, to Anne Headley, daughter of the late Pierce Chute, Esq., of O'Brennan, county Kerry.

At Knocktopher, county Kilkenny, William Williams, Esq., of Parkside, Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, to Rose Isabella, daughter of the late Rev. Sir Hercules Richard Langrishe, Bart., of Knocktopher Abbey.

At Kingstown Roman Catholic Chapel, John Carey, Esq., of Dalkey, to Bedelia, daughter of the late James Quin, Esq., of Honey Park, county Dublin.

In Galway, Joseph Semple, Esq., merchant, to Sarah Connolly, daughter of the late John Connolly, Esq., of Taylor's Hill, Galway.

In Walcot Church, Bath, George Gyles, Esq., son of the Rev. Walter Gyles, late Vicar of Cahir, county Tipperary, to Allieha Emma, daughter of the late Hon. and Right Rev. Edward Grey, Bishop of Hereford.

In St. James's, Holloway, London, Captain Henley Thomas Bartlett, Bengal Army, to Constance Delia, daughter of the late Captain Owen Lomer, Bengal Army.

In the parish church of East Brent, John Fryer, Esq., The Carabineers, son of the late John Fryer, Esq., of Wimborne Minster, Dorset, to Catherine, daughter of George Read, Esq., of Burnham and East Brent, in the county of Somerset.

At Riverton, New Zealand, Henry McCulloch, Esq., to Mary Frances Josephine, daughter of John Shea Lalor, Esq., of Gurtenard, Bantry.

In St. Mary's Church, Poonah, East Indies, Thomas Nelson Holberton, Esq., Captain Royal Horse Artillery, to Pauline Constance, daughter of the late Major G. Coxe, of the Bengal Army.

In St. Mary's Church, Poonah, the Rev. Trenham King Weatherhead, B.C.L., Secretary to the Church Missionary Society, Bombay, to Mary Ann Boyne, daughter of Major Candy, Bombay Army.

DEATHS.

On Sunday morning, at his residence, Lower Hartstonge-street, very much regretted, Mr. Joseph Hallowell, aged 77 years, for many years well known in the hosiery business in this city, as an honest, upright man. Previous to the introduction of monster establishments in Limerick, Mr. Hallowell commanded a first-rate trade.

At 16, Clare-street, on the 14th instant, to the inexpressible grief of her afflicted parents and friends, Amelia, daughter of Mr. Thomas Carman, aged 4 years and 4 months,—being the third child in six weeks.

At St. Luke's, Cork, Sarah, wife of Joseph N. Chamley, Esq. In Londonderry, Sarah Kingston, daughter of Alexander Kingston Fox, Esq., County Inspector of Constabulary.

At Rostrevor, Harriet, widow of Henry Aldboro Head, Esq., late Lieut.-Colonel 7th Dragoon Guards.

At Hotwell, county of Meath, Edward Davenport, son of Henry Purdon, Esq.

At Tully, Connemara, the Rev. John Griffin, P.P. of Ballinakill, diocese of Tuam.

At Prospect, county Mayo, Mr. John Gill.

At Artina, county Cavan, at the advanced age of 103 years, Mrs. Mary Smith.

At Moneymore, Marian, wife of Robert Miller, Esq.

At Inverness-road, Baywater, London, Grace, daughter of the late Isaac Ambrose Eccles, Esq., of Cronron, county of Wicklow.

At Hampton Court, London, Arabella Charlotte, widow of the late Colonel Hanmer.

At Leeds, John Brydges, Esq., formerly of Carriskle, county Tyrone, and Dublin.

At St. Stephen's, Saltash, Cornwall, Marian, wife of Capt. Bennett, Postal Surveyor-General of the West Indies.

At Paris, Miss Anna Maria E. Johnston, of Knappagh, county Armagh.

At Ardara, near Leghorn, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the late Christopher H. Cheevers, Esq., county Galway.

At Calcutta, George John Richards, Esq., B.A., late Scholar and Hulmian Exhibitioner of Brasenose College, Oxford, and of H.M.'s Bengal Civil Service.

and work ditto; 6 Spanish manogan chairs, easy do., cabriole lounge and en suite, mahogany and rosewood wain carpet, 30 x 25, hearth rug, to mat steels, oil paintings and proof engr maples, and Rosewood frames, &c.

PARLOUR AND DINING ROOM

Mahogany Dinner Round Card and beautifully carved mahogany side mahogany secretary, 8-day clock, in scarlet damask window curtains and mahogany chairs in hair cloth and scarlet carpets and rugs, fender and steels, &c.

The Bed Rooms (6 in number) will be plied with French and German, and best quality feather beds and curled winged wardrobe, chest of drawers, dining tables and basin stands, commodes and towelracks, &c.

LIBRARY.

Book case and a splendid collection of torical, &c., &c., works, catalogues or ready prior to sale.

SILVER AND PLATED WARE

Tea urn, tea and coffee pots, bread frames, round and square salvers, can frames, &c., ; morning and evening decanters; tumblers and wines, silver bowls, &c.

THE KITCHEN.

Will be found furnished with every respectable establishment, &c., including safe, coop, oat bins, &c.

Sale at 12 o'clock sharp.—TERR

EDMOND BEVERIDGE,

Valuator,

One Brace of Well-trained Sea Double Guns, two New Fishing Boat of superior Fishing Tackle, &c.

Sept 16.

Loughlea, near Buttevan

GREAT UNRESERVED AUCTION OF nearly 100 Head of First-class HEIFERS, Pure Short-horn Superior HORSES, 120 SHEEP and LA 50 Acres of Prime White OATS in of Swedish TURNIPS, 70 Tons Prime a large quantity of Manure, Superior ments, &c., &c.

Subscribers are favored with instruction CROFTS HARRIS, Esq., who has Le which must be given up on the 29th AUCTION, on THURSDAY, the 2 the entire of the above Valuable Particulars of which will appear in the ments.

WM. MARSH & S Auctioneers

Cork, 10th Sept., 1862.

The Rev. J. W. Da

INFORMATION is requested of a man, who returned to this county since from Australia. Address S. Paper.