DEATHS.

On the 4th inst., at the St. George's Hotel, Albemarle-street, London, Major Godfrey William Henry Maesy, late of H.M.'s 19th Regt. of Foot (Light Infantry). The deceased officer, whose untimely death is deeply lamented by a large circle of relatives and friends, served in the Crimean war, where his health was seriously impaired by the hardships he endured. He obtained, as the well-deserved reward of his services in that trying campaign, a medal and three clasps inscribed with the names of Alma, Inkermann, and Sebastopol. His courage and endurance well earned the distinction. "Virtutis laus aeternum."
