

to execute his contract, he ought to
 I could not afford to give the wages
 by the Corporation; and again, my t they would be subject to threats.
 I understood you to say that they
 the streets.
 ty—He certainly did, Donnell—Mr. Holmes has not perfectund refuses to do so, and he asks you om his engagement. Let us take a tion; that is the short and only way matter.

I have heard from several persons that s hooted in the streets, and I will uncil are the street sweepers of Lime-t, or are those persons who were in ting cheap manure stolen from the ough the instrumentality of Bill, Jack ad Jim, to dictate to us, fearing less to go to Mr. Holmes and give full value they would otherwise get through dis-hear, hear.) I will now move that Mr.
 let out of his contract, and I can only ho will interfere with him in the dis-ty towards the public and towards ey will get themselves into the meshes ch deals with combination, and which unishes those who tamper with it. I that Mr. Holmes perfect his contract, carry it into execution on the 1st of observed that if Mr. Holmes children to town to be educated were they to d if they were where would there be ain them (hear, hear.) Mr. Holmes bly minded man, and he should conld be a terrible thing to see so many wn out of employment without any supporting their families being pro(hear, hear.) All these men and ould be thrown on the rates (hear.) ahony said that he was old enough to there was always great difficulty in department of public affairs. The on Peacocke was speaking to him the he mentioned the abominable state of which were in such a state of filth that leacon) said that he would not be r the health of the city (hear, hear.) Holmes gave employment to some veeppers it would be doing a good act, utities were given to the old mer, he

 f the act of parliament sanctioned it,
 aware it used to be done by the St.
 sh Commissioners, and no citizen or grumbled at it (hear, hear.) Quinlivan suggested that full powers ven to No. 2 Committee to carry out the e city.
 ehly said that, whilst he would loudly
 the dirty state of the city, and would adopt any remedy that would remove he could not refrain from asking the e the citizens of Limerick to be put idation, and he would not be dischargby any single act of his he recognised and he would therefore vote for the e contract entered into by Mr Holmes.

At Woolwich, the wife of Captain Nangie, Royal Army, of a daughter.
 At Brighton, the wife of Major T. H. Sibley, Bengal Staff Corps, prematurely, of a son.
 At Upper Norwood, Surrey, the wife of J. Marshall, Esq., M.D., of a son.
 At Wood-green-common, Tottenham, the wife of Lewis Phillips, Esq., of a son.
 At Nice, the wife of Charles B. Mulville, Esq., late Captain 3rd Dragoon Guards, of a daughter.
 At Hawkes' Bay, New Zealand, the wife of Purvis Russell, Esq., J.P., of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

At Templemore Church, Captain T. C. Dench, R.N., Knight of the Legion of Honor, Inspecting Commander of Coast Guards, Kinsale, to Fanny, daughter of George R. Lloyd, Esq., Skehana House, Templemore.
 At Kilfane, county Kilkenny, the Rev. James Morton, Rector of St. Colman's, parish of Farraghy, diocese of Cloyne, to Lavinia Mary, daughter of the late Henry A. Bushe, Esq., of Glencairn Abbey, county Waterford.
 At Rathfarnham Church, county Dublin, Charles Cuddy, Esq., to Elizabeth Gertrude, daughter of James Speer, Esq., of Roscommon.
 At St. Anne's Church, Belfast, Mr. David Rodney, Belfast, to Jane, daughter of Thomas Savage, Esq., Lisburn.
 At St. Luke's Church, Cheltenham, S. H. Barton, Esq., son of the late William Barton, Esq., of Grove, county Tipperary, and nephew of the late, and cousin of the present Lord Dunally, to Mary Eliza, daughter of Major Frobisher, Lansdowne-place, Cheltenham, J.P. and D.L. for the county of Gloucester.

DEATHS.

At Dunmanway, county Cork, John Heazle, Esq.
 At Great George's-street, Cork, Jane, wife of Mr. James Long.
 At Glengarra, county Cork, Clementina Emily, the infant daughter of Robert H. Dring, Esq.
 At New York, George H. Ivers, late of the city of Limerick, in the 45th year of his age.
 At Lower Leeson-street, Dublin, Major-General Henry Smith, of Baltiboy's, county Wicklow, late of H.M.'s Indian Army.
 At Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Margaret Teresa, wife of J. E. Williams, Esq., Inspector-General Army Medical Department.
 At Kingstown, the Rev. George Needham, Rector of Ballynure, county Wicklow.
 At Drumcondra, county Dublin, Lydia, relict of the late Henry Greene, Esq., of Kilkea, county Kildare.
 At Harcourt-street, Dublin, Robert R. Murphy, son of Mr. Charles Stuart Murphy, of Newgrove-avenue, Sandymount.
 In Dublin, Isabella, relict of the late Robert Lynch Power, Esq., Barrister-at-law.
 At Great Brunswick-street, Dublin, Edward M. Bermingham, Esq.
 At Harold's-cross, near Dublin, Mr. John Jellicoe.
 In Dublin, Isabella Jane, widow of the late John Martley, Esq., Q.C., of Rutland-square, formerly Chairman of the county of Cork.
 At Ballickmoyler, Queen's County, Denis May, Esq.
 At Sunnyside, Carlow, Louisa Courtauld Haughton, widow of the late James Haughton, Esq.
 At Moneymore, John Rowley Miller, Esq.
 Emilie Blanche, wife of W. Stoker, Esq., and daughter of the late George Rous Keogh, Esq., of Kilbride, county of Carlow.
 At Newbridge, Miss Marcella Corcoran, of Broadford, co. Kildare.
 Miss Rebecca Gurd, daughter of Wm. Gurd, Esq., Stradbally, Queen's County.
 At Regent's-park, London, the Right Hon. Lady Forbes, of Castle Forbes, Aberdeenshire.
 Commander Osborne William Dalyell, R.N., son of Sir William Cunningham Cavendish Dalyell, Bart., of Binns.
 At Stafford, Adam Vesey Colclough, son of Patrick S. Colclough, late of Anneville, Queen's County.
 At Kensington, Benjamin Lutens, Major, late of the 11th Light Dragoons, and one of the few survivors of those who served in Egypt under Ralph Abercrombie in 1801.
 At St. Leonard's-on-Sea, Charles Bartleet, Esq., of Sarbiton, Surrey, J.P. for the county of Worcester.
 Dr. Ody, of Market Harborough, Leicestershire.
 At Srompting, near Worthing, Bago Offley, son of the late John Offley Crawe Read, Esq., D.L., J.P., of Llandinam Hall, Montgomeryshire.

DISENGAGED, and a GROOM or COACH
 perfectly understands his busin especially the training of you
 the care of vehicles and harr Advertiser holds long and
 and will be highly recommen
 Address "T.O.R.," Groom, CHRONICLE.
 December 30.

TROUSERS

NOTHING can exceed the fit of Trousers in PAYNE'S (late of Brown
 George's-street, Limerick.
 The Stock of Fancy Go article of Gentlemen's Costu varied.
 The Sackville-street Trou
 mended.
 December 6.

Lloyd's LL
SIX YEA

IS now admitted to Whiskey in the S
 Purchasers of Five
 allowed a cash discou
 can be had only at LIMERICK.

WM. L

December 9.

General C

THE PROVINC
 50, CATHERINE-ST
AN Ordinary on Busin Sundays at E.
 July 19, 1862.

County of Li

THE Board of Superi
 Meeting on Saturd
 proceed to elect a Matron
 £40 per annum with quart Candidates to lodge their nials with the Govern
 o'Clock on the above day
 to attend in person.
 Applications to be ma
Matronship."
 Dec. 30.