

AIRS REVERSED!—A Mr. John near Athy, in the county of Kildare for trial at the next quarter court, on a charge of attempting to Mr. James Nolan"!! by firing at him, the act being the result of an t land.

nts arising from the carelessness of mentioned in the provincial papers.— lebon, residing near Montpellier, me from shooting, rode part of the ch was going towards his house. he foolishly laid hold of the muzzle it towards him when the hammer ng, and the piece going off killed A young man, residing at Soustons placed his gun under a bush took it way, when a twig caught in the o died from the effects of the wound charge.

has appointed Professor Simonds oner to inquire into the origin and x in sheep with a view to an im- order in council to check its further s from Wiltshire state that the ng further progress in the flocks in recent investigation at the Water- as been a complete exoneration of an, the master and matron, from s made against them by the assist- for his outrageous conduct in the ice dismissed from his office. This sted in Kilkenny, where Mr. Ryan own to be deemed wholly incapable eedings as those falsely charged inmates in the workhouse of Borris- that of Roscrea.

INFUX OF FISH.—Within the as been on our immediate shores fish from the sea coast as has been 1 within the memory of that most ine-honoured personage—the oldest -waters have been literally swarming enizens of the "deep, deep sea." In multitudinous abundance they have nd yet we have no sufficient means a great Providential gift avail- y for present but for future pro- The particulars which have m most unmistakable and reli- are really marvellous. A gentl-man ents we can place the utmost reliance, ng at the George Hotel, Kinsale, on wing room windows of which overlook d waters of which rise close alongside s the waters were literally alive with s, pursued in by larger fish who leaped to light upon them, their pursuit being ven the smaller fry in towards the ig fish were cod, hake, and conger statement was, that you might only ls or baskets into the water, and way in millions. If proper appli- available, there could be no counting oftable income might be realized e. From another and equally reliable a that one day of the present week the eenstown was literally so inundated e we can best convey the matter by age of our informant, a most intelligent l the son of a magistrate residing in He says:—"I caught twenty-three iller lines, and gave them away to and as for the quantity of scads, am that I caught they were beyond The bream, a delicious fish, were eat abundance by the Queenstown nest realising if it might be said nation, the scriptural history of the ft of fishes. On Sunday at Agbada the owed into the shore with living fish, and suddenly left the sandy beach covered t is to be hoped that some adequate ex- promptly made to utilize this great way of superabundance of wholesome rovidence has sent to our very doors; bundance which it indicates in the way , along with the excellent harvest which as been already assured to us, will be hankfully availed of.—Cork Reporter.

On the 9th inst., at Lower Sherrard-street, Dublin, the wife of William Ellard, Esq., of a daughter.
At Cold Ashby, Northampton, the wife of the Rev. Henry O'Donnell, of a son.
At Kilmurry, county Cork, the wife of the Rev. Edward G. Jones, of a daughter.
At Patrick-st., Cork, the wife of Mr. John Morgan Smyth, of a daughter.
At Kildare-place, Dublin, the wife of the Rev. Alexander Leeper, of a daughter.
At Burlington-road, Dublin, the wife of Lieut. Yardley, 56th Royal County Down Regt., of a daughter.
At Arklow, the wife of Joseph Holmes, Esq., A.B., T.C.D., of a daughter.
At Monaghan, the wife of Captain Henderson, Adjutant Monaghan Militia, of a daughter.
At Tandragee, the wife of Alexander Patton, Esq., M.D., of a daughter.
The wife of John H. Farrell, Esq., proprietor of the Fort- down News, of a son.
At Belvedere, Eritth, Kent, the wife of Humphrey J. G. Atkinson, Esq., Assistant-Surgeon, of a daughter.
At Lambton Castle, the Countess of Durham, of a daughter.
At Buxton, the wife of John Galloway, Esq., of Rutland-square, Dublin, of a son.
At York, the wife of Gurney Hanbury, Esq., 10th Hussars, of a son.
At Rochester, the wife of Capt. H. N. Kippen, 12th Regt., of a son.
At Poona, Bombay, the wife of Captain Plomer, Bombay Staff Corps, of a daughter.
At Foo-chow-foo, China, the wife of C. A. Sinclair, Esq., H.B.M.'s Consul, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Yesterday morning, at St. Michael's Church, by the Rev. Henry Peacocke, James Seward, Esq., of Kilkree, co. Clare, to Sophia, second daughter of the late William Tisdall, Esq., of this city.
In Castlemacadam Church, county of Wicklow, the Rev. Richard Galbraith, of Bombay, to Emma Jane, daughter of Edward Barnes, Esq., of Ovoca Lodge, Ovoca, county of Wicklow.
In the Cathedral, Londonderry, the Rev. Joseph Rawlins, Episcopal Incumbent of Kinlochmoidart, Inverness, to Eleanor, daughter of Joseph E. Miller, Esq., M.D., of London-derry.
At Clontarf Church, Richard, son of Joseph Bradley, Esq., of Woodville, to Maria, daughter of Thomas King, Esq., of Bellevue, county Dublin.
At Rathfarham Church, county Dublin, James Evans, Esq., Killeole, to Lavinia, daughter of the late George Blake, Esq., Portsea, Hants.
At Lissan Church, Thomas Waggett, of Courtmac-Sherry, Esq., son of the late Rev. Thomas Waggett, of Rathelarin, county Cork, to Catherine, daughter of the late Samuel Rankin Magill, of Cookstown, county Tyrone, Esq., J.P.
At St. George's, Hanover-square, London, Tristram Kennedy, Esq., late M.P. for Louth, to Helen, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Graham, of Cossington House, Somerset.
In St. Mary's, Liverpool, Joseph Harrison Emerson, Esq., of Eccles-street, Dublin, to Jane Nannie, daughter of the late Edward Brady, Esq., of Navan.
At St. James's, Piccadilly, London, the Rev. G. Davenport Whitehead, preacher of Lincoln, to Marian Russell, daughter of the late Colonel Wilford, H.E.I.C.S.
At Enfield, Middlesex, John William Clayton, Esq., late Captain 13th Light Dragoons, to Charlotte Mary Henrietta, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Henry Somerset.
At Kew, James William, son of the late James Nuttlebury, Esq., M.D., Inspector-General of Hospitals, to Catherine Elizabeth Stanley, daughter of the late Major Duff, 37th Regt. Madras Native Infantry.
At Horsham, Townley P. H. M. Filgate, Esq., 18th Hus- sars, to Tryphena Elizabeth, daughter of W. R. Seymour Fitz-Gerald, Esq., M.P., of Holbrook.
At Abbott's Leigh, Somerset, William Augustus Ferguson Davie, son of Sir H. F. Davie, Bart., to Frances Harriett, fifth daughter of Sir W. Miles, Bart.; and at the same time and place, Robert Thornhagh Gurdon, son of Brampton Gurdon, Esq., of Letton, Norfolk, to Harriott Ellen, sixth daughter of Sir W. Miles.
At St. John's Church, Pembroke Dock, the Rev. Stephen H. Jacob, R.N., of H.M.S. Majestic, to Sarah, daughter of the late Robert Harwood, Esq., of H.M.'s Dockyard, Pem- broke.

DEATHS.

At Lower Fitzwilliam-street, Dublin, in the 79th year of her age, Dora, relict of the late Robert Langford, Esq., of Green Park, county Limerick.
September 8th, Nannie, daughter of the Right Hon. John O'Hagan, Attorney-General for Ireland.
At Lota Park, Glanmire, Cork, Alice, youngest child of Lieut.-Colonel Ludlow Beamish.
At Clonakilty, county Cork, Martha, wife of Mr. John C. Spiller.
At Fitzgibbon-street, Dublin, Mrs. Payne, relict of the late Captain John Payne, 45th Regt.
At Lower Gloucester-street, Dublin, John Barnett, Esq., Surgeon, Balla Dispensary, county Mayo, son of the Rev. Dr. Barnett, of Moneymore.
At Blackrock, county Dublin, Isabella Jane, wife of John Pemberton, Esq.
At Amiens-street, Dublin, the Rev. Bernard M'Donald, R.C. curate of St. Paul's parish, in that city.
At Sydney-terrace, Merrion, Dublin, Sarah Josephine, daughter of John Creagh Russell, Esq.
At Atheny, county Galway, Mrs. Burke.
At Lowestoft, Suffolk, James T. Hayes, of the "London City Mission," and late of Cork.
At Petermaritzburg, in the colony of Natal, South Africa, Charles Highmore Haupt, son of Colonel Potts, late of the 19th Regt.
In New York, Margaret, relict of Samuel Longworth, Esq., of Annewick, county Westmeath.
At Chantilly, Oise, France, Sarah, relict of the late Captain Prentice, of Halsead, Essex.

rosewood and satin-wood chairs, upholstered in the richest silk and embroidered work; loungers, settees and ottomans to correspond, beautiful plume pattern arm chairs, ensuite, with hangings of the same expensive material, ladies' secretaries and deventports, in walnut and maple, very rich old sideboard and recess cabinet in ebony, highly mounted in ormulo and buhl, pair of exhibition tables of extreme beauty, genuine Turkey, Wilton and Brussels carpetting, richly bordered, (scarcely soiled); two splendid cottage piano fortes, full compass and brilliant tone, by Collard and Collard; a set of six high-backed chairs, pair of cabinet and boudoir tables, of exquisite finish, inlaid in old marquetric; fine pieces of old carvings, old china, some very beautiful specimens of Bohemian glass, in lustres, centres, bowls, &c. Interchanging chairs and tables, bronze and bright burnished fenders and firesteels a very splendid pair of gilt tripods, finely carved, in the time of Louis Quinze, standing seven feet, eight inches, constructed for five wax lights; a very handsome pair of Cabriole-shaped chairs, and hand-carved table, all en suite, elegantly gilt, made in the time of Queen Anne, handsome paper stands, with looking glass backs, &c.

The library, dining, reception room, and ante room, contained solid carved Giga oak and Domingo mahogany furniture, including a very massive and exquisitely finished set of dining tables with twenty-four chairs, a splendid sideboard, supporting a brilliant plate glass back, a pair of elaborately carved book cases, all to correspond, of superior manufacture; chairs in fine morocco leather and hair cloth, with couches and indulging chairs to match; a prime set of economy dining tables, in four parts; richly carved console and pedestal sideboard, with sarcophagus and plate buckets; dumb waiter and dinner waggons, wine celerets and lock-ups, butler's trays and stands, rare old carved presses and dwarf book cases.

The full appointment of Nine State Bed Rooms, comprising elaborately carved massive Four-post, Albert and French bedsteads, trimmed to match the window curtains; French wool and curled hair mattresses, goose feather beds, and first-class bedding, including about thirty pair of first quality blankets, recently purchased, and some of which were never used; counterpanes, quilts, and linen sheeting, double and single mahogany wardrobes, with and without plate-glass doors; talboys, chest of drawers, marble tray, dressing and toilet glasses, cheval glass, marble-topped wash tables, elegantly furnished with toilet ware; chamber tables and chairs, bedroom loungers, with an extensive assortment of articles, suitable for sixteen secondary rooms, including japanned iron, French and crib bedsteads, with appropriate bedding, &c.; painted wardrobes, housekeepers' presses.

The Grand Hall, Entrance and Back Hall Stair-cases, Corridor and China Closet, contained some finely executed articles of sculpture, in fine statuary marble on pedestals, cabinet tables, chairs, tarpaulin (almost new); stair carpeting and rods, brass plates, landing, table, and lobby lights, long and short dinner services of gold burnished china, richly cut glass, table cutlery (by Whitstone, Dublin); Sheffield plated ware, with an endless variety of other effects.

This property will be arranged in the above spacious rooms, and open for the inspection of intending purchasers,

ON SATURDAY THE 20th, MONDAY THE 22nd, and on the Morning of TUESDAY the 23rd.

Admission to view by card only, which may be had at the office of the Auctioneer, who will also forward circulars containing additional particulars to those applying for them. Attention is respectfully invited to the three grand specimens of old tapestry, which exquisite objects it is asserted formed a portion of the Furniture of the Tuilleries in the apartments occupied by Marie Antoniette. They represent the visit of Alexander to Diogenes, Plato reasoning with his Pupils, and a smaller Tapestry, Diogenes contemplating the ruins of Mortality. In these the figures are full size, and the colours most brilliant, and in fine preservation.

Sale on WEDNESDAY the 24th at 12 o'Clock.
JOHN BERNAL,
Auctioneer, Limerick and Ennis.

Who respectfully notifies that the sole reason for suppressing the name of the owner of this property is the peculiar circumstances under which it has been placed in his hand for disposal.

This will also prevent any other articles being sold at this Auction but the Genuine effects above mentioned.
Sept. 6.

plenty of Turbery, a strong through the centre, it is bou the famous Fishing Lake of Mount Allen is within 2 Mills, 3 of Broadford, 10 of Mile Bridge, a station on the of Railway, and from its ele a full view of the picturesque

- STOCK AND FAR
- No. 1 Grey Horse, 4 years in harness,
  - 2 Brown Horse 6 off,
  - 3 Bay Mare, 8 years nass,
  - 4 Donkey, Cart and 1
  - 5 30 Fat Sheep,
  - 6 16 Dairy Cows on Calv,
  - 7 2 One-act
  - 2 Superior Breeding 4 Store Pigs,
  - 8 3 Weanling Calves,
  - 9 14 Acres of Oats in
  - 10 7 Acres of Barley as
  - 11 5 do. of Swedish T heavy crop,
  - 12 2 do of Leather-coa of disease to the pr
  - 13 Ten Hundred of 1 Ten Tons of Uplar

FARMING IMP-
Two Tumbling Carts, 2 Dray Carts with Creels, Dc 2 Drill Turnip Sewing Machine, Weights and Troughs, Drainage and Qu Barrows, Saddles, Turnip Wire Pailing, &c., &c.
One Excellent SIDE CAR

HOUSEHOLD
The Drawing-room c Piano, by Broadwood & S in suit, Rocking & Easy Table, 2 Card Tables, Mah some Cabinet and Bookca Machie Trays and Table 1 and Prints, Clock, Oil, Pa Suits of Damask Window derminster Carpet, 20 x 2 and Fire Steels, Chimney
THE P
Contains Set of Mahoga Morning and Evening Chi Tea Service, handsome 1 Chairs, in Morocco, Lou Easy Chair, 2 Suits Mer Blinds, Kidderminster C Rug, Fender and Fire Ste Prints, Portable Bagatelle

THE B
Contains Chairs, 8-day Stand, Tarpaulin, Two Lamp, Stair Rods, and C

Of which there are seve French and Albert Bedste Hair Mattresses, Mahoga Mahogany and other Dre Glasses, Towel Airers, Carpets, Fenders and Ste tains and Blinds, Chest c

THE KITCHE
Contains Set of Dinner Decanters, Tumblers Beer Glasses, Salad J Bottles, Cruit Stan Covers, Meat Tubs, Te Roaster and Jack, Bra Copper and Metal Sauce Salters, Spring Balance and a quantity of Sund Utensils, &c., &c.

The usual commission addition to the bidding.
MICHAEL I

PROGRAMME OF SA
Mount Allen, Corn Cro door Effects Second da A Pair Horse Car will morning at 10 o'Clock fe