

HAYES—Having yesterday (Saturday) conversed with most of the leading officials connected with the County and resident on the borders of the County in a position to state that no solid creabouts of Hayes was communicated authorities from the day he murdered in the hotel at Tipperary, up to the Further, it is stated that the police-reported as having seen Hayes near about a fortnight since, and was afraid because of his being armed with a re-tally mistaken in his identification of t would appear that Hayes is now out capture, as his family and friends, who e time downcast and dispirited, dread-est, have recently become cheerful l, visibly denoting that they know he grasp of his pursuers—Limerick Corres-ponder's News Letter.

THE MURDERER.—A man bearing a strong to Hayes, the murderer of the late Mr. addell, was arrested in this city yesterday le was pointed out on the South-mall by a o Sub-constable Courtney, who accordingly to custody. The man gave his name as zhan, of Ballincollig. He is a person of five years of age, stand about 5 feet 11 ight, and in many ways resembles Hayes. en to the Bridewell, however, he was y one of the keepers there as a person who rked on the Cork and Youghal Railway.—idiation.

MERICK CHRONICLE would be the first Ireland likely to be apprised of the arrest of aptured in any part of the kingdom, but no the fugitive has reached this office. The Hayes has succeeded in effecting his America gains ground.

ABDUCTION.—An extraordinary case of child occurred in the village of Castlemaine, Co. t week. It appears that some time in the he night, between Tuesday and Wednes-ife of a dying tradesman was watching be- k husband, when her attention was caught nd of wheels passing rapidly through that he went to her door and looked out, and in et a flood of light stream into the streets. ticed a covered car passing along towards , this satisfied her curiosity; she drew back the door. Almost immediately after she sound of the car returning, and it stopped her house. In a few minutes the woman cry of an infant at the door, and on opening female infant about a month old rolled up el, but saw no signs of the car.

rsday morning as the down train from Dub-ast was passing the crossings at Altnaveagh, arly thrown off the line by having come in ith two large stones, over 5 cwt., which were the rails. One of the lifeguards was broken, out three o'clock, as the up train was pass- he same place, the engine driver observed es placed across the line, but he could not me. The train passed over them, breaking ifeguards. On the train having been stopped, ad was observed running away. He was pur- arrested, and handed over to the police.

At Usher's-quay, Dublin, the wife of Michael Sherry, Esq., of a daughter.

In Belfast, the wife of John Orr, Esq., of a daughter.

At Loop Cottage, Belfast, the wife of W. H. Moreland, Esq., of a daughter.

At Carrickfergus, the wife of Captain John Carroy, of a son.

At Bedford, Essex, the Hon. Mrs. Henry Petre, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

On Saturday, the 20th, at the Church of the Spanish Em- bassy, Spanish-place, London, by the Rev. Canon Hunt, J. F. Hickie, Esq., Captain The Royal Fusiliers, youngest son of the late William Hickie, Esq., of Killeton, county Kerry, to Lucilla, daughter of Lefior Don Pablo Larios, of La Castilla, Malaga, and Gibraltar.

At Ardferd Church, county Kerry, John George Hewson, Esq., of Askeaton, county Limerick, to Henrietta Jane, only daughter of Captain Henry Hilliard, of Tubrid, co. Kerry.

In Tralee, Denis F. O'Driscoll, Esq., Inspector of National Schools, to Ellie, daughter of Martin Crean, Esq.

In St. Peter's Church, Dublin, Alexander Stewart Newco- men, Esq., son of Arthur Newcomen, Esq., Tuam, to Isabella Grace, daughter of the late Rev. John Toler, of Kentstown Glebe, county Meath.

At Castlebar, James Faulkner, Esq., of Castlebar, to Maria Teresa, daughter of the late Thomas Walsh, Esq., of the same place.

At Dysart-Enos Church, Alexander Eagar, Esq., to Elvira Ellen, daughter of William Deverelle, Esq., Raheen, Queen's County.

At Newcastle, co. Wicklow, Robert, son of James Browne, Esq., of Dublin, to Georgina Frances, daughter of James Newel, Esq., of Newtownmountkennedy.

In the Cathedral, Tuam, William Quinn, Esq., of Tuam, to Eliza, daughter of Andrew Egan, Esq., architect.

In St. Anne's Church, Belfast, Mr. Alexander Gray, Belfast, to Ellen, daughter of Mr. Andrew Murray, Holywood.

In Bellaghy Church, near Belfast, William Kelly, Esq., Sandymount, to Lucy, daughter of David Kelly, Esq., Castle- dawsion.

At Collettes, Department Loir et Cher, France, Charles Kelly, Esq., Q.C., of Newtown, county Galway, and Fitz- william-square, Dublin, to Bertha, daughter of Count and Countess de Buisseret, of le Bois-selas, Department Loir et Cher, and of Versailles.

In St. Peter's Church, Kensington-park, London, Frederick Pelham, son of Captain Toler Rowley, to Rebecca Eliza, daughter of the late John Stephens, Esq., of Adelaide, South Australia.

At Haughton-le-Skerne, near Darlington, the Rev. Henry E. Bell, Vicar of Loughoughton, Northumberland, to Mary, daughter of the Rev. Rowland Webster, Vicar of Kelloe, Rural Dean and Honorary Canon of Durham.

DEATHS.

At Corfu, on the 10th inst., Charles Robert, the infant son of Colonel Elmhirst, Commanding 2nd Battalion 9th Regiment.

At Cheltenham, Eyre Edmond, only son of Thomas Lloyd, Esq., and grandson of Eyre Lloyd, Esq., of Prospect House, in this county, aged six years.

On the 21st inst., William Bennett, Esq., of Newtown, to the great regret of his immediate family and a numerous circle of friends.

At Rossmore, Francis Mulcahy, Esq., of Neddins, county Tipperary.

On the 17th inst., at Moore-street, Kilrush, the infant son of John Casey, Esq.

At Wood-quay, Galway, Julia, relict of the late Thomas Irwin, Esq., sister of the late Colonel Burke, 63rd Regt., and mother of the late Adjutant Irwin, 12th Light Dragoons.

At Henry-street, Galway, Mr. P. J. Murphy, nephew of the late Mr. P. Comins, T.C., of that town.

At Stranrear, Alicia Angus Talbot, relict of the late J. F. Theil, Esq., Belfast.

In Drogheda, Mr. Henry Bagnell.

At Gilford, county Down, Sarah, daughter of Mr. Robert Wilson, Ballyrobbin, county Antrim.

At Washington, Thomas Walter Coneys, Esq., C.E., son of Joseph Coneys, Esq., C.E., formerly of Tralee.

Washed overboard, from the ship Mary Harrison, in the Indian Ocean, William Thomas Goodwin, son of the Rev. Dr. Goodwin, of Greenwich.

At Marseilles, Arthur Thomas Helme, 96th Regt., son of Robert Helme, Esq., Walthamstow.

Furnitu

John S

HAS instructions from King Lacca, to Sell DAY Next, the 26th Inst useful Furniture, and othe lour and Drawing Room set of Telescope Tables, P Waiter, Hall & Bed Roo Prints and Paintings, Ari Weather Glass, Carpets & lin, Window Curtains, steads, Feather Beds, Ha Quilts, Dressing Tables and Ware, Bedsteads, Cc Bidet, China, Glass, Dini ture, Trunks, &c.

2 Well bred Cows, 2 Oats, Manure, Pony Pl Child's Car, on Springs, Sale at 12 o'Clock.

Auctione

Sept. 20.

Shert

COUNTY OF THE

WILLIAM O'CONNELL, Plaintiff; THADY KELLY, Defendant.

TRIMMER, at Twelve o'Clk Public Auction, at the 25, Denmark-Street, in- lewing Goods and Chat Writ, viz. :—

The Interest in the H a Soap and Candle M with

THE STOCK

Soap, Candle, Blue, S and Scales, Candle and Water Barrels.

HOUSEH

Tables, Chairs, Lou Chimney Glasses, Clocl and Valuable Prints, Piano, Gazalier, Pier Chair, Some Ware, I Beds, and Bed Clothes Tables, and Glasses, B

KITCH

Pots, Pans, Range, Dated this 19th day

ROB

She

1

Te

The above Sale is at September 23, 1862