

prisoner threatened the points on at the boy, who was his own nephew e prisoner, again; and words having e prisoner took up a loaded revolver, nd wounded the prosecutor in the ad a most miraculous escape of his ection raised in the case of the ev- er the pistol went off by accident, or risoner! and the prosecutor having e was always a dutiful well-conducted e a merciful view of the case, and f acquittal.

xpressed his approval of the verdict, he prisoner against taking such a to his hands again under any circum-aged twenty-six, was indicted for irth of her male illegitimate child, re, in this county, on the 13th Au- osecuted the prisoner, who was unde-went to show that the prisoner was a employment of a gentleman named t on the night in question she com- fellow-servants, both before and after f being unwell. In the course of the ner's fellow-servant, who slept in the her, and who went to bed before her, rd the cry of an infant; and having le and asked the prisoner about the was dead or alive? she replied that it e body of the child was found in a tub, r begged of her fellow-servant not to eoured.

der the direction of his lordship, who r that there was sufficient evidence of equitted the prisoner, and she was dis-rd, a young lad, only fifteen years of ted for embezzling 8s. 11d., the pro- Davidson, his employer, at Monkstown, on the 23rd March, 1861, and forging me, &c.

prosecuted, and Mr. W. Johnstone

d that the prosecutor was a dairy- the prisoner was in his employment, e habit of delivering milk to the inha- ketown, and receiving payment for it f the prosecutor. The practise of the o payments was to give the prisoner nd receipts weekly for the customer, r prisoner's duty to get the money and n for it; and the charge in the present the prisoner forged receipts, and con- ceeds to his own use. There were nents against the prisoner. rnvicted him, and his Lordship said that his youth he would endeavour to have reformatory.

c, one of the Cork magistrates, sentenced r," named Daniel Crawley, to four months' with hard labour, and at the expiration l, to give security to keep the peace, or be further imprisoned for six months. rtrates at Castlebar petty sessions have money demanded by a driver of a hired ee, is not a legal demand only one of ay be refused and is not recoverable; it ax upon the generosity and pockets of ad should be discontinued. The ed cars should pay their servants.

by the Rev. James Madigan, Timothy Madigan, Esq., of Shanagolden, to Beasia, daughter of Patrick O'Brien, Esq., Derrish, Foynes.

In Dublin, John Lamb, Esq., Eglinton-terrace, Philshoro', to Miss Mary Anderson Mills, niece of John Ruttle, Esq., Tralee.

At St. Stephen's Church, Dublin, Thomas Digby Johns, Esq., of Belgrave-square, Rathmines, to Harriette Maria, daughter of Charles French, Esq., of Dublin.

In St. Michael's Church, Castletown, Peter, son of the late James Cogan, Esq., of Oxfield House, county Meath, to Margaret, daughter of the late Simon Fagan, Esq., of Castletown, county Westmeath.

In St. Anne's Church, Belfast, Augustus Charles Badier, to Eliza, daughter of Edward Ring, Esq., Belfast.

In London, the Marquis of Donegal, to Harriet Ashworth, widow of the late Lieutenant-General Sir Frederick Ashworth.

In London, Lord Southampton, to Ismania Catherine Fitz-Roy, daughter of Walter Nugent, Esq., Baron of the Austrian Empire.

In London, Frederick K. H. Cock, Esq., barrister-at-law, to Anne Elizabeth, daughter of Pole Godfrey, Esq., Kensington.

At Bath, Captain E. W. A. Robson, 20th Regiment Madras Army, to Madeline E. Law, daughter of Colonel A. Law, late of the Madras Engineers.

At All Saints, Paddington, Vere Temple Bayly, Esq., Captain 54th Regt., to Lucy Harriett, daughter of William S. Coke, Esq., J.P., of Langton-hill, Notts.

At St. Saviour's, Paddington, William Frederick Robert Perry, Esq., Paymaster Royal Sussex L.I.M., to Wybrow Jane, daughter of William Nelson Sackling, Esq., late of Winnersh Lodge, Berks.

At the Cape of Good Hope, Henry Green, Esq., Civil Commissioner, and late Assistant-Commissary-General, to the Countess Ida Von Eyllenstein.

At Colombo, Ceylon, James D. Tremlett, Esq., of the Bengal Civil Service, to Louisa Helen, daughter of the Hon. Wm. C. Gibson, Colonial Secretary for Ceylon.

DEATHS.

On the 24th of February, at her residence, Cloughanold, Mary, relict of the late James Fitzgerald Massey, Esq., J.P., sincerely regretted by her family and friends.

On Friday last, in Castle-street, Cahir, after a lingering attack of bronchitis, Mr. Charles Cody, an old and much respected inhabitant of that town.

At Upper Leeson-street, Dublin, John Pritter-Head, late Captain in the Queen's Royal Lancers, and second son of the Dean of Killala.

At Brookview, Killala, William Erskine, third son of the Very Rev. the Dean of Killala.

At Rostrevor, the Lady Florence Balfour.

At Blackrock, Dublin, Thomas Nixon, Esq., Captain in the Fermanagh Militia.

At St. Michael's College, Aylsham, John Joseph Ellis Sweeny, son of the late Lieut.-Colonel Welbore Ellis Sweeny, of Burlington-road, Dublin.

At Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin, Jane, daughter of Richard Williamson, Esq.

At Wellington-road, Dublin, Jane Agnes Smith Anne Carnegie Savage, daughter of the late Christopher Savage, Esq., of Douglas, Isle of Man.

At Beggot-street, Dublin, Margaret, relict of Captain Wesley Percival, R.N.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, Maria, relict of the late Capt. Blust, R.N.

At Burgh-quay, Dublin, Miss Caroline Maguire.

In Dublin, Warham Jemmett, son of Rev. M. J. Shaw.

At Londonderry, Daniel Baird, Esq., J.P.

At Holywood, near Belfast, Alexander Crozier, Esq., Lieut. Royal North Down Militia.

At Pricesthill, Belfast, Mr. Joseph Watson.

At Tandragee, Mary Jane, wife of the Rev. James Bell.

At Gibraltar, Lieut. Ferdinand H. Solly Flood, R.N., son of Frederick Solly Flood, Esq., of Slaney Lodge, Wexford, and of the Temple, London.

At Grove House, near Bristol, Mary, widow of the late Rev. Robert Hume, Rector of Urney, county Tyrone.

Suddenly, at Bedgebury-park, the Rev. James Murray, incumbent of St. Andrew's Church, Wells-street, London.

Seats, Stairs, Columns and Altar Columns, Caps, and Sanctuary and Altar Railing Flooring Boards and Joists, About 4,000 Feet of Rafted Purlins, Window Frames, Sashes and 3 Cut Stone Door Ways, Gable Balfry, Cut Stone Porch, An immense quantity of S &c., &c., all of which will be sold in Lots to The above Sale will present a variety to those about building Houses, &c. Sale at 12 o'Clock, S P. COLEMAN March 5th, 1862.

Important Auction

CHARLES O'HARA

Will offer for Sale, by Auction the 12th March next, at Roche's Street, 3,193 Pieces of Deals, yellow and red, just land Quebec. The quality is very superior range from 8 to 16 feet in length inches in breadth, and the greater part consisting of Deals, Plank, and Balfrey.

Also, the residue of the Cargo consisting of Deals, Plank, and Balfrey. Sale at 12 o'Clock.—No Auctioneer PETER McCORMACK

C. O'HARA & SON have on Sale Pine, 300 Tons Red Pine, 25 Tons Elm, and 30 Tons of Ash, Pipe, and Sawed and Split Laths, of the prime quality. Sold at very Moderate Prices.

A quantity of Paling Staves at Wholesale prices, under first cost. IRON STORES, UPPER WILMINGTON 6th March.

Limerick and Ennis Rail

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN Half-yearly General Meeting of holders of this Company will be held at the Term of Parliament, at the Term SATURDAY, the 29th day of March, the hour of HALF-PAST ONE o'clock, to receive and consider the Statement of Accounts of the half-year ending the 31st Decem of Directors and Auditor, and for the ordinary business of the Company. And Notice is hereby further given that a Meeting of the Directors thenceforward to appoint a Committee of Proprietors for all Meetings of the Company shall be held pursuant to the Statute in that behalf made. House of Parliament.

The Share and Transfer Book will be closed on and from Saturday, including Saturday, the 29th March. By order of the Directors J. Limerick, 1st March, 1862.