THE ALLEGED MURDERER.

GH, Aug. 12.— There is very little reason Hayes has been for some days past wanhe Kilcommon mountains, at no consice from this village, and that he has on is been hard pressed by the constabulary, ent that they will before long make him justice. Hayes is continually accompaung man who remains upon the watch natches the brief repose which he is allowed movements of the police. The young ion has nover left Hayes since the time lipperary town, in the neighbourhood of observed, on the evening of the murder, es in his flight across the country, helping tes, ditches, &c. The peasantry readily urderer, and even in the hearing of the nly give vent to such expressions as the 'Twould be a great pity the poor fellow : he behaved a great soldier, and a true persecuted tenantry of Ireland - Comin fair, held on Tuesday, was but thinly Animal of good quality brought stock.

sault was committed on a quiet, inoffenin named John Kenna, whilst walking Barrack-street, Nenagh. He was struck y an iron bar, wielded by a fellow named n of a process server, who has been fully lice Court, John Lyons, Michael Carroll, illivan, were sentenced to a month's imch, two of them for being members of Militia, and subsequently enrolling into st Volunteers, and one for enrolling into Militia, he at the time being a member Coast Volunteers. Mr. Marshall, who talf of the latter service, said that within nonths he had fifty similar indictments men, some of whom had fraudulenty re-£13 each.

JLT OF INCAUTIOUSLY PAIRING CORNS. onng man named William Craig, aged ears, a member of the Belinuliet Conne by his death under the following cumstances. On Sunday morning, the deceased, being very much troubled commenced paring one under the little t foot; whilst doing so, he accidentally on, causing for the momenthemorrhage le extent; not thinking it of any imleceased dressed, put on a light pair of ended divine service. Next morning, ries leading from the toe, along the in-, and up to the body, became much liscoloured, causing a morbid heat all Doctor Mullauny having been called, ly remedy that could be of any avail, applications." But all to no purpose, in, and on the third day, his whole ivid; whilst the source from which it ented scarcely any appearance of in-9th day after the occurrence, the abderollen, and the body quite discoloured, suffering the most intense pain, and cony .- Maye Constitution.

At Austoro, Austommon, the wife of James Gaynor, Esq., of a son.

In London, the Hon. Mrs. Henry Campbell, of a daughter. At South-street, London, the Viscountess Hardinge, of a daughter.

At Dartmouth, the wife of Col. C. Hogge, Royal Artillery, of a daughter

At Portland, the wife of W. E. Buller, Esq., late of the 14th Light Dragoons, of a son.

At Sabathoo, the wife of Fitz-Roy Wilson, Esq., Licut. 2nd Batt. Riffe Brigade, of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

On Tuesday, August 12th, at Mooresfort, by the Most Rev. Dr. Leahy, Architshop of Cashel, Captain George Augustus Vaughan, second son of the Hon. George L. Vaughan, to Laura Mary, youngest daughter of Charles Moore. Esq., of Mooresfort, county of Tipperary, and of Fulwood Park, Liverpool.

Liverpool.

August 12th, at the Catholic Church of Doon, by the Rev. P. Hickey, Southwell Moore Mulcahy, Esq., Coolnamona, to Margaret, daughter of Patrick Kilbride, Esq., Toomaline, county Limerick. [No cards sent.]

At the Parish Church, Clifton, F. Bernard Servington, son of F. Bernard Beamish, Esq., M.P., and the Hon. Mrs. Beamish, to Miss Broadley, daughter of Colonel Broadley, of Belle Vuel county Cork.

mish, to Miss Broadley, daughter of Colonel Broadley, of Belle Vue, county Cork.

In St. Luke's Church, Cork, Henry Wellington Hartford, Esq., 21st Fusiliers, to Isabella, daughter of the late Thomas Fitton, Esq., solicitor, of Bloomfield, near Cork.

At the Roman Catholic Church of St. Mary's, Clonmel, Mr. Michael Ryan, of Clonmel, to Miss Mary J. Nugent, daughter of the late Mr. Fichard Nugent, of Waterford, merchant.

At Research Church, county Galway, George Charles Hale, Esq., Knowsley, to Bessie Annet Eyre, daughter of the late John Eyre, Esq., Eyrecoart Castle, county Galway.

At St. Mary's Church, Dublin, Matthew Cane, Esq., to Sarah, daughter of Henry Davis, Esq.

As Galtrim House, Bray, county Wicklow, Captain Edward Denne Nares, son of the Rev. E. R. Nares, Rural Dean, Rector of Wittersham, and Vicar of Bremett, Kent, to Margaret Grace, daughter of Alexander Boyle, Esq.

Rector of Wittersham, and Vicar of Brensett, Rent, to Margaret Grace, daughter of Alexander Boyle, Esq.

At the Wesleyan Chapel, Lower Abbey street, Dublin, Mr. Robert McMahon, of Ballycanew, to Miss Anna Maria Fannin, daughter of the late Mr. Henry Fannin, of Bublin.

At the Roman Catholic Church, Maryborough, Dominick Dillon, Esq., of Boss, Queen's County, to Annie, daughter of the late Michael Kelly, Esq., of Borris, county Carlow.

At Bangor, Edward B. J. Middleton, son of Peter Middleton, of Stockheld Park and Middleton Lodge, Yorkshire, Esq., to Emily Mary Power, daughter of Nicholas Alfred Power, Esq., of Bellevue, county Kilkenny.

DEATHS.

August 11th, in Dublin, Harriette, the beloved wife of John Murray, I.L.B., and granddaughter of the late Rev. Richard Ulyases Mortimer De Burgh, formerly of Dromkeen, county Limerick

At Walcot Cottage, Birr, aged 90 years, Miss Buchanan, daughter of the late Rodolphus Buchanan, Esq., of the King's County.

At Alexo Chapelle, Helen Arundel Hill, daughter of the late Lieut. Colonel Hill, of Clogheen, county Cork.

At Powerstown, county Tipperary, the Rev. Michael Power, R.C.C.

In Castle-street, Nenagh, Mr. John Moylan. At Silver-street, Nenagh, at an advanced age, Mr. John Kennedy.

At Summer-hill, Nenagh, Mr. J. Harding, son of Mr. Wm.

At Sammer-hill, Nenagh, Mr. J. Harding, son of Mr. Wm. Harding, chimney-piece manufacturer.

In Dublin, Mary Anne, relict of the late James Parkinson Boyle, berrister at law.

At Merrion parade, Dublin, Martin, son of the late Michael N. Ryan, Esq., M.D.

At Warrington-piace, Bublin, Catherine, widow of the Ven George Tralogic, Archdescon of Killala.

In Warford, Mrs. Jane Harper, aged 102 years.

At Baltracy, county Kildare, Mrs. Walsh, relict of Samuel Walsh, Esq.

At Bengias, Isle of Man, Bessie Henrietts, daughter of the late Richard William Cosar Colclough Nelson, Esq., surgeon, of Dublin.

At Harwick, Elizabeth Mary Frances, daughter of William P. Keating, Esq., of H. M.'s Customs, London.
At Dilton Court, Wilts, Charles Lewis Phipps, Esq., late Lieut. Colonel of the Royal Wilts Yeomanny Cavairy.
At Portsea, Frederick Furneaux Eversfield, Esq., Paymaster Royal Navy.
At Belgaum, East Indies, Lieut, George Tyler Estridge, 24th Bombay N.I.

June 5.

Notice to I

SEALED TENDERS,
Governors, Limeric Governors, Limerical for the Erection of the Bu according to plans and spe FOGERTY'S Office, 97, Geor received on or before 12 September 6th, 1862.

The Lowest Tender will: August 14.

County Limer

E. A

SPECIAL General J will be held at the tution, on TUESDAY Ne o'Clock, to consider the var Admission of Patients into distribution, the Medical ar question of Chaplaincy for By 0

August 14

SHANNON ROWING

COMMIT The Right Worshipful MICHAEL R. RYAN, Esq. WILLIAM DELANY, Req. LUKE MULLOCK, Esq. Honorary Secretary,

> FIRST D MONDAY, SEI

First Race-Four-oared rowed by Shannon Fisherm cond Prize, £2.

Second Race—Bona-fide rigged. Heats. To be row men. Prize, £10.

Third Race—Angling Co First and Second-class cots First Prize, £2; Second Pri

Fourth Race—Brecauns : £2; Second Prize, £1.

> MICOND TUESDAY, SEI

RACE FOR AMAPEURS IN I the Ev

First Race—Four-oared by Shannon Fishermen. Fi £1 10a,

Second Race-Bona fide rigged), to be rowed by Am winning bost and crew of from this race. Fret Prize

Third Race Angling U First and second-class cots e second do., £1.

The Committee reserve th changes required.

WILL

August 14, 1862.