

om Rome in the Spectator). Rome to tell you, if I can, what really means to its people, bespotism. First, the Jurisprutates belongs to the dark ages. ry, no open trial at all, no Habeas The judges are all the creatures The advocates are mostly venal, social rank. The police are obbers than the brigands them-sonal liberty and property of the unsafe. A man may be arrested the secret information of a spy own into prison without examina- months or years for the chance l itself be a mockery of justice, is judges, he may escape punish- rimes, and if he cannot so bribe alleys for no crime at all. This y to questions of political offence, of San Michiele is at this moment es, many of whom have languished thout trial of any kind, but to crime. Those accused of murder ely tried in less than six or eight not for a year or two after their was seven years in prison before the murder of a cruel husband, urthered his unoffending wife was entation of a bribe of 150 scudi

he absolute corruption of public sy for any man to obtain witnesses wear anything he pleases. A most his purpose is current in Rome. An Mr. F—, had a villa adjoining se A—. One morning the Mar- scovered that a calf belonging to killed. Suspicion fell on a pair of Mr. F—, and the latter imme- o make due restitution when he ed himself that his dogs were the evening, however, he found himself al form to pay the damages for dignant at the Marchese's want ?— at once went to a Roman s, and put the case into his hands. e to go quite my own way? ine; 'for, if otherwise, I fear there is gaining your suit against so power- ve it all with you; do as you please' —, 'I am only anxious not to be y of trial, after vast delay, at length —was not a little amazed (con- as killed at night, no one knew how) sses get upon the side of the prose- they had seen with their eyes the calf dogs, with rough hair and long tails— Mr. F—'s unfortunate setters. Still tonishment when, at the call of the defence, nine 'good men and true' one and all deposed, with all ima- , that they had seen the calf killed s, with smooth hair and short tails, emotest resemblance to the dogs of sequel of the story is almost as aining. The judge after hearing the witnesses, turned to the Marchese, Signor Marchese, that the majority ; against you, I cannot give the cause All that I can do for you is this—I F— thirty scudi for keeping dogs one (of a bad reputation)."

sonorance, by marriage. At Torquay, Thomas Heywood, son of Thomas Heywood, Esq., of Brookfield, Banbridge. At Hope-end, Herefordshire, to Sophie Grace, daughter of the late Stepany St. George, Esq., of Headford, county of Galway. At St. Peter's Church, Eaton-square, London, G. Shambler, Esq., Paymaster R.N., to Betsy Maria, daughter of Edward Duckett, Esq., of Bresby House, Lincolnshire. At Barnstable, Thomas Claridge Manderson, Esq., of the Bengal Engineers, to Margaret Rider, daughter of Richard Budd, Esq., M.D., of Barnstable. At St. Mark's, Kennington, London, Francis H. Simms, Esq., of Montreal, son of James Simms, Esq., late Assistant Judge of Newfoundland, to Frances, daughter of Geo. Cooke, Esq., North Brixton. At the Garrison Chapel, Corfu, Henry John Bower, Esq., Captain 4th (King's Own) Regt., son of Robert Bower, Esq., of Welham, Yorkshire, to Marcia, daughter of the late Thomas Bridge, Esq. At Barbados, J. M'Auley, Esq., Lieutenant and Adjutant 1st West India Regt., to Agnes Stratton, daughter of S. L. Musson, Esq., merchant, of Barbados. At Gogolra, Punjab, Riners Mantell, M.B., Assistant-Surgeon Bengal Army, son of Francis R. Mantell, Esq., of Westover House, Gloucestershire, to Emily Maria, daughter of the late John Bell, Esq., of Annandale, Tasmania.

DEATHS.

On the 15th instant, at 19, Laura-terrace, Bow, London, of heart disease, caught from severe cold, Willie, second son of Joseph Myles, Esq., formerly of this city, a most interesting boy, aged 8 years and 4 months. At Pembroke-place, Dublin, John Charles Lyons, Esq. At Roundtown, Robert Ball, Esq., solicitor, late of College-green, Dublin. At Stephen's-green West, Dublin, Jane, widow of the late George Gibbs, Esq. At Rathgar, Dublin, Isabella, wife of Edwin Grogan, Esq. At Dorset-street, Dublin, Jane, wife of John Meyer, Esq. At Dundrum, county Dublin, Agnes, wife of J. W. Cop-pinger, Esq. At Churchtown House, Dundrum, Mrs. Hannah Busby. At Clontarf, Mary Josephine, the infant daughter of George Kilbride, Esq. At Drumana, county Leitrim, Hugh Gerald Byrne, Esq. At Cranebrook, county Tyrone, Anne, wife of John Cran-ston, Esq. In Belfast, Rosanna, relict of Mr. Hugh A. Young. At the Convent of the Sisters of Charity, New Brunswick, Sarah (in religion Sister Mary Aloysius), daughter of the late James Bury, Esq., of Dublin. Lost in the wreck of the steamer Mars, from Waterford to Bristol, Samuel Baird Bliest, Esq., M.D., formerly of Dublin, and Surgeon in the service of the Peninsular and Oriental Company. At Douglas, Isle of Man, Sophia Clementina, daughter of Major-General A. Abbott, C.B., Bengal Artillery. At Salisbury-road, Edinburgh, William Wemyss, Esq., De-puty Commissary-General. At Buckingham House, Great Malvern, Dr. Peter Niddrie, Surgeon Royal Navy. At Stoke, Devonport, Louisa, relict of the late Captain B. Boyle Thomas, 4th Dragoon Guards. At Reading, Maria Isabella, widow of the late Major-Gen. D. Forbes, C.B., 78th Highlanders. At Cheltenham, Sophia, wife of the Rev. Thomas Wood, late of the Bengal Ecclesiastical Establishment. At Bloomsbury-square, London, J. H. Henderson, Esq. At Hastings, Jane, wife of the Rev. Edmund Saulez, of Tadley, Hants. At Norwood, Surrey, Sir Sitwell Eresby Sitwell, Bart., of Renishaw Hall, Derbyshire. At Park-lane, London, Phillip Albert, the infant son of Mr. and the Hon. Mrs. Egerton. At Hampstead, Elizabeth Palmer, widow of the late Capt. C. M. Palmer, Madras Army. At Hill-street, Berkeley-square, London, Charlotte, sister of Admiral Bowles, C.B. At Queen-square, Bloomsbury, J. B. Taunton, Esq., LL.B. At Twickenham, Peter Brown, Esq., M.R.C.S.E., L.S.A., formerly of Tonbridge, Kent. At Nice, Lady Elizabeth Clifford, wife of Admiral Sir Augustus Clifford. At Warstone House, near Birmingham, Thomas Pem-ber-ton, Esq. At Mile-end, London, Jane, widow of Henry Whythead, Esq., of H.M.'s Customs. At Weymouth, suddenly, Georgiana Phipps, wife of the Rev. John Stephenson. At Paris, Arthur Stow, Esq., of Bredon, Worcestershire. At Coonbor, India, Mary, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Richard Hamilton, Deputy Secretary to the Government, Military De-partment, Madras. At Malta, in the Royal Naval Hospital, Herbert Charles Roads, midshipman, H.M.S. Exmouth.

MONEY.

MESSRS. LIVINGSTON, 20, s Place, E.C. London, have at safe investment £500,000 which can obtained of them, in sums of not less on equitable terms, and adequate secu Estate of Inheritance, and freehold ten or their Solicitors only dealt with, would be a favourable opportunity for consolidating Mortgages.

GLIN UNION.

THE Board of Guardians will, at the FRIDAY, the 25th APRIL, receive and declare Tenders for supply ing, Carriage Free, to the Workhouse, Best quality of White Bread, Do. do. of Brown Bread, ma Irish Wheaten Meal, For 3 or 6 Months, as the F drians may agree on. Good marketable Sour Milk, in less than 10 gallons daily, fr 1st December, 1862, Good pure New Milk, in qua than 20 gallons per week, 1862, till 1st May, 1862, The usual sureties in a bond for the d of the Contract, will be required. Tenders to be lodged with the Clerk o'Clock, a.m., on the above day, marke By order, JAMES F Cle Clerk's Office, Workhouse, April 12, 1862.

County of Limerick PRESENTMENTS FOR SUMM 1862.

THE ROAD SESSIONS, previo Assizes, 1862, will be held as fo WESTERN DIVISION.

Table with 2 columns: Sessions, Baronies. Rows include Pallaskenry, Rathkeale, Foynes, Newcastle, Ballingarry, Kenry, Lower Connelloe, Shanid, Glenquin, Upper Connelloe.

Table with 2 columns: Sessions, Eastern Division. Rows include Patrick's-well, Croom, Kilmannau, Kilmallock, Hospital, Ballineety, Pallasgrean, Murroe, Wightfield, Pubble Brien, Coshma, Costlea, Libs. Kilmallock, Small County, Clanwilliam, Coonagh, Ownybeg, Liberty Barony, 11 o'Clock, County Courthouse, Limerick, 1 o'Clock.

Applications for Presentments a plication for Payment to be lodged Secretary on, or before, THURSDA 1862.

April 15. Limerick, 1