

n alien Church Establishment. Such a Laws regarding Land, as, by promoting tenure, will encourage the judicious tenant's capital and industry, and ensure a return. A large extension of the the protection of the voter in its exer- dlot. A reform of the Poor Law—a (Grand Jury Laws." The gallant Major saying:—"Seeking no favour of any, I self independent of every Government. ll be influenced solely by the interests of nts, of our country, and of our religion." meeting in the Roman Catholic Chapel at Sunday, at which several priests were solutions were adopted pledging those port Major O'Reilly. A correspondent Express states that in the evening a mob nd broke the windows of a gentleman's ch Colonel White was stopping. They the windows of some other persons sup- friendly to his cause. There is a large tabulary in the town, and reinforcements in from the adjoining counties.

PERJURY CASE.—At Longford, on the before Judge Ball, Edward Keenan, an e person, aged 24, was indicted for wilful perjury in swearing before Capt. O'Don- that certain parties had cropped off his as the act had been committed by himself, t after the date alleged by him that the d have been committed. Being called on re prisoner said he himself cut off his ears r, in gaol, and the reason was that he had pretty girl, and she went off the morning dage with another man, and the d—l a could make of her. He also tried the priest —l a haporth he could make of her either He, therefore, did not know what he ptain O'Donnell, R.M. and several wit- e examined, and proved the falsity of the ight by the prisoner. The jury found the iltly. Sentence was deferred.

owing gentlemen were sworn on the County and Jury on Wednesday, by Henry Harding, Sheriff of the county:—Sir Geo. Conway Bart., of Ardrum-house, foreman; Nicholas leader, M.P., Dromagh Castle; Thomas Drishane; Daniel Conner, Manch-house; Bence Jenez, Lisselane; Colonel Edmund Ballymonis; Daniel Clanchy, Charleville; William Cooke Collis, Castlecooke; William owne, Coolcower-house; Edward Daly, Kin- arnd Eyre Neweuham, Maryborough-house; Thomas Forster, Garretstown; Henry Llalval- ey, Esq., Dunboy Castle; John Warren Beach-house; Henry Westropp O'Donovan, William Richard Meade, Ballymartle; Wm. eslic, Courtinasherry; Denis O'Callaghan, house; John Harold Barry, jun., Ballyvonere- Richard John Maxwell Gumbleton, Glenatore; Crofts, Clafalda-house; George B. Teulon, John Thomas Hodder, Ballea Castle.

NETER PIC.—Capt. Dwarus, Castletownsend, for sale at the fair held here on Thursday a weighing 49 stone, and measuring 7 feet 3 length, 6 feet 3¼ inches in girth, and stand- et high. Its age is two years.—Skibbereen

Richard Carey, Rector of Kiltmore, county Tipperary. At the Friends' Meeting-house, Clonmel, William Jones Barcroft, of Bedford, near Moy, county Tyrone, to Hannah Wakefield, daughter of Thomas Handcock, M.D., of Finsbury-square, London, and Lisburn, county Antrim. At the Roman Catholic Church of Galmoy, James Talbot, Esq., Castletown, to Agnes, daughter of the late Michael Hart, Esq., of Castletown, county Kilkenny. At St. Paul's Church, Arran-quay, Dublin, Matthew Heally, Esq., of Francis-street, to Eliza, daughter of the late James Tyrrell, Esq., of Strokestown, county Meath. In Monkstown Church, William St. John, son of Captain J. Coleman, late R.P., to Elizabeth Lena Maria, daughter of the late C. Mannion, Esq., of Newbridge. In London, John, son of Terence Henry, Esq., M.D., late of Athlone, to Agnes, daughter of the late Charles Vyse, Esq. At Edinburgh, George, son of the late William Whitfield, Esq., of Williamsfort, in the King's County, and Staff Officer of Pensioners for the Tullamore district, to Jane Duguid, daughter of the late George Whitfield, Esq., of Barbadoes, and Upper Baker-street, London. In London, Robert Dymond, late Captain 3rd Light Dra- goons, to Annie, daughter of the late J. Donaldson, Esq., of Cheswardine, Salop. At Southampton, L. C. Masterson, Esq., Paymaster H.M.S. Cornwallis, to Mary A. Donaldson Selby, widow of the late Thomas Donaldson Selby, Esq.

DEATHS.

On the 22nd inst., at her brother's house, in William-street, at an advanced age, Anne, daughter of the late James Peacocke, Esq., of this city. On Tuesday, near Carrass, rather suddenly, of apoplexy, Mr. Thomas Dannelly, victualler, of this city, a truly honest and upright man, whose death is very much regretted by all who knew him. He was agreeable, obliging, kind-hearted, and a substantial friend. His remains were interred this afternoon in the new cemetery, followed to the grave by a large and respectable cortege of mourners and citizens. At Middleton Rectory, county Cork, George Atkins, son of the Rev. John Quarry, Rector of Middleton. At Ballinacourty, county Waterford, Richard T. Longan, Esq., M.D. At Mountain Castle, Cappoquin, James O'Keefe, Esq. At Harcourt-street, Dublin, John William Plunkett, Esq., J.P., of Portarnock. At Blackrock, county Dublin, Frances, widow of the late Rev. Dodgson Madden, Chancellor of Ossory, and daughter of the Right Rev. Hugh Hamilton, late Lord Bishop of Ossory. At Parsonstown, Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers. At Mount-Anville, Charles Fox, Esq., D.L., formerly M.P. for the county of Longford. At Hugomount, near Ballymena, Captain H. Harrison, formerly of the 30th Regt. At East Hanover-street, Dublin, Francis White, Esq. At Fort Beaufort, British Caffraria, Caroline Mary, wife of Major the Hon. Edward Sidney Plunkett. At Clifton, John Blackley, Esq., late of Dublin. At Great Stanhope-street, Mayfair, the Baroness Braye. At Brixton, William Willis, Esq., of the Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House. At Queen's-gardens, Hyde-park, Alexander Henry, Esq., Secretary to the Imperial Gaslight and Ceke Company. At Bath, Sophia, daughter of the late Captain James Tod, H.E.I.C.S. At Poole Hall, Cheshire, Louisa Georgiana, daughter of Sir Charles Cuyler. At Hornsey-road, Holloway, Ellen Mary, Harriet Eliza, and Edward Henry, children of Dr. Edward Cottew. At Upper Baker-street, London, on the 6th inst., Eleanor, wife of Joshua Kentish, Esq.; and on the 15th inst., at same place, Joshua Kentish, Esq. At Fulham, Henry Darvell, Esq., late Lieutenant in the 18th Royal Irish. At Hackney, London, the Rev. Dr. Andrew Reed, the well-known Dissenting divine. At Windfield, Berks, Mrs. Esther Strike, aged 103 years, leaving three sons, aged respectively 79, 77, and 75 years, 24 grandchildren, 61 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. At Alverstoke, Ann Lacy, widow of the late Doctor R. P. Hillyar, R.N., Inspector of Hospitals and Fleets. At Gibraltar, suddenly, San Lorenzo Hugh Mackinnon, Naval Cadet of H.M.S. Amphion, son of Captain Mackinnon, of Ham-common. At Camp, Harrisburg, America, A. R. Gibbons, First Lieu- tenant 110th Regiment, Federal Army, son of the late A. Gib- bons, Esq., of Tully House, Moate, King's County.

adjoining, at present in the oc- DESMOND. Those Premises occupy a first Johnson-street (the principal nu and direct thoroughfare to the rickRailway Company, distant walk. An abundant supply c on the Premises renders those manufacturing purposes of man for a Brewery, &c.

Those Premises are held at : 12s. 0d. and subject to an ann during the life of a party now NOTE—A portion of the pre- tion of under tenants, who pay per annum, which will go in aid so long as they shall be occupi Lot No. 2.—Consists of a W MILLER'S HOUSE, well st LAND, comprising 9 acres, 1 r measure. The land superior q ated on the New Road, leadin macthomas, and within ten Town.

The Mill contains four Pair Machinery, driven by a pow about forty feet diameter. The site for a residence, being orn from its elevated position, givi the adjacent country. The w a term of 99 years, from the at the yearly rent of £55, v down the rent to £22 per annu ment of £550, which would e Lives, and 51 years in reversic existence.

Lot No. 3.—Consists of a V with GARDENER'S HOUS and well stocked GARDEN. 3a. 3r. 21p. statute measur only separated from Lot No. The Mill contains three pai Machinery, driven by a Wa feet diameter, off which a Bo another building. Lot No. : Three Lives and 51 years in of the survivor of the three (istence) at a yearly rent of £1

The BONE MILL MAC sold with this Mill, but will l The two sites taken in cor over SEVENTY feet, afford an a considerable amount of Ma to use them in combination, attention of Capitalists.

THOMAS W 101, Customh February 27:

£29,000

FULL Particulars of the sum can be realized, tion to Mr. J. DALTROF the-Maine.

Letters addressed to "M ham Street, Portland Pla immediately forwarded Pos December 28