

ch appeared in our Telegraph Disay,—the City of Washington and the vessel brings news from New York ace to the 8th December. The in-tant, as showing active movements he Federala in pushing forward the all expeditions had sailed, and the captured the battery on the Blackick was taken by the Confederates The expedition of General Banks destination was, however, a sition. Journals state that twenty sailed from Hilton Head on mber for Georgetown or Wil-ral vessels had passed Charleston the purpose, it was supposed, the coming attack on Mobile. als say that 20,000 Federals are at ng to move on Petersburg, while a vern would operate simultaneously n. From this it would seem that ely to be attacked from the South as th. The inaction at Fredericksburg, rties were fortifying, and General nounced his intention of not bomso long as no hostile demonstration It may probably be intended to give folk forces to be brought into play.
 It seem to be considered imminent by Stonewall Jackson has it is said joined icksburg. In Tennessee there had ing. The guerilla Morgan had met ance force from Nashville, and after Moore's brigades several times, finally ubsquently, he attacked the Federals l was defeated with heavy loss. An news is, that the Federals have penade, Mississippi. A Federal expedi-sissippi has discovered that the crop of g in the States of Mississippi, Louisi-as, has been over-estimated. A great is been destroyed. The new crop will ly a few thousand bales remain in the ng the river. ck Chamber of Commerce had held a measures for the relief of the distress There seems to have been some fear he motives of the Chamber should be England, but it was agreed that it uty of America to feed a brother na-Messrs. Griswold and Co. offered a ns burden to convey food to England, relief to the suffering poor, but as a t for the Queen and her friendship for rding to latest news a large sum had and grain in considerable quantities
